Frederick & Arnold on Tuesday commenced building a house for J. R. Nielsen on his lots in Blowers addition. The house will be for rent. He will build two other houses on these lots in the spring.

The regular twice-a-week dancing party will be held at the armory Friday evening. Music by the orchestra. The last party was such a pleasant success; so don't forget, at the armory Friday evening.

Parties having contributions for the columns of the Glacier, no matter how small the item, are requested to send them in time. When items a week old are brought in at the last moment, and other work is crowding, our good-natured compositor is liable to get rattled.

A singular coincidence in names happens in the families of B. Warren and C. F. Woolsey. Mr. Woolsey, an entire stranger to Mr. Warren, bought the latter's farm at Frankton two weeks ago. Mr. Woolsey has three boys named Warren, Lloyd and Allen. Mrs. Warren's maiden name was Lloyd, and she has a brother named Allen.

H. W. Wait can now go way back and set down with his big turkeys. Oscar Fredenburg of Mount Hood brought in on Monday two turkeys that beat Mr. Wait's out of sight. The largest one measures 38 inches round. He grew about two tons of turnips on a patch of ground 100 feet square, sown broadcast, and without irrigation.

Chas. E. Warrens, Portland cashier of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Ins. Co., was in town Friday. Mr. Warrens bought the M. E. Cook strawberry ranch and part of the Middlewater place last summer and is very much pleased with his purchase. He will be the next visitor to Hood River till the time comes when he will be prepared to set down under his own vine and fig tree on his Hood River ranch.

H. H. Holmes, county clerk of Multnomah county, died at his home in Portland, November 14, 1901, aged 45 years. Mr. Holmes owned a summer residence and strawberry farm in Hood River valley and spent all the time he could spare from his office duties with his family on his farm. He was a victim of consumption, and for seven years made a strenuous fight against the disease. He was a highly respected citizen, popular with his party, and was serving his second term as county clerk.

The city fathers have taken steps to procure a lot on which to build a city hall and jail and store room for what ever the warrants the city may procure. In looking for a location, the council committee found it difficult to find a lot at a reasonable price near the center of town. The lot west of the U. B. church and adjoining the parsonage is talked of as a good location, but the objection to it is that it is too far from the center of town. Besides, it would be unfair to locate a jail next door to the place of worship and adjoining the parsonage. The racket that is kept up in strawbery time by the Indian squaws when a drunken Indian is placed in jail would be too much for the quiet precincts of a church, and the minds of Sunday school children would not be improved by the sights to be seen near a jail. The movement towards securing a lot for the city and erecting the necessary buildings is a good one and it is hoped a suitable location will be found.

The stockholders meeting of the Valley Improvement Co. on Monday elected the following board of directors: Frank Davenport, M. M. Davenport, Claude Stuppel, H. M. Bailey, E. E. Newby, W. Boorman, Warren Davenport. The new board organized by electing Frank Davenport, president; M. M. Davenport, vice president; H. H. Bailey, secretary; and C. E. Coppie, treasurer.

Mrs. C. L. Gordon started on Tuesday morning for Oroville, Cal., where she will join her husband and remain in that old mining town for change of climate to benefit his rheumatism. The Glacier predicts that they will come back to Hood River some day. Here we have the best climate in the world, and it won't take Mr. Gordon long to realize this fact after he stops a while in the foot hills of the Sierra Nevada.

Mrs. N. M. Harrell has been having a little experience with a case of blood poisoning. Some time ago in closing an old razor, she cut her wrist slightly. She thought no more of the incident for several days, when the cut began to pain her and she had shooting pains up the arm. She then called the doctor and the arm was lanced.

Beginning Wednesday of this week, and continuing through the dark, stormy season, school will be closed at 3:30, allowing but 30 minutes for noon instruction. This change is made on account of it becoming very dark during the latter part of the day, sometimes so dark as to almost prevent school work.

C. D. THOMPSON, principal.

Rummage Sale at Belmont—Chicken supper at the parsonage; new and second-hand things to sell, both plain and fancy, from a pin cushion to a suit of clothes. Prices from 10c up. Nov. 22d and 23d are the dates. For the chicken supper on the 23d, 25c will be charged, children 15c.

Frank Davenport has the best assortment of land in the valley. Six thousand acres to select from at prices ranging from $1 to $200 per acre. Pasture land, timber land, apple land, berry land—all kinds of land. Call and see him.

Mrs. H. Olsen of Underwood was in town Monday. Mrs. Olsen says there has been no diptheria at Underwood. The children who died were afflicted with tonsillitis and pneumonia. Other children in the same families were not affected.

City Marshal Olinger offers $5 reward for information that will convict any one of bearing down the notices forbidding the hitching of teams to the shade trees in town. This is a grave offense, and the fine is from $5 to $50.

All young men who are interested in the opening of the gymnasium and becoming members of the Brotherhood of Anderson, Philip will meet next Tuesday evening at the lecture room of the U. B. church.

Mrs. F. M. Amen returned Monday from a two-weeks' visit with friends and relatives at Tugh Ridge and Wapinitia. Her granddaughter, Ora Price, six years old, came with her.

John Buck started East on Monday. He will stop a while in Iowa to have his eyes treated by an expert oculist, and will then go on to his home in Lafayette, Indiana.

D. E. Miller received newspapers from his old home at Waynesboro, Pa., containing news of the death of his brother, S. G. Miller, who was in his 60th year.

J. T. Nealeigh on Monday received a letter from John Zipma, who has been in St. Vincent's hospital since July 23d. Mr. Zipma says he is getting along nicely.

Enion Thanksgiving services will be held Thursday, Nov. 28, at 11 a. m. at the Congregational church. Rev. J. L. Hershner will preach the sermon.

Don't forget the turkey shooting at Frankton next Saturday, Nov. 23d. Turkeys, geese, chickens, and Belgian hares to be shot for.

Indian Johnnie, a young man, died at his home west of town Tuesday and his body was taken to Cascades for burial Wednesday.

All bidders on star route mail contracts are notified to have their bids in by Nov. 27th. Bids close at Washington City, Dec. 31.

The report that little Milo Frederick had the diptheria was unfounded. He is well and going to school every day.

The contract for the erection of the K. of P. hall was let Wednesday morning to Frederick & Arnold for $2,685.

There will be degree work next Tuesday and all members are asked to be present.—J. L. HERSHNER, K. R. S.

The ladies aid society of the Congregational church will meet at Mrs. Geo. T. Prather's on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cochran returned last week from their trip to Eastern Oregon. They had a pleasant visit.

C. H. Jenkins, a dentist from Portland, was in town Monday and decided to locate in Hood River.

Mrs. W. A. Lockman, daughter Marie, and son Miles of Nicolai were visitors in Hood River Tuesday.

Mrs. H. J. Frederick went to Port land, Wednesday, for a ten days' visit.

Hon. E. L. Smith will attend the fruit growers' meeting at Salem Nov. 23d.

Don't forget "Widow Snigles and her eight daughters" Thanksgiving evening.

Dr. Riggs of Mt. Hood is in town doing veterinary work this week.

A suspected case of diptheria is quarantined at the home of Mrs. Allen Fulton. Richard Nicholson of Stevenson came here a few days ago with his little boy on a visit to the family of Grant Evans. The child was taken with a sore throat, and doctors thought it best to quarantine him.

A meeting of the citizens of Hood River, to nominate candidates for the coming election, will be held at the A. O. U. W. hall Thursday evening, Nov. 21. All voters are urged to be present.

Winter rains set in the first of the week, but for two months previous there had not been a rainy day that interfered with outside work.

Order of the Red Cross meets in the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday, Nov. 23d. Degree work; don't miss it.

Dr. J. H. Rosenberg and Miss Lulu Luckey were married at Prineville November 3, 1901.

Improved Strawberries.
Ideal and Ruby. Best canning, shipping and home market berries yet introduced in the Northwest. Ideal is early, same shape as Clark's Seedling, Hood River berry, but better canned, and holds up in size better than Wilson Ruby is a late and a larger berry, but like Ideal, tart, showy, deep red clear through. Both are sold and have been tested for three years. Limited stock of plants now ready at $5.00 per 1000, $2.50 for 500; 100 to 300 plants, $1.00 per 100. Per dozen by mail, 25c. Apply to W. W. Walker, Nurseryman, or E. Hofer, sole propagators, Salem, Oregon.

Council Proceedings.
Regular meeting of the common council was held Monday evening. Present—Bell, Blowers, Barnes, Davidson, Luckey and McDonald. In the absence of the mayor, Alderman McDonald presided over the session. Judiciary committee reported, report was accepted and committee given further time on survey of ordinance.

Committee on health and police reported the report of Dr. Liphart's as being quarantined. Committee was instructed to keep close watch of the case.

Special committee reported on several lots offered the city upon which to build council chambers and a jail. Motion to purchase the lot by the U. S. of E. Smith for $500, if he will accept of a warrant to run five years, was adopted.

Motion that the committee report on sewerage survey be accepted and committee be given time to report further at next regular meeting, if possible, carried.

Ordinance regulating the passage of ordinance passed first reading.

The following ordinance passed second reading: Establishing base of grades; prescribing manner of calculating grades; listing grades of following streets (an ordinance for each street: Columbia River, Oak, State, Sherman avenue and Hazel avenue; ordinance regulating bond and compensation of treasurer—bonds fixed at $200; ordinance fixing name of Waucoma avenue or State road, amended and named State street.

In motion, all ordinances passed second reading at this meeting were adopted.

Bill of the Glacier, 125, for publishing ordinance, was allowed.

The recorder was instructed to post notices on city election, November 24. (see notice in advertising column).

The recorder was instructed to communicate with Attorney General Blackburn, asking him to decide if the present mayor held over another year under the new charter. A communication from Attorney General Light Co. making a proposition to light the town, was read and referred to committee on streets and public property, to report at next meeting.

Committee on streets and public property was instructed to look into the matter of closing part of Columbia street to allow the building of a boiler factory. The street asked to be vacated, and report at next meeting.

Motion adopted asking the mayor to appoint a committee to look up the matter of opening a street from foot of First street to the Columbia river.

Obituary.
The angel of Death has again visited our school and taken from us Zedie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Larsen. She was born at Underwood, Wash., September 7, 1891, and died November 8, 1901, after a very brief illness, aged 5 years, 10 months and 1 day. This was her first term at school, and though rather young to attend, she was always on time. Never missed a day of school. She was a bright child, and was very fond of her school. She was a very happy and smiling child. She told her mother she was glad to go to school. She was a very kind and loving child. She was a very good girl. She was a very sweet girl. She was a very beautiful girl. She was a very charming girl. She was a very delightful girl. She was a very interesting girl. She was a very attractive girl. She was a very lovely girl.
