PRO-BOERS IN BERMUDA.

Aided Dutch Prisoners of War to Escape from the British Camps.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Oct. 3.—The pro-Boers in Bermuda are excelling themselves over the escape of some prisoners of war whom they have made every effort to aid in their attempt to regain their freedom. Last Saturday night three men—a nephew of the late Commandant Joubert, Alfred Martinez Joubert, and two brothers, named Indemar—made their escape from the prison at Darrell's Island and swam over to the Princess hotel, where they dressed themselves in clothing carried over, tied in bundles, on a plank. Then, making their way to a livery stable in Hamilton, they hired a trap and drove to the residence of Dr. Outerbridge, at Bailey's bay, and then retired to a place of concealment in the neighborhood. The search continued for two days and nights, sailors, soldiers, military and civilians taking part in it, before the men were captured. The affair has caused great excitement here, not merely because the men succeeded in making an escape, but because of the apparent exhibition of the pro-Boer spirit here.

Duke and Duchess of York began their homeward journey.

Prominent names are mentioned in Boer Prisoners Willing to Swear Allegiance.

London, Oct. 2.—A dispatch to the Times from Colombo says that Sir Jose Ridgeway, the governor of the island, has announced that 200 of the Boer prisoners in Ceylon have expressed their willingness to take the oath of allegiance to King Edward.
The prisoners not only desire to take the oath, but also wish to enlist in the British army. They are willing to serve anywhere but in South Africa.

Capital and Labor in Assam.
London, Oct. 2.—The Simla correspondent of the Times reports that the Assam tea planters will probably present a memorial embodying a request for the appointment of a commissioner to consider the present relations between capital and labor in Assam.
There is said to be no chance of any thing definite evolving from the controversy between the planters and the chief commissioner for the province.

VENEZUELA IN A BAD WAY.

No Payments Made on Indebtedness for Three Years—People Are Suffering.

Caracas, Venezuela, via William-stad and Colon, Oct. 2.—The financial condition of Venezuela is best exemplified by the fact that the republic has not paid interest on its foreign or internal indebtedness for the past 38 months. Only two or three importing houses at Caracas are paying expenses, business is practically limited to needed foodstuffs, many important orders have been countermanded, extreme lack of confidence prevails in business circles, and the immediate future contains nothing promising. The general expectation is that the financial situation will become worse before it can improve. The war rumors have decreased imports and the government is getting into more severe straits to find money to meet the extraordinary expense incident to maintaining the army on the frontier.

Among the people the suffering from the hard times is greater. The salaries of all the government civil employes have been cut in half, but even this is not now paid.

Since the reverses at Guajira, the government has been transferring its attention to the San Cristobal country, south of Maracabo, and is sending arms, men and 750,000 rounds of ammunition from Caracas to Barquisimeto, where the interior forces are converging. The feeling of the country against President Castro is growing stronger every day.

The country's discontent is evidenced by many comparatively insignificant signs, but they plainly foreshadow a growing revolution. A rupture between Columbia and Venezuela would give the revolutionary element the desired chance to attack the government.

The president recognizes discontent existings and is taking measures to meet whatever revolutionary exigencies may arise.

AN UNUSUAL CASE.
Severe Punishment of a Soldier for Abusing the Late President.

Washington, Oct. 2.—A most unusual case reported to the war department is that of Private Peter J. Devine of Troop H, Eleventh Cavalry, who was tried by a general court martial at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., on the charge of using disrespectful words against the president of the United States, in violation of the 14th article of war. It appears from the evidence that when the news of the shooting of President McKinley was received at Fort Ethan Allen, Devine expressed great satisfaction over the crime, and applied an uncomplimentary epithet to the late president.

His comrades handled him roughly before he could be secured in the guard house. He was found guilty by the court, and sentenced to be dis-honorably discharged from the service of the United States, forfeiting all pay and allowance due him, and to be confined at hard labor for one year.

The record of the case having been referred to Major General Brooke at New York, commanding the department of the East, he endorsed it and said:

"It is not within the power of the reviewing authority to increase the punishment, but in order that the prisoner may not wholly escape punishment, the sentence is approved and will be duly executed at Fort Columbus, N. J., in which place the prisoner will be sent under proper guard."

General Brooke's action in the case is final, and the record is simply sent to the war department for filing.

SWEATED OUT OF HIM.
Missouri Man Confessed That He Killed His Sister and Her Suitor.

DeSoto, Mo., Oct. 2.—After being sweated eight hours, William Greenhill tonight made a confession to Prosecuting Attorney Williams, in which he says his brother, Daniel Greenhill, killed their sister, Mrs.
Sadie Uren, and her suitor, John Meloy. The confession says that the brothers objected to Meloy's attentions to their sister because he was a spendthrift, and wanted to marry Mrs. Uren for her money. On the night of the murder, Saturday last, Daniel entered the room of Mrs. Uren, according to the confession, and found the woman sitting on Meloy's lap. In a fit of rage, Greenhill grabbed a hatchet and sunk it into the head of Meloy, after which he brained his sister. He then took a revolver from Meloy's pocket and fired into the wounds he had inflicted with the hatchet.
