The book was printed in Ger--$2 a day for each day spent in the service of the state and two dollars a day for their horses. This pay was pledged by the Oregon legislature of 1856. The veterans have waited long and patiently for this pledge to be kept. Nearly half a century has passed away, many dying and leaving no direct heirs yet not one dollar of the money pledged to them has been forthcoming. In the hope of tardy justice being granted to those survivers of the Indian war of 1855-6 and to the immediate heirs of those who died still waiting to receive their due, the bill introduced by Mr. Mortague has been presented.
