Hood River Glacier

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1901

Portland did herself proud in raising more than three hundred thousand dollars in three days to capitalize the Lewis & Clark centennial of 1905. The projected exposition is now an assured fact. The big exposition also assures prosperity in every part of the Northwest for the next four years at least. The country towns and precincts will now be given a chance to subscribe to the stock of the exposition, and they can afford to be as liberal and as public spirited, according to their means, as Portland has shown berself to be. Hood River will come in for as great a share of benefits from this big exposition as any place outside of Portland. Of the thousands who will come to see the Northwest during the exposition most of them will want to view the grand scenery of the Columbia, visit the snow peaks of Adams and Hood, and see the valley that is farfamed for its fruits. Hood River will get its full share of visitors and sight seers, and for this reason we can well afford to subscribe liberally to the stock of the Lewis and Clark centennial when we are given a chance to do so.

Now is the time for the farmers and horticulturists to prepare for the exhibit of the products of the farm and orchard at the centennial of Lewis and Clark. Two-year-old apple trees planted now

Wedding Anniversary.

Miss Smith gave a most enjoyable par- Lester Foss, vera Alien, ty Friday evening, November 29th, in honor of the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stewart. Progressive whist was the entertainment provided. Eight tables were arranged. fourteen games were played. Mrs. Dumble and Mr. Cram secured first prizes and the consolations were captured by Mrs. Roberts and Prof. Gilbert. After refreshments, music, both instrumental and vocal, was listened to with much pleasure. A fitting finale to the pleasant evening was the Virginia reel, which was participated in by young and old. The large rooms were most beautifully decorated in mahonia, ivy. smilax and cut flowers, and a table of exquisite cut glass in the library testiexquisite cut glass in the library testified to the hearty good will and friendship existing for Mr. and Mrs. Stewart. Many congratulatory letters were received from numerous friends in the state. After wishing Mr. and Mrs. Stewart long life, wealth, prosperity and another meeting upon the occasion of their silver milestone, the guests departed. The following were present: Miss Smith, Mr and Mrs. Stewart, Mr and Mrs E L Smith, Dr and Mrs Watt, Mr and Mrs J E Rand, Prof and Mrs Watt, Mr and Mrs E Williams, Mr and Mrs Frank Friday, Mr and Mrs. and Mrs Frank Friday, Mr and Mrs E M Wharton, Mr and Mrs Noah Bone, Mr and Mrs A A Jayne, Mr and Mrs A J Graham, Mr and Mrs F B Rarnes, Mr and Mrs Roberts, Erwin, Connell, Miss Marsley of The Dalles Marden of The Dalles.

Death of John Sipma. '

John Sipma died in St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, December 3, 1901. He was born in Holland in 1832. When a boy he went to sea and followed a seafaring life for 20 years. He located on Puget sound in 1858, near Port Townsend, and came to Hood River in 1891, and lived here till his late sickness. He followed farming in Hood River. His remains were brought to Hood River Wednesday and buried in Idlewilde cemetery.

A Woman's Deadly Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. 1 B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doc tor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew warse. Then she is gan to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by Chas. N. Clarke.

Button & Craft have acted the part of gentlemen in their settlement with their employes, and while they retire from the scene of their operations here without a dollar, they are richer in the esteem of their associates, which is worth more than gold.
