

Hood River Glacier.

FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1901.

A friend, writing to the Glacier, mentions the fact that Slingerland's best (Hood River) apples are selling at wholesale in Portland at $2.50 a box, while California's best oranges are selling at wholesale in the same market at $2.25 a box. It might be added that Hood River's best apple lands are held at from $50 to $125 an acre, while California's best orange land is held at $1,000 an acre and upwards. Apple orchard land in the famous Pajarito valley of California is held at $600 and $800 an acre. They grow no better apples there than in Hood River, but their orchards are extensive, and apple buyers can go there in the season and purchase apples by the train load, or bargain for them in such quantities in advance of the harvest. Every acre planted to winter apples in Hood River will help to sell the product of other orchards here when it comes into bearing. At the same time all of our apple land is made more valuable with every acre planted. The excellent quality of our fruit, or nearness to the mining districts—the best markets in the world—and our unrivalled transportation facilities, combine to give Hood River a prominence that is being recognized by the home-seeker and the man with capital to invest.

A terrible tragedy is reported from Vancouver, Wash. Chas. Brown and E. L. Canby, president and cashier of First National Bank of that city, after falsifying the books of the bank for years, were detected in their crookedness by Bank Examiner Maxwell, last Friday. Bad speculation in boom times was the starter for the bank's misfortunes, and these two officials had managed by false entries to keep the bank going since 1893. Depositors will suffer heavy losses. Brown and Canby couldn't face the fury of duped depositors and public opinion, but they had the nerve to kill themselves, and their lifeless bodies were found in the woods near town, with an empty pistol showing that both had suicided with the same weapon.

The Portland Evening Telegram contemplates organizing a party to visit the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. Low rates, special features, side trips to New York, Toronto, Niagara, Thousand Islands, down Hudson river and to Cleveland will be arranged for and an experienced conductor will accompany the party and relieve the members of all the troublesome details in connection with tickets, berths, baggage, hotels, etc.

Hurry and bustle is the order of the day in Hood River. Everybody is working under high pressure to get through the spring work and prepare for making care of the strawberry crop now due in a few days. In the town, the sounds of carpenter's tools are heard on every hand. Store rooms are being enlarged, and new ones added to be occupied by newcomers who want to be in on the ground floor of Hood River's "boom," when it arrives.

The Cheney (Wash.) Sentinel has changed hands and is now published by A. W. Thornton. Under its present management the Sentinel bids fair to regain the standing it once held as one of the leading newspapers of Eastern Washington. Cheney is situated in a fine agricultural country that is now getting its share of the big immigration moving from the East to our neighboring state.

A snow storm, extending from Lake Erie to Tennessee, only last Saturday, covered the states of Ohio and Kentucky with snow to a depth of a foot or more. Floods in the Ohio river and tributaries around Pittsburgh destroyed property to the extent of $3,000,000.

It is rather hard on Hood River to have to give in property valuations to a deputy assessor who last year was our census enumerator. Last year we were rich, with everything coming our way; this year we are too poor to pay taxes.

In parts of Australia a drouth has lasted for six years. Many stations in Queensland and New South Wales have had no rains for two years, and the number of sheep has been reduced in six years by some 50,000,000.

The Oregon Lumber Manufacturing Association and the Southwestern Washington Association have recently advanced the price of lumber from $1 to $4 per thousand on the different grades.

The Inland Empire of Walla Walla published an illustrated edition giving a description of Walla Walla city and valley and other sections of Eastern Washington. Price 25 cents.

It is a surprising fact that the apple crop of the United States is of greater value than the wheat crop. But the apple is not recognized as a necessary staple of life, and therefore its market quotations create less interest and cut a smaller figure in the concerns of nations. The entire apple crop of the United States for last year amounted to 215,000,000 barrels. Placing the value as low as $1.75 a barrel, it totals $376,250,000, while the wheat crop of the nation in 1899 was valued at farm value at $319,445,250.

The Rev. W. A. P. Martin, who was in Pekin all through the great siege, calls the loss of the great Imperial Library at Pekin the greatest loss of valuable books since the destruction of the library at Alexandria. The thousands upon thousands of rare volumes and manuscripts which cannot be replaced were utterly destroyed by flames and by the ruthless and wanton desire to pillage. Not even a vestige of the former glory of the great library is now left.

If a man must swear, let him swear and be done with it. The substitutes wherewith a timorous conscience salves itself, snack of cowardice—"Gosh darn," and "I swan" and "I sware" and "I may cri-crit" and "tarnation" and "darn it" and "dog gone!" and the whole brood of sneaks—away with them! If your communication cannot be yes, yea and nay, say, if you must swear, do it as though you meant it.—New York Sun.

Prophecy Comes True in Egypt.

My to push our pencil once more. Mr. Hood is now quite fruitless, as M. W. Cooper has the last load of apples on the last Saturday for P. F. Knudson. They were the finest lot of apples that ever went to Hood River from here.

Frank Spaulding moved his family out to his homestead near Mt. Hood, last week, where he will stay for the summer at least.

Lewis Burkhardt has returned from Portland to his ranch for the summer. Lewis is welcomed back by his many friends. He had a fine position in Portland at good wages. He may go back next winter to his old job.

H. H. Tomlinson has been doing a good job of blasting out stumps for a week or more where he intends building his new home this summer.

The way Tom Larewood came stepping down to the new school house the other day was no trouble to him at all, and upon inquiry, we learned that Thomas was celebrating the arrival of a son at his home.

J. R. Bird has started logging on the East Fork of Hood river. He expects to run 40 to 50 men all summer. He is going to build a dam on East Fork to be 40 feet high by 200 feet long and will cover about 50 acres of land to a depth of 60 feet with water. This is one of the finest dam sites on the East Fork. We are all anxious to see that the dam will be a success, as Mr. Bird is a good logger, and we want to see him make some money, as he deserves it, and it will help the country out here.

Job Couldn't Have Stood It
If he'd had itching piles, they're terribly annoying, but Bucklin's Arnica Salve will cure the worst case of piles on earth. It has cured thousands. For injuries, pains or bodily eruptions it's the best salve in the world. Price 25c a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

Among the questions at the recent examination for teachers' certificates at The Dalles the applicants were asked to name two national conventions in 1900 and the candidates nominated. One of the candidates for pedagogy answered, "The Republican convention at Philadelphia nominated Wm. McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt; the democratic convention at Salem, Oregon, nominated W. J. Bryan and Mark Hanna." The fair applicant answered, however, with a general average rating of 88.

It's Easy to Feel Good.
Countless thousands have found a blessing to the body in Dr. King's New Life Pills, which positively cure constipation, sick headache, dizziness, jaundice, malaria, fever and ague and all liver and stomach troubles. Purely vegetable, never gripe or weaken. Only 25c at Chas. N. Clarke's drug store.

A heavy frost at Van Buren, Ark., April 18th, injured strawberries and the crop will be two weeks late.

S. J. Vidger, commission merchant of Fargo, N. D., died recently. Mr. Vidger handled a great many Hood River strawberries during the past four or five years.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular. Chas. N. Clarke.

The Arkansas state senate has passed a bill requiring every saloon patron to pay a license of $5.

Skin troubles, cuts, burns, scalds and chafing quickly yield to the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is limited. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Chas. N. Clarke.

It is expected that the crop of peaches this year in the Southern states will be excellent. The past winter in the South has been most favorable for the fruit buds and the outlook for a large crop is good. In Georgia and Delaware, where more than 2,000 car loads were shipped last year, it is farmers expect to double that number this year.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system. They never gripe. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

"Pat," said a manager to one of his workmen, "you must be an early riser. I always find you at work the first thing in the morning." "Indeed and O' am, sir. It's a family trait O'm thinking."

"Then your father is an early riser, too?" "No, father, is it? He rises that early that he has to be led a little later. I would meet himself getting up in the mornin'."—London Tit Bits.

Spring coughs are specially dangerous and unless cured at once, serious results often follow. One Minute Cough Cure acts like magic. It is not a common mixture, but a high grade remedy. Chas. N. Clarke.

On March 24th James G. Green shot and killed E. V. Benjamin at Underwood's landing, in this county. On April 12th Green was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury of his peers, after a fair and impartial trial. In less than three weeks the murderer was in the county jail, and captured, and the formalities of law duly observed, the trial held and the verdict rendered. Now it seems to us that is a pretty good record for a little county.—Pioneer.

"Had piles so bad I could get no rest nor find a cure until I tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers. After using it once I forgot I ever had anything the matter."—E. C. Boice, Somers Point, N. Y. Look out for imitations. Be sure you ask for DeWitt's. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon, March 4, 1901.—Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 8, 1884, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the public land states by act of August 4, 1892.

OTTEPH VALLEY, county of Wasco, state of Oregon, has on Sept. 10, 1900, filed in this office his sworn statement No. 22 for the purchase of the southwest 1/4 and lots 7 and 12, section 7, township 2 north, range 9 east, W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at The Dalles, Oregon, on Saturday, the 24th day of May, 1901.

He names as witnesses: Clyde T. Bonney, Donald Ross, G. R. Hartley and Leslie Butler, all of Hood River, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 24th day of May, 1901, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Administrator's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the county court of the state of Oregon, to administer the estate of the late of Milton O. Wheeler, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same to me, properly verified, as by law required, at Hood River, Oregon, within six months from the date hereof.
