A pair of good rubber boots found in Blowers park are at H. J. Frederic's for the owner.
More Royal Ranges sold in Hood River than any other. Return to Savage's headquarters for stores.
We are closing out our stock of Planet Jr goods. Get some of them before they are all gone, at Rand's.
Bed bugs are holding indignation meetings all over the valley, all on account of Barmess' iron bedsteads.
Lost—On the steamer Dallas City, July 24th, a package containing a shawl and blanket. Return to Glacier office.
Whip lost off the Sprinkler—Finder returns to Wm. Thompson and receive reward, more than the whip is worth.
Jensen's Confectionery—the only place in town where you can find natural ice. Delivered free to any place in town.
Dr. F. C. Brosius has removed to his new residence at the west end of Oak street, midway between the school house and armory, and can be found in his office over Jackson's store between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 4-7 p. m.

A laugh is just like music.
It lingers in the heart.
And where its melody is heard
The life of life is deep.
And happy thoughts come crowding
To joyful souls to greet—
A laugh is just like music.
For making living sweet!
—St. Louis Republic.

Entertainment at Belmont Aug. 10th.
S. A. Knapp and mother are in camp at Collin's landing.
W. H. Bishop is building a small cottage on his lots on state street.
The Vancouver military band will furnish music on the Gatzert, Sunday.
Elmer Rand and family went into camp at Collins landing, Wednesday.
Judge Hayes has the thanks of the Glacier for a handsome bouquet of dahlias.
John Kelley's crop of strawberries on two acres this year netted him $350. He got 350 crates.

The Glacier is sending out statements to delinquents. We hope they will dig up; we need the money.
The glacier is indebted to J. T. Holman for the present of a big head of lettuce grown in his garden on River street.
H. E. Wilson, a pressman employed in Baltes & Co's big printing house in Portland, is rusticated in Hood River valley.

C. A. Bell has purchased the lively business known as the Mountain Stage Co., Capt. J. H. Ferguson and Joseph Wright retaining.
Bathing season now open at Collins Hot Springs. Campers only. No hotels. Hunting & Hosiery managers, Collins, Wash.

The Belmont, George Fox, proprietor, will give Sunday dinners at 1 o'clock each Sunday. Family dinners prepared at the same hour.
George DeFord was here from New York, Sunday, visiting his brother, James, the genial banjoist artist at the Bon Ton parlors.
Jas. E. Hanna went to Lost Lake, Tuesday, by the cayuse route. Lon Tomlinson hauled the supplies, all but the snake medicine, as far as Maple Dell.

R. G. Davenport, foreman of the Chronicle office, and Mr. Burget came down from The Dalles, Sunday, on the Bailey Gatzert. They came on the trip to cool off.
School Clerk Nickelson of Frankton district has posted notices for a special meeting of the taxpayers, Aug. 17th, at 2 p. m., to elect a director in place of J. F. Armour.

A party consisting of Mrs. M. A. Cook, Edna Sherrill, Viola Green, Pearl Cox, Eva Vorbeck, Will and Walter Isenbary and Leo Ulrich went into camp at Maple Dell, Tuesday.
W. E. Payne, representing the Oregon Nursery Co. of Salem, Or., is making a permanent stay in town, with headquarters at the Glenwood. Call on him, all ye that would plant trees.

W. T. Hanebery traded his farm to A. L. Newson for town property. He then traded his town property to Walter Hull for three acres in Hill's addition, where he is now camped till he can build a house.
Mrs. Mark Thomas, living on the hill east of town, killed a garter snake three feet long last Friday. In killing it she cut a hole in its side, and from this hole 21 young snakes emerged, which she killed as fast as they came out.

The Belmont Epworth League will give a literary entertainment at the home of M. H. Nickelson, Saturday evening, Aug. 10th, and after the programme a basket social. Every lady is requested to bring a basket. Programme free.
Sunday was the hottest day this year. The thermometer on Barmess' porch went up to 94, while ordinary thermometer about town registered 97 in the shade. At Portland the government thermometer stood at 92, while at The Dalles it was 102½.

Why cultivate an acre of strawberries for a crop of 75 crates when you can raise 150 to 200 crates on same ground? Order a supply of ready-mixed complete fertilizer from the Davidson Fruit Co. THIS WEEK at Portland prices and increase your profits.

E. J. Orndorff, recently from Southern California, and who has been here for his health for the past three months, leaving on Friday, left Tuesday night for Eastern Washington. Mr. Orndorff saw service in the Philippines as a member of the First Washington, where he did messenger service for General Wheaton. At the time of his regiment's first engagement at Angkor he lost a rifle so close to Mr. Orndorff's head as to injure the hearing in his right ear. Mr. Orndorff has been in the oil business for the past two years and he goes to the "hole in the ground" country near Spokane to investigate the recent oil strikes in that region.

Captain J. H. Dukes with a force of men is engaged moving the building occupied by W. E. Sherrill's furniture store. The house will hereafter face on Third street, next to the corner on which is Everhart's grocery store. The building was one of the first business houses erected in Hood River, having been built in 1883 by R. O. Evans for the residence property and will locate in Hood River for the practice of medicine. The many Hood River friends of Dr. and Mrs. F. Shaw will regret to learn that they are about to leave us and to take up their residence in Ashland. Mrs. Shaw's health requires a change of climate, and for this reason they will make the change. Dr. Shaw has been a practicing physician in Hood River for the past three or four years, and during that time has built up a practice and gained a reputation. He has been no medical practitioner in the state. Wherever Dr. and Mrs. Shaw may locate, the best wishes of their numerous friends will follow them.

Booth's mid-summer clearance sale closes August 15th. Those who wish to take advantage of low priced bargains had better go early if they wish to purchase before everything is gone. Mr. Booth reports that returns from his big ad are more than he anticipated. The judicious advertiser gets the business.
