Fresh Eastern oysters, halibut, smelt, at the Eureka market Saturday. Place your orders early and avoid the rush.
This is the season of the year to cut cordwood, grub trees and do your pruning. Get your cross-cut saws, mattocks, axes, wedges, pruning shears and saws at Savage's.
E. E. Savage has been appointed agent for Hood River and vicinity for the E. J. Allen & Co. Planet Jr. goods, and will carry a full line of these celebrated tools, and extra parts for the same.
For Sale—120 acres unimproved land, well watered, good soil; covered with good timber; 2 miles from town. This is a bargain; will be sold before March 30. Price, $1,800; $100 cash, balance terms. Inquire of Geo. T. Prather.
Dr. F. C. Brosius has removed to his new residence at the west end of Oak street, midway between the school house and armory, and can be found in his office over Williams & Brosius' drug store between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 6-7 p. m.
H. F. Davidson was in Seattle during the week.
Ed Hardy of Nicolai is seriously ill with pneumonia.
Mrs. Pratt Whitcomb came up from Portland last Thursday.
Next Sunday evening Rev. H. C. Shaffer will discuss the "Work of Carrie Nation."
The Dalles has another case of small-pox, the victim being a gambler named Savon.
The Sunshine society will meet with Mrs. J. E. Rand on Saturday, February 23d, at 2 p. m.
The Pioneer says W. E. Sherrill moved his furniture stock from that place to Hood River last week.
H. E. Blocher last week sold 10 acres of land to F. E. Bailey for $1,000. About 7 1/2 acres are set to strawberries.
A big limb was twisted off the big pine tree in front of M. H. Nickelson's home last Tuesday by the heavy snow that fell Tuesday.
The entertainment given by the Sunshine society last Friday evening was a success in every way and receipts amounted to $36.
W. L. Clark spent several days in Hood River last week. Mr. Clark is now a deputy in the city surveyor's office in Portland.
Letters remained at the post office, Feb. 18th, for Wm. Carlson, J. M. Doum, Mrs. E. B. Fuller, J. W. McCormick and Gust Swanson.
Miss Vera Cople was on the sick list last week and unable to conduct her school. Miss Mae Lee took her place as assistant at Barrett school.
Twelve of the eighth grade of the Franklin school will take the examination next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Superintendent Gilbert will conduct the examination.
Jas. P. Shaw of Portland was the guest of W. J. Baker during the first part of the week. Mr. Shaw is an old soldier and served during the civil war in the 15th and 31st Ohio regiments.
The annual school election will be held the first Monday in March, the same day that McKinley will be inaugurated for the second term. This is a book that will be wanted by everybody and Mr. Hansberry is taking orders right along.
Robt. Leasure of Mt. Hood returned from Portland last Thursday on his way home after spending three weeks in Portland with his wife who was in the hospital for treatment for inflammatory rheumatism. Mrs. Leasure is now convalescing at the home of her sister in Oregon City.
A party of hoodlums (?) called at the house of E. D. Calkins, last Sunday, and upset things generally about the house. They put the chairs all in one place, set the sewing machine outside, placed the tables against the doors, and went out the back way. A reward of $500 will be cheerfully paid by Mr. Calkins for the arrest and conviction of the hoodlums(?).
A snow storm surprised Hood River Tuesday, February 19th. Snow fell all day and piled up more than a foot deep throughout the valley. It was a wet snow, and sleighing was no good. In town the snow was nearly a foot deep by night and in some parts of the valley it fell to the depth of 16 inches. It turned to rain in the night. Wednesday was a beautiful day overhead, but the slush underfoot was fearful.
The annual school meeting of district No. 2 will be held at Franklin school house at 2 o'clock p. m., March 4, 1901. Each school district is required to have a clerk to serve one year, and consider the matter of providing more school room. The question of providing more school room is an especially important one in the district who is entitled to a vote is urged to be present that there may be a full and free expression of the wishes of the patrons of the district.

A. O. U. W. hall was well filled Monday night on the occasion of the Boydell-Goddard concert. The program was a good one, and each participant in the exercises sustained his or her part well. The instrumental music by Mrs. S. A. Knapp, Clarence Gilbert and W. A. Isenberg was well rendered. Nottia Allen's recitation, "Little Joe, Flowers," showed remarkable talent in the line of acting. Mr. and Mrs. Goddard's vocal duet, "I Live and Love Thee," was heartily applauded, as it deserved. Nellie Rogers, dressed and blacked as a negro woman, did well in her recitation, "Keenock, Philosopher." Nora Atterbury, a favorite of Hood River audiences, well sustained her part in singing. Mrs. Goddard's rendition of the lecturer's acting before an unsophisticated caller who wanted her daughter to learn elocution was a masterpiece of acting and was loudly applauded. Vera Allen's recitation, "Entertaining Her Sister's Bean," was excellently rendered but lost much of its merit by the absence of genuine sympathy in singing "The Great Heavenly Choir" and "Dollie Gray." In the opera of "Love and Whisk" in which Mrs. Goddard, Jessie Rogers, Gloria Lane, Melville Foley and Greenville Goddard, were thoroughly and well sustained throughout. Mr. Foley and the Messrs. Rogers and Lane, for amateurs, did exceptionally well.

A new real estate firm commenced business Monday morning. Judge Prather and E. B. Barnes have formed a partnership and will pull together in helping to build up our community and make its resources known to all who are looking for homes. Judge Prather's long residence of nearly a quarter of a century in Hood River gives him the advantage of knowing the valley thoroughly as well as the people. Mr. Barnes is also well known throughout. Mr. Foley and the Messrs. Rogers and Lane, for amateurs, did exceptionally well.
H. C. Hengst kept account of the butter sold from his three cows last week, also the cost of feed. He sold 412 pounds of butter for which he received $172. Shortage, part of which he fed to his hogs and chickens, cost him $51. Not counting the hay fed, which he calculates was paid for by the milk and cream consumed by the family and the milk fed to the hogs, and the manure, his net profit was $121.
A letter received by Amos Underwood from John Dark, who had gone out to Cowitz for supplies, states that he has struck the ledge he has been looking for on his claim at McCoy creek. It is 10 feet below the water. Dark and his partner had been engaged in running a tunnel since last fall. Dark is also engaged in trapping. He has 100 steel traps, and writes that he caught 8 martins while setting his traps.
The Glacier has been assured by a member of the pie-bitters' club at Belmont that the entertainment given at Mrs. Woodworth's was free from all doggeries such as was enumerated in last week's paper. The evening was spent in social games, with music, and the hostess gave a supper of the excellent kind for which the Woodworth farm is noted.
Thos. J. Canning is laid up with an attack of sciatic rheumatism and is unable to attend the reception given to Department Commander A. J. Goodbrod by Canby post, of which Mr. Canning is commander. Early patriotism is doubt the cause of Mr. Canning's rheumatism.
C. L. Rogers is shipping two carloads of apples this week and will ship another next week. The apples are Spys, Russsets and Ben Davis. One car is made up entirely of Ben Davis. The apples go to Montana and British Columbia. Mr. Rogers has shipped 12,000 boxes of apples this season.
C. G. Morey of Barrett school has been invited to deliver an address at Crapper school house Friday evening, March 1st, at 7.30. His topic will be "From our Point of View." He will speak from the side of the teachers in the work of education.
G. J. Gesling received word Tuesday that his sister, Mrs. Rosenbluh, and husband were killed at their home in Canton, Ohio, Feb. 8th, by the explosion of gas. Five children, all under 10 years of age, were left orphans.
Wm. Thompson, who was laid up in his bed for three weeks or more, suffering with his old complaint, is again on the streets. He will go to a Portland hospital in a short time to undergo treatment.
Mrs. Geo. F. Coo received a letter from her mother last week. He is still in Oakland, Cal., and has been laid up with the grip for six weeks, not able to get out of the house.
D. G. Hill has part of the lumber on the ground for a new house and is only waiting for the balance to start the work of building. E. F. Belien has the contract for the new house.
Davenport Bros. put up 70 tons of ice during the late cold snap. The ice was cut from their pond at their big mill on the mountain and was 8 inches thick.
E. W. Winans says he has followed the rule all his life of breathing through his nose. He has never had catarrh and rarely takes cold.
Joe Backus was in town during the week. He came down from the John Day country with a lot of cattle for Troutdale.
Chas. W. Acker, representing the Native Son, a magazine that is among the best on the coast, was in town Wednesday.
M. J. Benjamin of the Denver Clothing Store returned Sunday from a trip to the eastern part of Wasco county.
On Lincoln day Rev. J. W. Jenkins visited Barrett school and gave a pleasant talk to the pupils on Lincoln.
Master David Loring and nurse, Miss Mutch of Portland, are guests of Miss Teal.
Sam Blowers returned from Portland business college Wednesday.
W. P. Watson, who has been sick with grip, is able to be out again.
Mrs. D. G. Hill returned on Saturday last from her trip East.
Little Richard Bartlett is quite ill with acute bronchitis.
Mrs. A. S. Blowers is still very sick with the grip.
J. K. of Moscow, Idaho, was in town Wednesday.
Syracuse plows, J. R. Nickelson sole agent.
Miss Lillian Lewis is sick with tonsillitis.
Judge Henry is about laid up with the grip.
Married.
In Hood River valley, at the residence of the bride, on the East Side, Feb. 17, 1901, Geo. Booth and Mrs. Alice R. Kemp; Rev. Troy Shelly officiating.
The newly married couple left at the afternoon train Monday for a trip to Portland. They will be at home, at the residence of the bride, after this week. The Glacier extends congratulations.

Highest market price paid in cash for chickens, hogs and all kinds of fat live stock at Reciprocity Corner.

Report show a greatly increased death rate from throat and lung troubles, due to the prevalence of croup, pneumonia and grip. We advise the use of One Minute Cough Cure in all these difficulties. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Children like it. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

Old-Timers
Had their day, but their time is past and gone, and the smoker of today buys "Uriah Heep," the best cigar on the market. Try one.

Parable.

An American crossing Europe once bought a first-class stage ticket for a day's ride through a mountainous country. After several hours' riding he thought it very foolish to have bought a first-class ticket when all passengers apparently fared alike. So he asked the driver what he got that the second and third class passengers did not. The driver assured him that his value would appear before the end of the journey. He saw the point when, just after dinner, at the foot of a seven-mile hill, the driver announced: "First-class passengers, keep your seats; second class, get out and walk; third class, get out and PUSH!"

There is a parallel to this in our Shoe business. When you buy our Shoes and Rubbers you may be excused for wondering what more you get than those who buy second and third class goods at a few cents less first cost, but it is sure to appear before the end of the shoe's journey.

Musical and Literary Entertainment.
Following is the programme for the musical and literary entertainment by Miss Susan M. Gambell, soprano, and Miss Grace A. Holmes, reader, assisted by Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Jr., and Mae Bradley, for the benefit of the Hood River school library, to be held in the Congregational church, Friday evening, Feb. 22d, at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c; "Forbidden Music".....Gastonon
"A Judith of 1850".....Cavanaugh
"The All that I Can Say".....Hope Temple
"Just Like Other Folks".....Haight
(a) "Through Sun and Snow".....Toto Nattie
(b) "Mignon".....May d'Haridout
Song, "An Old Fashioned Mother".....Miss Holmes
"Merchant of Venice" Act IV, scene 1.....Miss Bradley
"If Dreams Come True".....Shakespeare
(a) "The Night Watch".....Field
(c) "My Ship of Love".....De Witt
(d) "Hasty and Slow".....Holmes
"Farewell to Summer".....Noel Johnson
Miss Gambell.

For the weakness and prostration following grip there is nothing so prompt and effective as One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation is highly endorsed as an unailing remedy for all throat and lung troubles and its early use prevents complication. It is made to cure quickly. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

Well-deserved Tribute to Uncle Oliver.
At the last monthly business session of the official board of the United Brethren church, the following resolution was adopted:
Whereas, Uncle Oliver Bartmess has for about seven years given his services as janitor, gratis; and
Whereas, He has also furnished the church with wood, free of charge, besides the money he has given; therefore be it Resolved, That the official board hereby express to Uncle Oliver Bartmess their appreciation of his services, which have but rarely been duplicated in the history of local churches anywhere; and that this resolution be spread on the minutes of this session and printed in the Hood River Glacier.
H. C. STAFFER, Chairman.
MRS. J. R. NICKELSON, Secretary.
