The Coming of a Boom.

April 27, 1901—Editor Glacier: The coming and going of the periodical booms in the United States, to one who studies them in periods of decades and half centuries, is much like watching the ebb and flow of the tide. They seem to be superhuman, no combination of capital being powerful enough to bring them out of season, no warnings of the press vivid enough to prevent them. The depressions or lulls of the wave have generally been precipitated by some one prominent cause or failure—the crest of the wave comes irresistibly, and due apparently to no one cause.

Down in 1837, up in 1850; down in 1860, up in 1875; down in 1875, up in 1878 and rising until 1882; down in 1883, up in 1888 and rising until 1892; down in 1893, up in 1898 and still rising. The beginnings of the rise in recent years have been found in the stock market of New York City. There, in 1877, Erie stock stood at 4 1/2, rising to 5 1/2 in 1881; Kansas and Texas stood at 4 1/2 in 1877, at 5 1/2 in 1881; Kansas and Pacific at 1 1/2 in 1877, at 10 1/2 in 1881; New Jersey Central at 6 in 1877, 10 in 1881; Chicago and Northwestern at 15 in 1877, 13 in 1881; Ohio and Mississippi at 2 1/2 in 1877, 6 in 1881; St. Paul at 11 in 1877, 12 1/2 in 1881. And so on through the list.

In each upward movement other securities followed railway stocks, though at greater or less distance in time. Real estate has been the last to move in each boom. Its upward whirl in every case has been more rapid, less conservative of rental values, and more completely based on "futures." Those who got in on the ground floor and those who came in on the upward rise and then retired, amassed fortunes quickly, more rapidly than in the stock market in many cases. The western real estate boom has generally come like the birds, by a southerly route. Westward the wave of real estate speculation has reached southern California by way of Los Angeles, central California by way of Kansas City and Denver. In 1882 and early 1883 Portland felt it. Additions were laid off southward on the west bank towards the Chinese gardens, and on the east bank to Sellwood, and northward throughout Albina. A similar speculative rise had been experienced prior to 1873. The Villard failure overthrew the rise of 1883. In 1886-7 the rise seemed to come largely from the Southern California orange interests. Los Angeles was the center of the speculative stir. The lot mania spread rapidly to central California, thence coming to Oregon in 1887-8, and continuing until 1892-3. In spite of the predictions of previous unfortunates, each real estate wave has exceeded its predecessor in speculative height. Staid Portland was surrounded by as large a fringe of speculative lots as was Washouville, Tacoma or progressive Seattle. All the smaller towns of Oregon and Washington shared in the speculative rise. Hood River perhaps among the least. Yet Hood River has made solid advance, though not as yet largely speculative. Many of us remember how the Oak brothers in 1883 were selling lots on Oak and Bridge streets, near Third and Fourth, for $50, $60 and $70 per lot. These lots have since changed hands for $300, $500 and $1000. These changes in a few years approximate the boom changes of value, but have been good investments, no one person holding very largely.

Close students of the waves of depression and prosperity are now closely studying the movement westward of values. The "industrialists" have as yet drawn most of the speculative interest, but not entirely so. Throughout the farm lands of the middle west, farm values have steadily risen until land now is rapidly changing hands at $75 to $100 per acre which a few years ago went begging at $20. Banks are lending readily up to one-half of these values. As one banker expressed it to the writer, "We lend any man $30 per acre without looking at his farm." Eastern men of moderate capital are flocking again towards Los Angeles. Eastern capital has lost its tenuity. Many having needlessly lost by having, in 1893, lost faith in the West, are making haste toward the other extreme. Millions are moving westward to mines and water powers and irrigation about Helena as the money center of Montana, Boise for Idaho, Spokane for mines, and Portland and the coast for timber. Helena capitalists, such as A. M. Holter and his associates, are quietly securing Oregon forests before launching out in mills and shipping. These things may or may not form the basis of a boom. But every rapid gain made in Wall street tends to infect the whole speculative community of the entire country with the craze for betting upon a rise. The rapidity of such rises of value in western property is almost inevitable. We recall one case of a tract purchased for $100 an acre in May rising to $900 in October of the same year. Another tract bought in November ten times its purchase price of the previous April. In still another case, land purchased at $12.50 per acre in June sold for $600 per acre in December of the same year. This year the volume of the sales of the New York Stock Exchange have greatly exceeded those of any previous boom. Some of the enthusiastic around these speculative centers are watching for the attendant real estate move very keenly. Their close knowledge of western conditions is interesting even to one who has no money to invest in booms, but who nevertheless can follow these national movements with interest.

The contractor for the Capt. Cook road at White Salmon will complete the job. The grade is an easy one.

St. Martin's Springs.

The Glacie family took a trip to St. Martin's hot springs, at Carson, Wash., last Friday, and spent several days at that popular resort for invalids. Carson Landing is reached in about two hours from Hood River by the Regulator Line. The hotel is 2 1/2 miles from the steamboat landing. Quite a valley, with a thrifty settlement, opens up to view after you have made the ascent of the hill from the landing. The Hotel St. Martin is a three-story building of about 30 rooms, located on the tall fir on the slope to Wind River. The mineral spring, where the bath houses are located, is at the river's edge, and a steep, winding trail leads down to about 300 yards from the hotel. At present about thirty persons are at the spring seeking the hot water for medicinal purposes. The hot water is found in many places before they have found it. The healing properties of this spring are wonderful in some cases. Persons afflicted with diseases of the skin, stomach, liver and kidneys generally find relief. Rheumatism is often cured. The hot water is well-scented, and excellent country fare. Everything is plain. There is no "style." The invalid with small means is treated as well as the rich. The bath houses are rudimentary but serve their purpose. Invalid men able to pump the water for their baths can look out for themselves; for the weaker ones and women there is an attendant who draws the water and pumps it into the bath. These springs were discovered by Leander St. Martin on his lands six or eight years ago, but as yet they are little known.

Gen. Drescher, a barber, who at one time worked for Evans & Knapp in Hood River, is an employee at the Hotel St. Martin. To Mr. Drescher is left the general management of affairs at the hotel and at the baths, and there was never an employe more accommodating to guests. He also runs a barber chair and gives a neat shave. If anything is wanted you are told to "see George." Wm. Byrd of Hood River is employed as waiter at the hotel. W. L. Melfon and family of Hood River are camped near the hotel. Mrs. Melfon has been greatly benefited by the baths. Joe Asbury, who has been working for Davenport Bros., is recovering from an attack of rheumatism by making frequent use of the hot baths.

The logging camp of Button & Sons is located about 1 1/2 miles from the spring, and Frank Button, Ralph Button and Winfield Olinger were visitors and bathers there on Sunday. The fare to Carson Landing from Hood River by the Regulator Line is 75 cents for the round trip; by wagon to the hotel, round trip, $1; boarding and lodging, including baths, $1.25 a day; camping privileges, including baths, $2.50 a week.

Fought for His Life.

"My father and sister both died of consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." Infallible for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1 at Chas. N. Clarke's.

Staggered at His Past.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Berna Mann of Levanna, O., "my three years of suffering from kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out about ready to give up. When I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivalled to regulate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Chas. N. Clarke. Only 50c.

J. W. Jenkins will preach at Mosier on Sunday.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Bowers, will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular. Chas. N. Clarke. County Treasurer J. F. Hamp here today mailed to State Treasurer Charles S. Moore a check for the entire state taxes of Wasco county for the year 1900 amounting to $20,268.85. Of this sum $8,129.85 is the county's share of the scalp bounty tax—Chronic.

Skin troubles, cuts, burns, scalds and chafing quickly heal by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is so mild, so sure and so fast.

Chas. N. Clarke. We can look out for a good high water in the Columbia this year. They tell us there is little snow in the mountains, but there is always enough to make a high water when it all comes at once, and generally comes that way when we are in a late spring.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rough cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged.

DeWitt's Little Early Bowers cleanse the whole system. They never grip. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy. Assessor Rankin accompanied his wife to Helena, Mont. last week, where she has gone to spend the summer on the farm for the benefit of her health, which has been quite poor this spring—Scentual.

Springs coughs are especially dangerous and are cured at once serious results often follow. One Minute Cough Cure acts like magic. It is not a common mixture but is a high grade remedy. Chas. N. Clarke.

There are estimated to be 1,600 men in Oregon, who served in the Spanish war, over 4,000 veterans of the civil war and about 1,000 Indian war veterans. "I had piles but I could get no rest nor find a cure until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. After using it once I forgot I ever had anything like piles."—E. C. Boice, Somers Point, N. Y. Look out for imitations. Be sure you ask for DeWitt's. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

The Portland university building and campus and as much ground as may be needed has been offered free of charge for a site for the Lewis and Clark centennial.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy."—T. K. Housman, Manufacturing, Pa. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

Col. E. W. Enos of Goldendale is sick near unto death. The colonel is in his 83d year.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you don't eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind. And it is the one remedy that will do it. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for 10 years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and I feel much better than I have for a long time. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in 20 years."—Anderson Riggs of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. Chas. N. Clarke, Glacier Pharmacy.

Lon Morse made an assignment last Saturday for the benefit of his creditors.

Mr. Morse had just got into possession to make some money, and if he had been allowed to run his camp here through the winter and into the spring he would not wait and so he was pushed to the wall. Mr. and Mrs. Morse have many friends here who are truly sorry for them. Mr. Morse moved his family to Hood River Monday—Pioneer.
