W. L. Clark is making a preliminary survey for establishing the street grades of Hood River.
Hon. T. R. Coon has been drawn as a trial juror in the U. S. district court to convene in Portland May 27th.
J. W. Watson was in town during the week, having recently returned from a trip to the eastern part of Oregon.
C. A. Shurtle of Antelope was down to see his ranch at White Salmon on Monday and called to visit friends in Hood River.
The members of the Epworth League will hold a social at the residence of C. T. Bonney, E. H. Middleton of Portland was in town Monday.
All members are requested to be present.
The manager of the Hotel Portland has ordered Hood River strawberries for the presidential party which will be guests at his hotel on the 22d and 23d of May.
Geo. Borman and Wm. Walker are employed on the little steamer Iralda, the former as deck hand and the latter as cook. The boys are well pleased with their work.
Capt. Coe, superintendent of streets, finds that he is short on teams for doing work on the streets. He requests that persons owning teams to pay their taxes with team work.
Rev. E. E. Fix and sister-in-law, Miss Lydia Hiestand, came down from Pendleton on Tuesday. Miss Hiestand went out to her home on the forks of Hood river.
J. J. Luckey and Flint Bradford went to Sherman county last week and were there for two days. They report the Sherman county country looking lovely, with fine prospects for crops.
W. O. Ash and E. M. McCarty came up from Portland with their families the first of the week and are occupying rooms over Everhart's store. Messrs. Ash & McCarty are the proprietors of the new store in the Odd Fellows' building.
Miss Bess Isenberg, who is teaching the Mill Creek school, came home yesterday to partake of the wedding supper given in honor of the marriage of her brother Howard. Miss Nellie Spong of Salem, who is visiting Miss Bess, accompanied her to the Dalles.
Mart Rand tells this fish story: He was fishing the other day and let his hook get fast in what he supposed was a log. By gently pulling on the line the hook came up and a gallon jug with it. Upon investigation he found that a fish was in the jug and it had swallowed the bait and hook. The fish had entered the jug when it was a little fish and grew too big to get out. Some people would hardly believe this story unless they heard Mart tell it himself.
H. Peugh, on Monday, bought of Dr. J. F. Watt the lot on River street on which the Chinese laundry has been located for years. The celestial occupation kept such a dirty, stinking, nasty place that the neighbors in the adjoining lot, which is owned by Mr. Peugh, complained, and Mr. Peugh had to buy the lot and clean it up for his tenants. Mr. Peugh will tear down the old shack and build it up and haul some fresh earth and cover the stinking spot and try and eradicate the foul odors of the Chinese before he builds on the lot.

The young people of the congregation church, with the view of raising a fund to improve the church property, have decided to give a street fair and strawberry carnival at the afternoon and evening of June 4th, 5th and 6th, and at a business meeting of the Endeavor society last Thursday night the plans were adopted and Maj. J. S. Booth was appointed chairman. The committee which will manage the fair is as follows: F. B. Barnes, Mrs. Price, Miss Carrie Butler, and Miss Hester Howe. The fair will be held upon the church grounds which will be enclosed with a thick hedge of fir trees and an ornamental entrance arch will be built on State street. Inside will be located the various booths and concessions which will be gaily decorated, the whole to be brilliantly lighted at night. Moonlight excursions will be run from The Dalles, and probably a special excursion from Portland. Spectacular attractions will be arranged for each night and the people of Hood River and vicinity will be given a touch of gala life that they will enjoy.

The box social given Tuesday evening at the residence of M. H. Nickelson at Belmont under the auspices of the Junior League was a complete success. The Juniors were out in full force and exerted themselves to entertain their guests. When the boxes were sold Bert Tyler bought the box that was awarded the first prize, and Fred Chandler the second prize. Bert found his lady was Miss Mable Miller and Fred who had the Hood River Glacier found upon opening it lots of good things as every one expected. The box was a beautiful one, a box of Hood River stationery; the box being tastefully decorated and containing a sachet for perfuming the stationery. The evening was pleasantly passed with games, music, etc., and those present voted the Juniors the scene of entertainers. The gentlemen acting as judges were Messrs. Butts, King and Noteman.

Miss Susie M. Gambell and Miss Grace A. Holmes, both of Portland, gave at their popular entertainments at the Congregational church last Saturday evening. The number who gathered to receive them completely filled the church and every eye was highly pleased with the artistic rendition of the several parts. Miss Gambell as a soloist, and Miss Holmes as impersonator are hard to excel and their public efforts have gained for them a warm place in the hearts of Hood River people. Mrs. P. S. Davidson, jr. ably presided at the piano, and Mrs. A. Jayne rendered a beautiful and the receipts were about $27, part of which was given to the public library. Prof. Thompson stated that there were 280 volumes in the school library, and during the past school year 750 volumes were read by the pupils of the school. This is an excellent showing, and there is hardly any public interest in our midst that is more deserving of support than our school library. The surplus proceeds of the two entertainments given by the Misses Gambell and Holmes have been devoted to this worthy object.

These warm days are especially favorable to the propagation of lice in the chicken coops and houses. One of the very best remedies for vermin in use is prepared as follows: Dissolve 1 pound of sulphate of copper (blue vitriol) in a quart of hot water, using a wooden or stoneware vessel, slack 1 pound of quick lime, and when these materials are thoroughly dissolved put in a wooden chest containing 10 gallons of water. Stir thoroughly and strain through a fine sieve or coarse cloth, add 5 ounces carbolic acid and apply to the entire surface of the inside of poultry house with a spray pump. This spray may be put on with a brush but so effectively. It is an excellent disinfectant and will kill both the lice and their eggs wherever it touches them. Remember the meeting of the Hood River poultry club, May 4th, p. m., in the A. O. U. W. hall. In the afternoon, gentlemen are entitled to membership upon payment of the annual fees. Come out and help us to boom the town.

The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church will give another of its popular monthly teas at the residence of Mrs. B. E. Graham on Friday (today) from 2 to 5 p. m. An interesting program consisting of musical and literary selections, will be rendered by local talent. The Misses Lewis, J. S. Booth, Mrs. Louise Griddard, the Misses Rogers and others will have parts in the programme. Light refreshments will be served. Both ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited to attend this tea.

Miss Holmes gave an entertainment at the Dalles on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Congregational church. The following named persons from Hood River attended: Leslie Butler, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bartmess, Mrs. H. C. Shaffer, Miss Carrie Butler, F. B. Barnes, Clarence Gilbert, Miss Nellie Isenberg and Agnes Dukes. All report a good evening spent.

On last Thursday afternoon quite a number of friends gathered at the home of H. Peugh to help celebrate his 75th birthday anniversary. Luncheon was served at 4 o'clock, to which all had ample justice, after which the friends took their departure, heartily wishing Mr. Peugh many more such pleasant birthdays.

Paul Kruger, representing The Dalles Mountaineer, is in the valley on a business trip for that paper. Mr. Kruger is a resident of the town of Orem, president of the Transval republic. His father was killed in the Franco-Prussian war, when he was sent to the Transval and his uncle raised him and educated him at the university of Berlin.

K. of P. Lodge, at their meeting Tuesday evening, after initiation work entertained several visiting members, among the number Judge Bradshaw, grand chancellor, of The Dalles, and Judge Calkins, past grand chancellor, of Portland. A banquet was served and a pleasant time enjoyed.

Dog taxes were due May 1st. Marshal Olinger says they must be paid.

Miss Gerie Davenport came down from Mosier and visited her sister, Mrs. Kase, during her dosing week of the public school here.

Con West, a laborer at the planer, lost a $20 currency note while on his way to town Wednesday.

Miss Dudson of Chicago arrived last Saturday and is the guest of Miss Teal. Miss Dudson has recently returned from a visit and a half-travel in Europe. When asked what she thought of Hood River she said: "It's perfectly superb. In some ways it reminds me of Wales, and yet it is different from any other place I've ever seen. It is beautiful in that it is not to be compared with other places."

Mrs. Teal, after a few days with her daughter, went to The Dalles on Sunday to visit her friend Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

R. L. Sabin came up Saturday to see his family. He returned to Portland Monday morning.

Miss Nellie Irwin returned home last Thursday from Portland where she has been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. H. R. Lewis and family are settled in their new home on the Smith place at Belmont. They like their new home very much. Ralph Lewis of Portland is visiting them at present, and all hands are putting in a vegetable garden.

A young couple, whose names we will not mention, started out last Sunday to find their way around the block, and stopped at Mr. King's place to inquire the way. The young man, who had the door told them there was a dim road through the woods, which, if they followed for a quarter of a mile would bring them to their destination. Of all the roads this side San Juan Hill, that was certainly the best. The couple thought they were lost sure, but at last came out at F. W. Angus' place, where they discovered it was too late to finish the journey, so turned the horse's head homeward. Moral—Be sure you are right then go ahead.

"What Happened to Parker?" Hood River theater lovers will have a rare treat on the night of Friday, May 10th, at Armony hall. There will be a rendition of that more than complete comedy, "What Happened to Parker," under the personal direction of Robt. Lee Sutton, supported by ten local performers of local reputation. Sutton has been a knight of the footlights for 17 years. The support selected consists of the best local talent in the city, who are working hard to make this play one that will outdo anything of the kind ever put before the people of Hood River. The acts of fun and good dramatic situation. Arrangements have been made for special scenery for the stage and for the seating and lighting of the armory. Seats on sale at Booth's.

Birthday Surprise. Editor Glacier.—On the eve of the 25th of April our house was taken by our friends and neighbors, members of the order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Hayes' birthday anniversary being Friday, the 26th inst., the coming on the evening previous was to take us by surprise. We were surprised. At about 8:30 o'clock the door was opened, and in came Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. F. Davidson, Mothers Morse and Fage, Mrs. Brodus, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Rogers, and Miss Helen Davidson. At 10 o'clock a dainty lunch was served, which was brought by the guests. A number of presents were given to Mrs. Hayes that were highly appreciated. Requests were received by phone from a number who were unable to be present. It was an evening that will long be remembered by Mrs. Hayes and myself, for the happiness it afforded us by the presence of our friends and the good wishes they brought for the continuation of many anniversaries, like the one celebrated. While grateful for the remembrances of friendship and kind regards, may we in return hope that life's pathway may be sunny and bright to all our friends, and especially to those whose presence and words of cheer made us feel we were not forgotten.

Born. At Probstel, Wash., April 13, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Loy, a daughter.

At Ringen, Wash., April 30, to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Henderson, a son.

SOLD BY Chas. N. Clarke, Agt., at the Glacier Pharmacy.

Portland, Oregon, April 30, 1901.—In reply to the answer of J. W. Goodwin to my former challenge, I will issue another, which I hope will give satisfaction and be accepted.

I challenge J. W. Goodwin to discuss the following questions in Hood River valley:

Resolved, That the Adventist Christian church is biblical in its origin, doctrine and teachings, and therefore a church of Christ, L. G. Dix, affirmative; negative.

Resolved, That the Christian church of Latter Day Saints of Jesus Christ is biblical in its origin, doctrine and teachings, and therefore a church of Christ, L. G. Dix, affirmative; negative.

Resolved, That the bible plainly teaches that man by nature is immortal and therefore cannot die or become unconscious. — affirmative; L. G. Dix, negative.

Resolved, That the bible and teachings of Joseph Smith prove him to be a false prophet.

Resolved, That the bible and teachings of Joseph Smith and the bible prove him to be a true prophet of God. — affirmative; L. G. Dix, negative.

Resolved, That the bible will accept those propositions as stated with the understanding that the bible alone must settle the first four points, and the teachings of Joseph Smith the last two, my moderator is ready to sign articles of discussion with another moderator to be chosen by Mr. Goodwin. I have chosen Elder X. Y. Z. man of Hood River, and I will be ready to begin the discussion on Monday night, July 8, 1901, unless sickness interferes. — affirmative; L. G. Dix.

The U. S. Y. P. S. C. E. will give a dime social on Wednesday evening, May 8th at the home of Mrs. Bartmess. All are invited.
