The lecture by Chaplain Gilbert at the U. B. church Monday night drew a full house. The speaker gave a very interesting talk on the war in the Philippines and exhibited many souvenirs in the shape of guns, knives, wearing appared, etc., of the Spaniards and Fillippinos, which he acknowledged he stoke when he couldn't capture or purchase them. His description of the surrender of the walled city of Manila, when the Spanish army gave up their arms and equipments to the soldiers of the Second Oregon and the proud flag of old Spani was lowered to be replaced by the Stars and Stripes, was vivid and thrilling, as was his story of the hattle of Malabon, where the Oregon boys made a reputation for themselves and their state and made their colonel a general.
