this time of year, when all other red apples have shrunken and lost their flavor, the Ben Davis comes up smiling, handsome and sound, and is relished by Radolph-Hennagin.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry hearing themselves talk or by hearing others. Not all tastes are alike even in eating apples. The Winter Rambo is another apple that is despised by some people, and yet by others it is reckoned as the best apple grown. So it is with the Ben Davis. A great many people like the Ben Davis in its proper season.
