Jackson & Firebaugh will have a sign writer in town next week to build a sign for their house, to let everybody know where they are located. This will give an opportunity for others who need signs to procure them.
Little Virgil Anderson, about 10 years of age, living with his parents on Lyman Smith's place, ran into a barbed wire fence, one day last week, and cut his face badly. The doctor called had to take eight stitches in sewing up the wounds.
J. T. Holman brought to the Glacier office, Monday, Dec. 10th, a green pea vine from his garden on which were well filled pods of green peas and blossoms. At this rate Mr. Holman can have green peas from his garden for his Christmas dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Staten of Hood River were Thanksgiving visitors of Col. and Mrs. Haynes, returning home Monday. These two families were neighbors and intimate friends in Utah, before they came to the coast, and they try to get together occasionally.—Forest Grove Times.
Jas. DeFord reported the execution of Jim Green at Stevenson for the Spokesman-Review. He sketched the jail, the doctor, the sheriff, and the scaffold where the victim swung, and also sent a photo of Green to the Spokesman-Review. Green died game, acknowledged his guilt, and said he was going to heaven.
John Koberg and wife are making 33 rolls of gilt-edge butter a week from their 9 cows. They churn every other day and turn out 11 rolls at a churning. They also gather on an average 30 dozen eggs a week. They have about 250 chickens, old and young. Their chicken feed, wheat, costs 60 cents a bushel laid down at their place by river steamer. It pays to keep cows and chickens when they are rightly looked after.
Citizens in the neighborhood of Belmont have put in volunteer work on the roads for which they deserve the thanks of the whole community. Geo. W. Isaac, G. D. Woodworth, G. R. Castner, R. J. Ellis, Hugh Galligan and James Ingalls and others furnished teams for hauling gravel, and the road from Joe Purser's to J. A. Wilson's farm, and also the road to the free delivery mail route towards the Barrett gate, have been made good by plenty of gravel.

We made seven transfers in land last week, considerations ranging from $500 to $1000. Some of these are holiday gifts, hence we will not give names. They were attested by Geo. P. Crowell, notary public. We are not envious of any who are selling more land than we are.
F. O. Brace, who bought the Cox lots near the armory, went to Portland Thursday to bring his steam wood-saw outfit to Hood River. He will then be prepared to saw your wood with "neatness and dispatch." An enterprise of this kind has been needed in Hood River for some time.
Miss Lulu Anderson returned last week from a week's visit with friends in Portland and Sheridan. A surprise party was tendered her at the residence of Mrs. Tom Scroggins, where about twenty of her old friends gathered and a pleasant evening was spent.
The new board of directors of the Hood River Transportation and Boom Company organized by electing the following officers: C. A. Bell, president; Geo. T. Prather, vice president; Geo. P. Crowell, treasurer; P. S. Davidson, secretary.
Joseph Aerni of Trout Lake was in town Wednesday on a business trip. He said it was snowing when he left home Tuesday morning, and about two inches of the beautiful covered the ground.
A change in the weather occurred Tuesday, and we are now having a touch of winter. The days and nights are clear with sharp frosts. Thursday morning the mercury was down to 24 above zero.
A company of colored minstrels "The Funny 4 Company," struck town Wednesday and will give a performance at A. O. U. W. hall this Thursday evening. They promise a good programme.
The Arizona had another of their enjoyable invitation dances Wednesday night. They will have a Christmas tree, for members only, Christmas night.
Regular meeting of Canby Post, G. A. R. and W. R. C., tomorrow. Inspection and election of officers. Be on hand in time to get an office.
T. C. Dallas did a commendable act in having gravel hauled for a sidewalk between his buildings and the Langille house.
Arnold & Bellevue are ready to commence the erection of the K. of P. hall as soon the lumber is on the ground.
F. E. Waters, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association is in town.
Cheapest and best insurance in Oregon is the O. F. R. A. of McMinnville. F. E. Waters, agent, is now in the city.

R. S. Andrews, after an absence of nearly a year in Kansas, returned to Hood River Saturday.
Council Proceedings.
Regular meeting of the common council was held Monday evening. Present—Mayor Brosius, Aldermen Bell, Blowers, Barnes, Luckey and McDonald, Recorder Nicholson, Marshal Olinger.
Committee on streets and public property, to whom was referred the matter of opening First street to the Columbia, reported that, under the new charter, first steps would have to be taken by ordering a survey by the city surveyor.
On motion of Barnes, the report was accepted and committee continued.
Luckey moved that the mayor appoint a city surveyor. Adopted.
Special committee on the matter of closing Columbia street reported they had no report to make. Chairman McDonald said there was no petition from the property owners on the street to close it. Report adopted and committee discharged.
McDonald, from special committee on sewer, reported that the committee had notified Surveyor Paget that his proposition was accepted, and the committee now awaits his action. Report accepted and committee continued.
Luckey, from special committee on the Electric Light Co.'s proposition to light the streets, reported that the committee had held no meeting.
Barnes moved that the electric light proposition be laid on the table till next meeting. Carried.
Ordinance requiring sidewalks to be laid on Oak street, between First and Fourth, to conform to the established grade, passed first reading.
Bills were allowed as follows: Judges and clerks of the court—W. F. Firebaugh, $1.25; C. J. Hayes, $1.25; Thos. Clark, $1.25; L. Clark, $1.25; J. H. Dukes, $1.25. Marshal Olinger, two months salary, $60; E. R. Bradley, election ballots and supplies, $6.80; Haynes and Underwood, removing dead cow, $2.00; Mr. Hood Suga Co., hauling lumber, $1.25; Glenwood house, four meals, $1; Glacier, publishing ordinances, $1.75.
McDonald moved that, instead of vacating part of Columbia street, the chinking part of Columbia street, the ground wanted by the Davidson Fruit Co. be leased to them at a nominal rental.
Blowers moved that a committee be appointed to look into the legality of leasing part of Columbia street. Carried.
The judiciary committee was appointed. When appointed, be instructed to lay out the extension of First street, north, as provided by the charter. Carried.
On motion of McDonald, the judiciary committee was instructed to report an ordinance defining the duties and fixing the compensation of the surveyor.
N. C. Evans was granted privilege to address the council. He thought it due the Electric Light Co. that some action be taken on the proposition made by the company to light the streets. He asked that it either be turned down or accepted in whole or in part.

The council proceeded to canvass the returns of the late city election.
Blowers moved that the candidates found to have received the highest number of votes be declared elected. Carried. Adjourned.
Hunter's Thrilling Experience.
Ike Neidigh and young Dave Purser went hunting Sunday. Ike shot a squirrel and it lodged in the fork of a pine tree. Dave decided he could get the squirrel by climbing a leaning oak tree. The tree leaned over a bluff near Tucker's mill. He reached the squirrel and dropped it to the ground, then stepped back on a limb of the oak to make his descent, meanwhile holding to a limb of the pine tree above his head. The oak limb cracked and he swung back. He again placed his feet on the oak limb, and this time it not only cracked but fell to the ground. This left Dave swinging in the air 35 feet above a rocky precipice. Ike was nearly paralyzed when he saw what a predicament Dave was in; but he saw at a glance that the best thing he could do to gain the top of the limb he held to was to throw his legs over it in the manner of "skinning the cat." He yelled to Dave to "skin the cat." Dave said he couldn't—had never learned that trick. Ike insisted he must, but the boy didn't feel like taking his first lesson at "skinning the cat" while suspended 35 feet in the air over a pile of rocks. Ike then ordered him to climb hand over hand to reach the pine tree. The boy obeyed this time and reached the ground safely, but his wrists were fearfully scratched by the rough bark of the pine tree.

"Philippines and Filipinos."
Christmas comes once a year, but Rev. W. S. Gilbert, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church of Portland, and formerly chaplain of the Second Oregon in the Philippines, doesn't come that often. However, he will lecture at the United Brethren church Monday evening, December 16th, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be, "Philippines and Filipinos, as seen in Camp, Field and Hospital." Prof. J. B. Hornor of the state agricultural college and Dr. Frank Strong, president of the state university at Eugene, will also lecture under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip later on. A collection will be taken to defray expenses.
Saw Death Near.
"It often made my heart ache," writes L. C. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn., "to hear my wife cough until it seemed her weak and sore lungs would collapse. Good doctors said she was so far gone with consumption that no medicine or earthly help could save her, but a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery and persistent use of this excellent medicine saved her life." It's absolutely guaranteed for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung diseases. 50c and $1 at Chas. N. Clarke's. Trial bottles free.
Bro. Ireland of the Moro Observer evidently has been taking lessons in housekeeping. He says: "The right way to make a bed is to stretch the under sheet tightly over the mattress, then fold under by lifting the mattress to pass the sheet underneath, now draw the upper sheet smoothly and also fold it under at the sides and foot of the mattress. Smooth the blankets and spread as each is placed and the result will be a faultlessly made bed. Air your bed room every nice forenoon, summer and winter."
Oregon has 5,740 pensioners, drawing $749,310 annually.
Free Entertainment.
The ladies' aid society of the U. B. church will give a free entertainment Friday evening at the gymnasium hall. Besides the literary and musical features of the programme, there will be some gymnastics by the young men, including the wonderful performance of the great and only clown. The ladies will have their new calendars for sale. Speak early if you wish one, for the number is limited. The following programme will be rendered:
Music—"Love's Slave," cavetto, stringed instruments—Mrs. Dr. Dumble, Miss Estlin, Mrs. Huxley, Mr. Wentworth.
Recitation—"The Baby in the Car"—Vera Allen.
Song—"What Will You Give Me, Papa?"—Calvin Hardy.
Recitation—"Lecture by One of the Sex."—Mrs. Zoe C. Shaffer.
Song—"Come Play House with Me"—Vera and Nettie Allen.
Music—"Daughter of Love" Stringed instruments.
Gym Exercises—Scientific bag punching, C. Clarke, Taubling, various members; Horizontal bar exercises, Bruno Franz.
