Bug beds are holding indignation meetings all over the valley, all on account of Hartness' iron bedsteads.
What's the use of paying more for a good sewing machine than you charge? A fine, ball bearing, drop head machine, fully guaranteed for $25.00. B.O.T.H.'s.
W. W. Treat has now in his employ a first class tin smith and plumber and is ready to fill with dispatch all orders in his line. He also has a fine assortment of heating and cook stoves on hand.
Dr. F. C. Brostius has removed to his new residence at the west end of Oak street, midway between the school house and armory, and can be found in his office over Jackson's store between the hours of 10-11 a. m., 2-3 and 6-7 p. m.

Joe. A. Wilson wants to let a contract to clear land.
J. J. Luckey and family returned from Portland Saturday.
Miss Emma Bonney went to her home at Wauie Wednesday.
Miss Carrie Butler arrived home from her trip to the East last Saturday.
Mrs. Joseph Teal came up Tuesday for a few days visit with her daughter.
Rev. J. L. Hershner will preach at the Grappler school house on Sunday, at 3 p. m.
Isenberg & Son sold Ike Nealeigh's place of 7 1/2 acres to J. C. Albott for $1,000.
Chas. Savage came up from San Francisco Tuesday, to attend the sick bed of his father.
Don't forget that Chas. Riggs, the Jeweler, engraves all articles bought in his store free.

N. Tostevin lost a new pair of gloves on the road. He will appreciate the favor if they are returned to him.
Robt. Leary of Mt. Hood brought his little boy to town last week for treatment. The child is badly ruptured.
The ladies aid society of the Congregational church will be held on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Noah Bone.
S. B. Fay of Dayton, Oregon, is stopping with L. Bradley. Mr. Fay is a practical pruner of fruit and ornamental trees and is looking for work in his line in Hood River.
E. A. Wright, traveling correspondent for the Oregon City Courier-Herald, was in town last week. We may look for favorable mention of Hood River in this week's issue of that paper.
J. B. Hunt started last week for Hastings, Neb. After visiting there a few days himself and finally will go to Iowa to visit friends and relatives. They expect to be gone about six weeks.
The infant child of A. H. Cuning, at Salem is very sick. Its sickness has prevented Mr. and Mrs. Cuning from moving to Hood River, which they were about ready to do when the child was taken sick.
Clayton Grewell of the East Side has gone to Toppenish, Wash. He says the Yakima country is booming. Farmers are getting good prices for their big crop of potatoes. He will winter his stock there, where hay is cheap, and return to Hood River in the spring.

Capt. A. S. Blowers returned from his Eastern trip last Friday. He was at the encampment of the G. A. R. at Cleveland, went to the Buffalo Exposition, visited the scenes of his boyhood in York state and later spent some time with old friends in Minnesota and the Dakotas. He enjoyed the trip but says it got rather tiresome and he was glad to get home again.
Chris Duthman did a brave act last Monday in stopping a runaway team, belonging to Mr. Anderson of Belmont. The team started at Second and River and ran up Second to State street. On State street it was making its best time towards home. Mr. Duthman was standing at Clarke's drug store when he saw the runaway cross Oak street a block and a half away. He ran to State street and arrived just in time to intercept them opposite Mr. Stewart's residence. He seized the horses' bridles and stopped them. It was a daring act and one that not many would attempt.

The entertainment given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, James De Bord and others was a bowling success in every sense of the word. The laughable comedy of "Thompson's Ghost" created more fun than anything that has happened in Hood River since Wm. Haynes and Bert Stranahan puzzled our local wise men by hanging a lighted lantern in the top of a big pine tree on the hill Mr. De Bord as Jake, the servant, was a whole show himself. Miss Gloria Lane acted well her part, as she always does. S. A. Knapp as Lord Fitznoole acted as if at home on the stage. Earl Bartness acted the parts of the lover and the ghost and paralyzed Jake and Mr. Brown whenever he appeared. Mrs. Goddard reserved her part for the "Hunted by a Song" in a manner that called for a hearty encore. The singing and music was good throughout, every piece on the programme was enjoyed. Miss Anne Smith deserves special mention for the accompaniment of the music on the organ. The house was crowded and many were turned away.

Last Thursday evening while Rev. Frank Spaulding and wife were at prayer meeting the children were left at home in charge of their boy Rollin. Rollin heard a commotion in the chicken pen and went out to see what was wrong. As he looked into the chicken house he was seized by a man, choked and thrown into the chicken house, and the door locked on him on the outside. The boy stayed in the chicken house till his father came home and released him. There seems to be a bad lot of hobos in this vicinity lately. Every corner they can find a good account of himself should be made to move on.

Rev. G. W. Elliot, Jr., state superintendent for the American Unitarian Association, will preach at the A. O. U. W. hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 30, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Elliot represents a church which is distinguished in its membership by such names as Edward Everett Hale, Thomas Stant King, Longfellow, Bryant, Holmes, and Dr. Channing; and will endeavor in his lecture to set forth the main ideas which characterize this fellowship. All are cordially invited, but a special invitation is extended to all liberal Christians who have not found themselves sincerely at home in other churches.

Gocia Smith, daughter of S. C. Smith, met with a very painful accident last Saturday morning. She was on her way from A. L. Phelps' place to D. N. Byerlee's, and when coming down the steepest part of the hill south of Frankton station her foot slipped from the pedal causing her to lose control of her wheel, which ran away with her and a little further on struck a tree that had fallen across the road, demolishing her wheel and throwing her some 10 feet down the hill. She struck on her face, severely scratching and bruising it.
Sam C. Smith and family were in Hood River on Thursday last till Monday, renewing old acquaintances and noting the many changes that have taken place here in the two years they were away. They have been located at Dallas, in the hotel business, at which they were very successful. Monday they went to Pendleton, where they expect to remain for the winter.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Porter of St. Joseph, Mo., arrived here Monday on a visit to her brother, Wm. Ellis, senior. Mrs. Porter lives part of the time with her son at the Canyon Hotel at Salt Lake City. She is Mr. Ellis' only sister, and they had not met for 15 years till her arrival here. She is much pleased with Hood River.

Samuel H. Hess of Mt. Hood on Friday brought in some vines of black raspberries with fruit ripe and in all stages of development. Mr. Hess made final proof on his homestead, Friday, before Judge Prather. He has a good piece of land in a good neighborhood.
Mr. Marshall, formerly of Spokane, has been looking around Hood River and vicinity for some time with a view to locating in this part of the country. Mr. Marshall likes the valley very much and has in view two places, one of which he can go into the berry business.

Clinton Parsons, the delivery boy for the Commercial Company, had an exciting experience with his team Saturday when the whiffree fell and the horse kicked till he kicked Clinton on the leg. But his injuries were slight and he was around next day as usual.
The Dalles has recently had eleven cases of diphtheria. Five of these cases have recovered and there are now six cases quarantined. One case, just outside the city limits, proved fatal. Claude Hill, a boy of 7 years, died of the disease.
Frank Fossberg had a close call last Saturday. He was cleaning his hill when his boys let a bucket of sand drop to the bottom. He happened to be standing at the time, and the bucket just missed him.

Rev. H. C. Shaffer will return to Hood River tomorrow and will preach in the U. B. church morning and evening. Mrs. Shaffer will visit her sister in Iowa for a week, and will then come home.
Ernest Jensen is making a specialty of gathering the specimens of apples, which he has something nice, bring him a sample, and he will do the rest towards letting it be seen by everybody.
D. N. Byerlee has been honored by appointment as vice president of the Oregon State Poultry Association for Wasco county. Mr. Byerlee is secretary of the Hood River Poultry Club.
The Masonic building is now finished. E. L. Kood gave the finishing touches to the painting and decorating of the lodge room Wednesday. There is no nearer lodge room in Oregon.

Bear in mind that the annual meeting of stockholders of the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union will be held Saturday, November 9th, at 10 o'clock. Important business on hand.
Isenberg & Son made another sale on Wednesday, which gives T. D. Tweedy a home in our midst and adds another G. A. R. man to the residents of the valley.
E. E. Savage is still a very sick man. But he is being carefully looked after by his physician and good nurses, and hopes are entertained for his recovery.
D. F. Lamar has opened a flour and feed store at his place one mile south of town, on the Mt. Hood road. He will sell for cash at bottom prices.
Miss Hester Howe went down to Portland last Wednesday, and returned Saturday. She reports a delightful trip down on the Bailey Gatzert.
The members of the U. B. ladies' aid society are requested to all be present at the lecture room of the church Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.
Dr. Carns has so far improved in health as to be out again and is again attending to his dental business.

E. L. Rood will go to Cascade Locks to paint, paper and calumise the government building at that place.
Mr. Lafferty and family, who bought W. A. Baird's place on the East Side, moved in from Hilgard Monday.
W. E. Sherrill went to Portland Tuesday to purchase furniture to furnish the new house of O. L. Stranahan.
S. J. La France is up from Portland. He has purchased a nice little home on Front street in South Portland.
Mrs. Geo. P. Trowell and her niece and nephew returned from Portland on the Bailey Gatzert Tuesday.
Miss Blanche Howe visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Mrs. John Parker.
Miss Roby Chandler left Wednesday for Terrell, Texas, where she expects to make her home.

S. C. Jackson went to Portland Monday to purchase goods for the Wall Paper Emporium.
The ladies of the Congregational church will give a fiki's fair Thanksgiving evening.
S. Cochran and wife are visiting in Grand Ronde valley and expect to be gone a month.
Hood River Teachers' Association will meet in Hood River tomorrow, Saturday, at 2 o'clock.

Brace Wolcott's Bevilier gate took the premium at the state fair.
Miss Nellie Clark is teaching school at Home Valley, Wash.
C. L. Cople is again laid up with the rheumatism.

Dr. E. J. Welty of Portland came up Saturday evening and returned Sunday afternoon. She was, pleasantly surprised at the improvements that have taken place in Hood River during the past year.
Clark Thompson and Robert Hyde, recently from Wisconsin, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Payt Davidson over Sunday. After being taken out over the valley they thought Hood River all right.

M. P. Isenberg brings in from his place at Belmont the potatoes that take the bun, two of them weighing 2 1/2 pounds each, down weight.
Jensen has boxes of Hood River raspberries and strawberries in his show windows and Christmas only 60 days off.
This is the fourth week without rain at Hood River. Old Webfooters are beginning to sigh for rain.
Mrs. Geo. Snipes of The Dalles is dangerously ill with pneumonia and is not expected to recover.
Rev. Chris Nickelsen of Goldendale was in Hood River Thursday.

Council Proceedings.
The common council met in regular session October 21st. Present—Mayor Brown, Aldermen Bell, Blowers, Barnes, Davidson, Luckey and McDonald, Recorder Nickelsen and Marshall O'Leary.
On motion of Bell, the judiciary committee was instructed to draw up an ordinance relating to the passage of ordinances—that they be read first and second time and finally adopted by aye and no vote.
McDonald, from the special committee on drainage, reported that the committee had gone as far as it could go in making surveys and figures to estimate the cost. Communication of Page & Clark was read as part of the report.
On motion of Davidson the report was accepted and the committee accepted the offer of Page & Clark, and that they have plans and estimates of the cost of drainage, reported that the committee had gone as far as it could go in making surveys and figures to estimate the cost. Communication of Page & Clark was read as part of the report.

On motion of Davidson the report was accepted and the committee accepted the offer of Page & Clark, and that they have plans and estimates of the cost of drainage, reported that the committee had gone as far as it could go in making surveys and figures to estimate the cost. Communication of Page & Clark was read as part of the report.
On motion of Davidson, the recorder was instructed to have an ordinance published till further notice.
The mayor appointed J. H. Dukes street commissioner. On motion of Davidson, the appointment was confirmed.
Communication from Hartley, asking that his dog tax be refunded for the reason that other owners of dogs had failed to pay the tax. On motion of McDonald, the communication was returned to Col. Hartley asking him to state why he did not pay tax.
On motion of Luckey, a committee was appointed to solicit citizens to purchase hand fire extinguishers. On motion of Davidson, the committee on fire and water.

On motion of Blowers, the treasurer was authorized and instructed to get warrants, amounting to $1,000.
On motion of Luckey, C. J. Hayes was allowed the fruit on the trees and keeping fees in repair.
Moved by Blowers that a committee be appointed to prepare quarters for council chambers, and if they could not get quarters with enough furniture, that the committee buy the necessary furniture. Carried.
Moved by Davidson that one committee investigate the shut property, or any other town property, and report on the same, with a reasonable figure. Carried. The mayor appointed the committee on streets and public property.

Don't be Shortsighted.

Reubinstein, the celebrated pianist and composer, was very near-sighted and used to remark that he had a great advantage over men who had keener vision, for all women looked beautiful to him.
There are many shoes that can only be sold to those who are very short-sighted or blindly ignorant of quality. Get close to such articles by experience and you will refuse them point blank. People who depend on the superficial appearance of a shoe get left every time. It costs very little to make a shoe simply for looks; it can be made in the flimsiest way, just as they make flowers out of paper; but who wants such shoes? Who will take it if he knows it?
Our Shoes are made for the hardest kind of sustained wear, day or night, hot or cold, wet or dry. They are not indestructible, understand that, but they will not fail by any kind of honest wear.
We sew all seams free. Our profit on a single pair of shoes don't amount to anything; we depend on large sales for our profits. WE SELL ALL SEAMS FREE.
Don't be short-sighted.

THE LITTLE STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES.
Dallas' Corner
---THE---

Up = to = Date Store

Has undoubtedly solved the problem of dry-goods buying and can state with assurance and without fear of contradiction that its walls enclose as new, stylish and thoroughly reliable a lot of wearing apparel as we ever gotten together in any first-class store. Situated as we are, we have made such arrangements as enable us to have here on a day's notice any article not in stock, no matter how express charges do you consider. WE PAY THEM. Bring your dry goods troubles to us, and we will give you such comfort in the way of good, intelligent service, low prices, nice clean, new goods, that you will forget it was ever your lot to take chances on sending to Portland or The Dalles or even more distant points for such articles as the average Christian person absolutely requires in this 20th century. We are in position to own our goods at the lowest market prices, as we buy entirely for cash and sell for cash, and our expense being moderate, we adjust prices accordingly. Don't misunderstand us. We don't lose money on anything we sell; on the contrary, we make something on every sale, but not such a sum as will bar further transactions, as we are not only anxious to sell you goods today, but we hope to sell you what you need in our line 10 years from now. We are here to stay, and our interest is to establish a mutual confidence which will gradually grow with each successive transaction.
Having secured a few extra good values, we take pleasure in announcing them while they last at these prices:
28 inch Outing Flannel, the usual 3c kind..... 4c
Beautiful 36 inch Percales, full count..... 10c
