Saturday, March 15.

A gratifying success has marked our past six seasons in Millinery. Our seventh will open with a larger line, including the latest novelties in shapes, braids and trimmings.

Our policy of closing stock each season enables us to show ONLY NEW GOODS.

We are in contact with all the latest ideas, thus insuring LATEST STYLES.

No house in the state sells Millinery at less expense than we, hence one of the important factors in our LOW PRICE SYSTEM. If you object to our prices being low, go to Portland or The Dalles, where you will pay more for the same or an inferior article.

We cordially invite you to attend the opening and will take pleasure in showing you our line at any time.
