Miss Edna Garrabrant has enrolled and is taking a course of instruction at the Standard dress cutting school.

Mrs. Fannie Lee of Portland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. A. Pearson, returned to Portland Sunday.

J. B. Golt, county surveyor, writes that he will be in Hood River on Monday, Sept. 23d, prepared to do any work in his line.

A man remarked that Savage was expecting a long, cold winter. He had just seen the shipment of heating stoves received at the hardware store.

Prather & Barnes are having a four-room cottage built on the old Champlin property, facing Oak street, B. F. Bell is doing the carpenter work.

The Misses Annie and Vina Frazier went to Portland Friday. Miss Annie will attend the Portland high school and Miss Vina will enter the Failing school.

Hop pickers are leaving everyday for the hop fields. Last week the families of R. M. Hunt, Wm. Fosberg and Mr. Niel left for the Willamette valley fields.

Ray and Mrs. H. C. Shaffer were called suddenly to go to the bedside of Mr. Shaffer's mother, at her home in Indiana. They left on the midnight train Sunday.

The entertainment at the A. O. U. W. hall is postponed until Monday evening, Sept. 23d, at 8 o'clock, on account of Thursday, being set as the day for President McKinley's funeral.

W. L. Clark of Portland is in town. Mr. Clark is here to finish the survey establishing street grades. It is hoped the authorities will see their way clear to have a sewer system established for the town.

A special school meeting of the voters of district No. 3 is called to meet in the office of Prather & Barnes at 2:30 o'clock Saturday, September 30, for the purpose of voting on the question of continuing the ninth grade in the Hood River school.

E. E. Lyon built an addition to his house, 10 x 32 and is now occupying it. J. R. Kinsey has also completed a dwelling house 24 x 28. C. A. Hinkle did the carpenter work on both houses and this week commenced work on a house for D. B. Leaming.

G. E. Frost of Portland, representing the R. G. Dunn & Co. Mercantile Agency, was in Hood River during the week. Mr. Frost finds a decided change in our town since his trip here three years ago. In 1898, Hood River was rated in Dunn's agency with 25 business firms. Now it gives Hood River over 60.

The Bailey Gatzert leaves The Dalles now at 3:30, a half hour earlier than formerly and this makes the boat reach Hood River at 1:30 and Portland at 8. After the first of October the White Collar line will put on an additional boat for the upper river, probably the Talisman.

We would suggest to all of our readers who visit the carnival at Portland, or the state fair at Salem, or the carnival at The Dalles, that they should not fail to take the advantage of this opportunity and take a trip on the Bailey Gatzert, between Portland and The Dalles, the scenic route of the Columbia river.

As it has been suggested to Mr. Gaudard by quite a number of people here that he organize a golf club for both ladies and gentlemen, Mr. G. will be pleased to meet all those who are interested in voice culture and sight reading at the team room of the Royal, on Saturday evening, September 20th, when further information regarding the subject can be had.

Lots in Wacona Park addition are now on the market. This is a very desirable location for residence property, and at the rate lots are being sold, will not be long on the market. John L. Henderson is having steps built from the street just above the school house, which will be a great convenience to the residents of this addition as well as others on the hill.

Joseph A. Knox of Duks valley was in town Monday. He reports the small pox cases are recovered. Sunday Dr. Brosius went out and fumigated the convalescents and raised the quarantine. Mr. Knox says he contracted the small pox at Moro. He was there two weeks and camped on the Moro flats in the sand. He was 15 days in the Hood River pest house, with "Frenchy" as his nurse and attendant. His nurse did all that could be expected of him and the grub furnished by the town was good what there was of it. It was hard to get supplies and provisions sometimes three days would elapse before any one would come near. The telephone wire was broken a short distance from the house, and although it was promised that it would be repaired, it was never done.

A new time schedule for the Regular Line went into effect Sept. 18th. Until further notice, the steamers Regular and Dalles City will run on regular schedule, leaving The Dalles and Portland, daily except Sunday, at 9 a. m. and will stop at the following landing only: Lyle, Mosier, Bingen, Hood River, White Salmon, Cocks, Collins, Carson, Stevenson, Cascade Locks, Moffitt, McGowan, Warrendale, Cape Horn, Mt. Pleasant, Vancouver, Washington, Pennington and Vancouver. The steamer G. W. Shaver will leave The Dalles at 6 a. m., Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday and Portland at 5 a. m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and make all way landings. The Shaver is intended principally for the freight business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Knapp had an exciting trip to the Baldwin settlement, on their wheels, Sunday. On the Booth hill a rattlesnake was met with in the road. Mrs. Knapp was in the lead, to look out for rattlers, and when she met one actually insisted upon Mr. Knapp killing it. It had ten rattles. Arrived at the Tieman place, they were attacked by three big dogs. Two of the canines attacked Mrs. Knapp, tearing her skirt before they could be called off. The third dog engaged Mr. Knapp and made it so interesting for him that he had no time to go to his wife's assistance. They made the trip home without further incident, feeling that they had had enough excitement for one day.

A 35-inch salmon trout, weighing between 15 and 18 pounds, was caught a couple of weeks ago, in the west fork of Hood river, just below Maple Dell, by James T. Cooper of Mt. Hood, and the big fish was landed with a common trout pole and fly hook, and was a fine specimen of the species. Mr. Cooper is proud of the next morning, Mr. Cooper tried his luck in the same pool. He hooked three of the big fish but failed to land any of them—the fish playing havoc with his trout line.

Wm. McCrum of The Dalles has constructed a kitchen table to be given as a prize to the woman who will bake the best loaf of yeast raised bread to be exhibited at The Dalles carnival. The table is said to be the complete thing of the kind ever made by Mr. McCrum who is well known as a cabinet maker. A special committee, consisting of Mr. N. Wilson, Mrs. John M. Marden and Mrs. Emile Schanno, will make the award.

The many friends of Mrs. R. P. Miller regret very much her departure from Hood River and met Monday evening at the home of Mr. H. Nicholson to bid her God speed on her journey and best wishes for prosperity in her new home. She, with her children, left Tuesday evening on the train for Everett, Wash., where her husband proceeded her six weeks ago and has employment in the smelter at a salary of $3.75 per day.

Rethel Congregational church of White Salmon will be dedicated next Sunday. Services will be held at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. Superintendents W. W. Scudder and Samuel Green of Seattle will be present and officiate. Arrangements will be made to take people across the river at reduced rates. It is hoped that a large number from Hood River will attend.

W. A. Baird of the East Side sold his 30 acre ranch last week to G. W. Lafferty, for $2,500. Mr. Lafferty is a recent arrival in Oregon from the East, and will remove to Hood River with his family. Mr. Baird will remain in the valley, and expects to buy a small place near town. Prather & Barnes brought about the sale.

Bruce Wolverson of Portland is in the valley again with his Beville car. He has made improvements on the gate. He put up here before, and it will pay farmers and others to examine his model and the gates he has placed in the valley. He put up two gates of his latest improved model for F. Eggert of Eggermont.

A lady advertising in last week's Glacier had a lost collar, and writes that she had it at the bottom of the column where it was easily overlooked, and asks that it be given a more prominent position. It is a mistake to suppose the ad was not read. Everything in the Glacier is read.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Methodist church will hold a business meeting at the parsonage this Thursday evening, September 19th, at 7:30. A full attendance is desired, as plans for improving the church property will be discussed.

J. C. Clay of Fairfield, Wash., is the new manager of the O. R. & N. at this place. He succeeds J. T. Bagley, who will devote his entire time, now, to his livery business in partnership with J. J. Leakey. Mr. Clay is an old employee of the O. R. & N.

Ernest Jensen has a plan to make the Hood River display of fruit attractive to The Dalles carnival. Fruit growers who intend to exhibit fruit should see him. Mr. Jensen is an artist in the line of decorating, and in this instance he will give his services gratis.

Charles Warrens, cashier of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Portland, is in Hood River. Mr. Warrens has purchased 20 acres of M. A. Cook and 10 acres of E. J. Middlewest and will have the ground planted to strawberries.

The management of The Dalles carnival is sparing no expense to make the show the biggest thing ever seen in Wasco county. Read the big ad telling all about it, on another page. Also get your exhibits in shape to take in some of the big prizes offered.

G. E. Bowerman on the Shortie place, White Salmon, sent to the Glacier office, Sept. 18th, three brands of raspberry candy, in the hope that the merchants of the town, from the bloom to the fully matured fruit. White Salmon is ahead once more.

Wm. Dodson of Duks Valley killed an eagle, Monday morning, that measured 8 feet from tip to tip. It struck an eagle's nest that was hanging in the yard. This is the second bird of the kind that Mr. Dodson has seen in this community.

Memorial services in memory of our dead president were held in all the churches in Hood River Sunday, with increased attendance.

We go across a little ahead of time today to allow employees of the Glacier to attend the usual memorial services at the U. R. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper of Portland have been visiting in Hood River for the past week, the guests of Mrs. E. Richardson.

Davenport Bros. last week, sold 33 acres of the John Simpson place to A. J. Emerson, who came here a couple of weeks ago with his family from Ogden, Utah. Mr. Emerson expects to raise stock, principally.

John L. Henderson, last week, sold three beautiful lots in Wacona Park addition to M. C. Evans. Mr. Evans will build a fine residence upon those lots.

A school meeting is called in the Frankton district, Saturday, Sept. 21st, at 2 o'clock, to elect a director in the place of Geo. H. Nicolai, who declined to serve as director.

P. Orteig of Gillman, Wash., was in town Tuesday. Mr. Orteig is engaged in stock raising and on his trip this time shipped ten head of prime beef cattle to the Union Stock Yards.

Mrs. J. B. Hunt accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Henry on their trip east and is visiting her sister in Hastings, Neb., and expects to visit in other parts of the state.

A letter received from Captain A. S. Blowers states that he was in Cleveland attending the G. A. R. encampment. We presume he marched with the boys in the big parade.

N. B. Jordan of J. S. Jordan is visiting his brother, J. J. Jordan. Mr. Jordan is interested in mines at Baker City.

Mr. Hood from Lost Lake by Moolight. A photographic picture of Mt. Hood from Lost Lake, by moonlight, is on exhibition at E. R. Bradley's bookstore, the work of L. Bradley, the artist. The picture presents a most beautiful scene, with the still water of the lake in the foreground, the distinct outline of the forest trees on the surrounding hills, and the snow clad mountain peak towering skyward in the distance, with the full moon in a clear sky just to the left of the mountain. On the water of the lake is the silver shimmer of the moon's rays, making altogether an effect seldom secured by the camera, and one that is most gratifying to the photographer who secured the picture. By this work Mr. L. Bradley has established a reputation for photo-view work second to none in the state. Copies of this Mt. Hood picture may be obtained at E. R. Bradley's bookstore, as may also many other excellent Columbia River views taken by Mr. Bradley.

An Extensive Sheep Deal. James T. Cooper returned last Saturday from The Dalles, where he is in partnership with D. M. French & Co., Senfret Bros. and J. S. Fish organized a joint stock company for investment in the sheep business. Each of the parties concerned will have a fourth interest in the company, which expects to have a $30,000 or $40,000 sheep business.

Mr. Cooper will have the control of the sheep. This is quite an extensive deal, and from the returns secured at present from sheep, projectors should realize a handsome profit on their investment.

During the summer, Mr. Cooper has been in the mountains northeast of Mt. Hood with his band of 1350 young sheep. He will return later in the season to Sherman county, where he will put his flock on the winter range. Mr. Cooper says with good management there is money in sheep. A ewe, with her clip of wool, produces an income of $3.50 a year.

Rates to the Portland Carnival. The station agent at Hood River has received instructions to sell excursion tickets to the Portland carnival at the following low rates, including two admission coupons to the exposition, from Hood River, $3.05; children of half-fare age, half of the above. Tickets will be sold only Sept. 19th and 20th and Oct. 20th and 21st; tickets limited to expire six days after date of sale. All tickets must be executed witnessed and stamped by agent at Portland for return passage. For further information inquire of J. C. Clay, Art. O. R. & N. city.

Look for the Sign. Many readers of our advertisements have mistaken our place of business, and in consequence have not obtained the goods or prices which we offer. We are the originators of little prices. Look for the sign—

Booth's THE LITTLE STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES. Dallas' Corner.

Word from the Geological Survey. The Hood River boys of the U. S. geological survey are now near Wamie, Wasco county, working their way towards Warm Springs. They hope to be through soon and will then back track to the Summit house and go down the Barlow road with rail cars to the next town. Joe Wilson says "it makes a fellow feel farther off from heaven than when he is a boy." Joe also sends for half a dozen waxends and two needles. He is not "running down at the heel" but is pretty well "ripped up the back." The party are all well, and Ed Williams can eat as much as "Joker," the white canary.

Supply of Feed-Stuff Short. The merchants of Hood River find it impossible to supply their customers with mill feedstuffs. Shorts cannot be had at any price. The Dalles, Walla Walla and Pendleton mills having none at present for shipment. The supply of last season's grain has been used up and the mills have not yet begun to grind this year's wheat. The farmers of the valley, because of the drought, have no shorts on hand, have been complaining that our store keepers are too slow, but had as the business men try they cannot possibly secure millstuffs for the present.

Entertainment September 23d. Following is the programme for the entertainment to be given in A. O. U. W. hall, Monday evening, September 23d. This entertainment is for the benefit of Dr. H. K. Hines, and as the programme shows some of the best talent in Hood River, its success is assured: Quartette, "A Sailor's Dream." Messrs. Watt, Clarke and Giddard. Vocal solo, "The Last Hymn." Miss Nellie Clark. Vocal solo, selected. S. M. Bowers. Vocal duet, "The Old Market Place." Wm. E. Sherrill, W. Feathers. Vocal duet, "Oh, I Have Sighed to Rest." Mrs. P. A. Davidson, Greenville. Vocal solo, "The Old Surgeon's Story." Mrs. Louise Giddard. Vocal duet, "The River." Mr. DeLard. Vocal quartette. Ladies' Quartette.
