TWELVE YEARS IN HIDING. NEWS OF THE STATE

G. A. Bennett at Last Arrested for Extensive

Cattle Stealing. Missoula, Mont., Jan. 29 .- G. A. Bennett, formerly a prominent merchant of this city, who for the past 12 years has been hiding from an indictnent of a grand jury issued October 12. 1890, on a charge of stealing cattle, was brought last night to Missoula by the sheriff.

The story of his downfall, so far as can be learned, is that stockmen, in the summer of 1890, had been missing cattle, and suspicion fell on Bennett and his range riders. A close watch was kept on them with the result that evidence against Bennett, which was murdered a white man, were lynched. laid before the district judge, was considered sufficient by that official towarrant his calling a grand jury to investigate the matter. After a session lasting several days, the grand jury returned a verdict against Bennett and ng cattle. Bennett drove from his home directly through this city to some unknown escape. The various sheriffs of this county since the escape have constantly been on the lookout for him. Some weeks ago the sheriff located his man ing the canal bill to the senate means a at Albuquerque, N.
