of harrmess' iron bedsteads.
Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. want 60 men to cut cordwood. Good fir timber.
They pay 80c, 90c and $1 per cord. See Frank Davenport.
Dreary days made bright, heavy hearted maledight, by piano in the house.
You can't imagine how quickly the winter days will pass, if you have a nice piano. We will sell you a lovely investment, fully guaranteed, for $250 on easy payments. You couldn't make a more acceptable Christmas gift. We sold one last week and the purchaser is greatly pleased with it. Why not let us sell you one for your wife or daughter. Remember, easy payments. BHOOTH'S.
C. Weids and family have moved to Waburg, Wash.
J. C. Clay, O. R. & N. station agent, is a victim of rheumatism.
There were five additions to the Valley Christian church Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Neff of The Dalles visited in Hood River Saturday and Sunday.
A. H. Canning has moved his family into their new house in Parkhurst addition.
S. C. Smith has bought a home at Pendleton, Oregon, and settled there permanently.
C. S. Wheeler and wife are visiting at the home of Mr. Wheeler's brother at The Dalles this week.
For Rent—The Henderson house, furnished, and fruit farm. For particulars inquire of J. L. Henderson.
W. H. Marshall has disposed of his interest in the Prather Investment Co. to the other members of the firm.
Misses Ella Armitage and Mabel Hurley of Portland ate Thanksgiving turkey with Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Coppel.
Mrs. A. K. Fuller of Sherman county visited the family of H. C. Straubhan during Thanksgiving and returned home Sunday.
Invitations to attend the hanging of Jim Green at Stevenson, Friday, Dec.
6th, are out. The glacier man declined with thanks.
We will promptly fill any and every combination offer for magazines advertised by any responsible agency.
E. R. BRADLEY.
The Prather Investment Company, last week, sold lots 6, 7 and 8 in block 9, owned by Clark Bros., to S. F. Fontz, consideration $400.
Heavy rains raised Hood river to booming stage Sunday morning, but no logs came down for the reason that none were in the river.
J. L. Walker and family moved up from the Wilamette valley and are settled on lots recently purchased in the Barrett-Sigma addition.
E. D. Calkins has sold his harness business in town to Holman & Sons and will continue himself to mending harness at his home at Frankton.
Roses and chrysanthemums continue to bloom on the lawns in Hood River.
There has not been enough frost even to kill the tomato vines in the gardens.
Miss Nellie Lloyd, who has been making an extended visit with relatives and friends in Hood River, returned to her home at Cant, Wash., last Saturday.
Misses Maude and Ida Stranahan, who are teaching school in Sherman county, spent Thanksgiving at their home in Hood River. Miss Maude is teaching at Monkland and Miss Ida at Rufus.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holt of Portland spent Thanksgiving in Hood River, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Rand. Mr.
Holt is manager of the Browns-vie woolen house, in which house Bert Rand is a clerk.
On Tuesday evening, the 29th, the members of the Christian church and its friends surprised their pastor, J. W.
Jenkins, and after enjoying themselves for several hours, departed leaving many tokens of their love and friendship.
The Sunday school of the Christian church rendered a programme "Christ and Our Country" Thanksgiving evening. The house was crowded and the exercises, especially the drill by the Columbia cadet corps, were well rendered and appreciated by the audience.
The collection for home missions amounted to $11.81.
Geo. D. Culbertson of Portland was a visitor with his friend, Major J. S. Booth, the first of the week. Mr. Culbertson is looking for a location to go into merchandising. He is favorably impressed with Hood River and thinks it has a bright future, but says there are already too many stores here to think of opening another.
Stanley Sher, the ten-year-old son of Lios Sher, was badly injured one day last week. He went to the pasture to bring in the horse. Sometime afterwards he returned to the house with his head all bloody, but could give no account of what had happened.
It is supposed that he fell while leading the horse and the animal stepped on his head. Dr. Brosius was called and the boy's skull was found to be fractured.

The gymnasium has been opened, the first meeting being Saturday evening, Nov. 30th. There are about 25 names enrolled at present and the list is being swelled at each meeting. The new horizontal bar is now in position and with it, the punching bags and the lively games of basket ball, the hours spent in the gymnasium promise to be not only beneficial but enjoyable as well. Other appliances are ordered. The excess of the dues over the running expenses will be used to purchase other equipment.
The night of meeting are Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week.
Prof. J. B. Horner, A. M., Litt. D., one of the leading professors of the state agricultural college of Oregon, has been secured to deliver his lecture on "Robert Burns." This will be the second lecture in the free lecture course under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip. Don't forget that Chaplain Gilbert will lecture Monday evening, Dec. 10, at 8 o'clock, at the United Brethren church. Admission free. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses.
Capt. J. P. Shaw spent Thanksgiving in Hood River and returned to Portland Sunday. The captain is a veteran of the civil war and served in the 31st Ohio. He is full of reminiscences of civil war times, and there is no one more interesting in telling his experiences.
Read, Read, Read! how to get a beautiful present for your little ones, absolutely free. With every purchase to the amount of $1.00 will give you a chance in our $100 Bique Doll, now on exhibition in our show window.— Madam Abbott, Millinery.
Capt. H. Cook of White Salmon was in town Friday, on his way to The Dalles.
The captain is a good patron of newspapers and his mailing slip shows that he is sold up on the Glacier all October 18, 1905. May his shadow never grow less.
Indian Nellie is sick at her cabin on Adams hill. She is in need of wood and groceries, and all kind-hearted persons who knew Nellie in her better days are asked to see that she does not suffer for the necessities of life.
Why not buy your wife a beautiful, light running New Home machine for Christmas. She would get so much benefit, and pleasure from such a gift. $35 for the highest grade machine made.
BHOOTH'S
At the meeting of Canby Post, G. A.
E. and W. R. C., Dec. 14th, there will be election of officers and inspection. As many members as can be present are requested to do so.
S. C. Jackson is engaged beautifying the front of Chas. Temple's jewelry store. Mr. Temple is bound to have things up to date, and Mr. Jackson can do his part in his line.
Hon. Jay P. Lucas, the efficient register of The Dalles land office, it is said will lead to the hymental altar, about New Year's, Mrs. Olivia Morgan of The Dalles.
Dorance Smith and Harry Hansberry with their families came up from Cascade Locks on their boat and spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Hansberry.
Remember the tea to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church Friday, Dec. 6th, in Artisan's hall. A good programme. Everybody invited.
Holman & Sons have purchased the harness stock of E. D. Calkins and moved into the building on the corner of Third and State streets.
J. A. Turnbull and family, who have been residing at Nicolai, left last week for Roseburg, where they will take up their future residence.
In Hood River, Oregon, December 1, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davenport, a son, The city treasurer elect will assume the duties of the office and serve the people all the same. No advance in interest rates on short loans.

An Ordinance Prescribing the Manner of Calculating Grades.
The City of Hood River does ordain as follows: Section 1. Unless otherwise provided by ordinance, the grade of all streets shall conform to a straight line between the center of adjacent cross streets; provided that the grade of streets running westerly or southerly from the center of the street to the block line shall not exceed one foot, and on all streets running easterly or northerly shall not exceed one foot from the center of the street to the block line.
Passed the Common Council November 14, 1901, and approved by me this 15th day of November, 1901.
Attest: J. N. NICKELMAN, Recorder.
