Hood River Glacier.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1901.

The joy expressed all over the land when the physicians attending the wounded president announced, a week ago, that he would recover was rudely dispelled in the following 24 hours, and joy turned to grief when the bulletins announced "The president is dead." Sorrow is universal, and foreign countries show their high regard for the man who had been chosen a second time to the high office of president of the United States. In times like the present, when every patriotic heart is stirred by the act of the vile assassin, there are no republicans nor democrats, no imperialists nor anti-imperialists, but all are Americans, feeling deeply the insult and calling for the extermination of every organized band of men flying the red flag of anarchy. William McKinley was the last man on earth to deserve such a fate. No one can read the story of his life without being impressed with the noble qualities of the man, how he struggled with poverty in his early manhood to gain an education, how he faithfully served his country as a soldier during four years of war, and with what confidence the people returned him to congress, elected him governor of a great state, and finally elected and re-elected him to the highest office in the gift of a free people. But it is not merely the taking off of the man William McKinley that the people of this great republic deplore. The same sympathy would have been extended to whomsoever was shot down by the assassin while occupying the exalted position in our government. The people call for prompt action in exterminating anarchism, and it is hoped their appeal will not be in vain.

Rev. Dr. E. R. Dille of Oakland, Cal., is authority for the statement that this is the anarchist creed:

I believe in no God; I believe in no hereafter; believe in no civilization; I believe in no marriage; all property is robbery; all government is tyranny; right and wrong are mere prejudices; I believe in the red flag of anarchy; the rich and the ruler are only proper food for gunpowder and dynamite. I am sworn to live and die by the articles of this creed.

A man who can subscribe to such a creed has no right to live in this country. The anarchist must go.

When the assassin strikes down the head of our nation and thereby strikes at the government itself, it seems strange that the act cannot be declared treason and the miserable culprit given a drumhead court martial.

Scenes of Splendor.

Never in the history of the Northwest have the people been offered such enjoyable entertainment mingled with instruction as will be laid before them during the month of the Portland carnival, which will be held in the great exposition building from Sept. 18th to Oct. 19th, and also in the beautiful Multnomah field adjoining. The committee of representative business men having the carnival in charge have already made contracts involving the expenditure of $50,000 to make the carnival a success. On the music and amusements alone there will be $13,000 expended, and the other appropriations will be in proportion for the horse show, the grand military tournament and the athletic exercises, etc.

These figures will give people an idea of the grandeur and immensity of the carnival, which will be illuminated with 3800 electric lights. The music by two full military bands will be grand, and there will not be a dull moment afternoon or evening. There will be a reproduction of Multnomah falls in the exposition building, a big mining exhibit, a German village, a showing of all the products of the Northwest, and many other sights to see. All railroad and steamboat lines will sell excursion tickets to the carnival good for 7 days, at one-and-one-third-fare for the round trip. People who miss the Portland carnival will miss a grand event.

Mt. Hood Notes.

It is fine weather here at present and all are getting their fall work done early.

A. Leroux is getting ready to have a log rolling in a few days.

F. H. Watts of The Dalles is here, canvassing the valley to sell tomb-stones.

Emory Ross and his brother Ray spent a few days last week visiting friends here. Emory returned to Seattle, where he is fireman on the Great Northern, and Ray will stop here and improve their ranch.

Douglas Riggs met with a painful accident last Thursday by a log rolling on his legs, but luckily no bones were broken and he is still at work.

The Mt. Hood mill is at work early and late, and C. R. Bone is doing the logging with two teams.

John R. Bird is getting ready to start logging and will commence next Monday.

J. N. Knight arrived home from the harvest field last Tuesday. L.

Portland Carnival.

White Collar Line steamer, Bailey Gatzert, excursion rates. Round trip excursion tickets will be sold on Sept 19th and 25th, Oct 2d, 9th and 16th, good going, six days after date of sale, making one week's limitation including date of sale. The price from The Dalles to Portland on the days these tickets are sold will be $2.50, round trip, including two coupons that are good for one admission each to the Portland carnival. Lyle to Portland round trip, same as The Dalles, including two admission tickets. Hood River and White Salmon, to Portland, round trip $2.20, including two admission tickets. St. Martin's Springs and Cascade Locks, $1.85, round trip to Portland, including two admission tickets. Prather & Barnes, agents.

Mr. Roosevelt is 5 feet 8 inches in height, measures 42 inches around the chest, wears a 16½ collar, number 8 glove, 7¼ hat, number 9½ shoe, and does not smoke.—Dalles Chronicle.

Locomotive engineers Thomas Harlam and Ed Rees were killed in a wreck on the railroad one mile east of The Dalles last Friday. The wreck was caused by sand on the track. Both men were highly respected citizens of The Dalles.

Hobos are infesting The Dalles. The city marshal ordered 15 of them to move on, one day last week. The Chronicle calls for the expulsion of 15 or 20 more.

Union Memorial Services.

Committee on arrangements for memorial services, to be held Thursday, Sept. 19th, 1901, met as per call, the following named gentlemen present: Rev, J. L. Hershner, S. E. Bartmess and Oscar Stranahan, and took the following action: On motion Bartmess was made chairman, E. R. Bradley, secretary. On motion it was decided that the church bells be tolled previous to services. It was decided to hold the services at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. F. R. Spaulding to be requested to preside at the services, and also deliver one of the addresses. It was decided that the local pastors be requested to make addresses, that the services be held in the United Brethren church. A general request extended to all to furnish flowers for decorative purposes. S. E. Bartmess was appointed a committee of one, to arrange for music. G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps requested to attend in a body. Glacier requested to publish notice of services and Mr. Bradley to print notices of similar purport. It was the sentiment of the committee that the reccommendations of Gov. Geer, relative to the closing of business houses should be followed as far as practicable. Adjourned.

Resolutions by Canby W. R. C.

Whereas, The people of America have for the third time been called upon to mourn the loss of a chief magistrate by the hand of an assassin, we, the members of Canby post W. R. C., auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in William McKinley we recognized the highest type of American citizenship, and that in his death our nation has met with an irreparable loss. Words cannot express our sorrow and humiliation that a man so pure and good could not be allowed to live out his allotted time in this our free America.

Resolved, That we add our mite towards furthering the principles of Truth (which he so nobly advocated) and uprooting from our free soil, the noxious weeds which are responsible for his untimely death.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be handed to the Hood River Glacier for publication, and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of our society.

FANNIE BAILEY,
AGNES CUNNING,
ALIDA SHOEMAKER,
Committee.

At the regular meeting of Canby Post, G. A. R., last Saturday, a committee consisting of C. J. Hayes, E. D. Calkins and H. H. Bailey, was appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of our president and their late comrade, Wm. McKinley to be presented at the next meeting.

Robt. Rand has purchased C. L. Rogers' house and lot adjoining the school house grounds, consideration $1,150.

Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H.: "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffering with a cough doctors told me was incurable. One bottle relieved me, the second and third almost cured. To-day I am a well man." Chas. N. Clarke.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

—NOTICE—

To Water Consumers.

The rules of the company will be strictly followed after this date. All who are delinquent after the 10th day of the month will be charged the full price, viz: $1.50 per month; the extra 25c going to the collector, who will shut off water at the main from residences where payment is not promptly made, and it will not be turned on again until all arrearages are paid. Beginning July 1st next, all water rents will be charged to owners of rented buildings instead of to the occupant.
