JAYNE & HARTLEY.

Miss Grace Hobson of The Dalles is visiting Miss Clara Blythe.
Melville Foley is clerking in the grocery store of Colonel O. B. Hartley.
J. P. Egan, a prosperous farmer of Bingen, Wash., was in town last Saturday.
Flint Bradford piloted a party of tourists and pleasure seekers to Lost Lake the first of the week.
Mrs. J. T. Bagley was up from Portland last week, on her way to Eastern Oregon for a three week's visit.
E. W. Udell, D. G. M. I. O. O. F., went to Latourelle and installed the officers of Falls lodge, No. 101, last Saturday evening.

Read the ad of the Prather Investment Co. in another column offering a bargain in mining and farming property in Jackson county.
The prospects are good for a large crop of wild blackberries. They are ripe now in the neighborhood of the Davenport mills.
E. W. Winans and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Neff left Tuesday morning for the Saint Martin springs, where Mr. Neff goes in search of health.
The Davenport Bros. Lumber company are moving their lower mill to a more favorable location for timber on the Fred Hertz place, above the old Parker mills.
The following party left Tuesday morning for an ing at Cloud Cap Inn: Mrs. S. E. Bartness and sons Earl and Meigs and the Misses Madie and Ethel Carlisle of Atchison, Kansas.
C. P. Ross is now located at Wallula, Wash., where he has taken a position as forwarding warehouseman for the O. R. & N., and the Northern Pacific Junction at that point.
J. E. Blount last week finished a $700 one-story cottage for A. L. Newton on the school house hill. This makes the fifth house Contractor Blount has completed since February.
Canby post, G. A. R. and W. R. C. will hold regular meetings tomorrow, at 2 o'clock. The regular meetings days of the post and corps are the second and fourth Saturdays of each month.
B. G. Belien is again in the business of contracting and building on his own hook. Mr. Belien has put up a good many buildings in Hood River, and is known as an efficient and reliable workman.
H. A. Toney lost his barn by fire, Tuesday last week. Mr. Toney was absent in town at the time. His household furniture, stored in the barn during the building of a dwelling house, was also consumed.
William M. Mott, of Conneaut, Ohio, arrived in Hood River, Saturday, for a month's visit with his son, M. Mott. Mr. Mott is interested in the real estate business at Conneaut, a lively little city of 10,000 people on Lake Erie.
O. B. Hartley last week brought out his partner, James E. Hanna, and is now sole proprietor of the grocery store, formerly that of Hanna & Hartley. Mr. Hanna expects soon to again engage in the grocery business in Hood River.
John A. Wilson, while putting out squirrel poison at dusk one evening last week, ran onto a skunk. The skunk's quipped showed fight, and while excitedly lacerating a rock at his opponent, Mr. Wilson lacerated the back of his hand on a barbed wire. He got the skunk.

There was business last week in Justice Nickelson's court. Arthur Disbrow brought suit of assault and battery against John R. Bird, the alleged assailant purported to have occurred about January 26, when Mr. Disbrow collected some money due him. The case was tried before a jury last Monday afternoon. Jayne & Hartley prosecuting and John H. Crablebaugh defending. The trial lasted an hour, but the jury after a deliberation of five hours could reach no agreement. A second trial was held Friday with the same results and the case was dismissed.
Mrs. Jennie B. Stellabarger, a niece of Mrs. B. F. Shoemaker, is spending a couple of weeks in Hood River. Mrs. Stellabarger is here from Manila, where her husband is engaged in an extensive commercial business. Several years ago Mrs. Stellabarger edited the children's page of the Sunday Oregonian, and while in Manila was a special correspondent for the same paper. She has also done newspaper work in Manila. She will return to the Philippines the first of October.
Hon. E. L. Smith of Hood River, president of the state board of horticulture, and W. K. Newell, horticultural commissioner for the first district, were examining the orchards in this vicinity the middle of the week. Fruitgrowers of Hood River are preparing to set out a good many cherry trees, and Mr. Smith was here especially to study the different varieties and decide upon those best adapted to the Hood River valley.—Newberg Graphic.

The Mount Hood Stage company, Messrs. J. J. Luckey and William Allen, proprietors, was sold last week to A. K. Fuller of Sherman county consideration, $4,500. Driggs, Culbertson & Co. were the promoters of the deal. Mr. Luckey says he has had enough of the livery business and that he will devote his time now toward booming his interest in the Mosier townsite. He also has a strawberry patch on his Mosier property.
The Wasco county teachers' institute will be held this year at The Dalles, August 27, 28, 29. Superintendent C. L. Gilbert has secured the consent of Professor Frank Rigler, city superintendent of the Portland public schools, and D. A. Groat, principal of the Harrison street school, to be present. State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman will also be present, and several other prominent educators.
S. C. Jackson is making a change in his business and will soon move to Clearwater in addition to the hill, where he will at once erect a building for a shop and do picture framing and paper hanging. Mr. Jackson formerly engaged in the barber business. He will put in a barber chair in his new shop and keep open for tonsorial work between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evenings and all day Saturdays.

Charles Tucker met with a painful accident Monday. He was working with Fred Hollenbeck, getting out timbers for the Tucker Power company. Hollenbeck was driving a steel wedge, when a piece of the wedge flew off and struck Tucker, who was standing close by, in the leg, inflicting a severe wound. He was brought to Dr. Watt's office and had his wound dressed.
A. T. Dodge brought to town for shipment to Portland Tuesday, three bales of rye straw weighing 770 pounds. The stalks averaged six feet long. The rye straw is used in Portland for stuffing horse collars and is worth $20 a ton. Mr. Dodge threshed about seven bushels of wheat from the straw. The rye was cut from one-quarter of an acre.
Clarence C. English and wife of San Francisco arrived Friday night of last week, and are visiting Mr. English's mother, Mrs. George P. Crowell. Mr. English is in the employ of Stuparich Manufacturing company of San Francisco as designer for fancy papers, cardboard, etc. A specimen of his work left at this office, shows Mr. English to be an artist of ability.

E. A. Meyer, who is at present in the employ of the Lost Lake Lumber company, has a place on the hills above Lytle. He has a young apple orchard just coming into bearing. His orchard is at an elevation of about 2,000 feet. His neighbors have good orchards and are not troubled with codlin moth.
L. J. Hick and C. M. Richmond, of Hick, Matten Engraving company of Portland passed through Hood River Tuesday on their return from the Mazama outing to Mount Adams. Mr. Hick captured a party up the mountain, Sunday. Of the 29 who started but 22 reached the top.
Oliver Bartness, of Hood River, an old Eastern friend of the Zeitlers, is a most able cricketer. Mr. Bartness is 33 years old, but is spry as a cricket. He is quite a bicyclist, having made some pretty good records on the road.—Eugene Register.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thompson, Mrs. Thompson's sister, Miss Alice Horning, Charles Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. W. Bone, went to Cloud Cap Inn Wednesday. They will go into camp at the bridge on their return from the Inn.
John Hays, a miner from Gold Hill, Jackson county, is visiting his son-in-law, Joseph Hoskins at Belmont. Mr. Hays is anxious to trade his Jackson county property for some Hood River fruit land.
Congressman Malcolm A. Moody is home from Washington, D. C. He expects the engineers to begin operations on the Dalles-Celilo canal sometime this fall.
Judge Henry sent some of his fine cherries, Royal Ann and Black Republics, to friends at Bloomington, Ill., and the friends wrote and wanted to know what kind of plums they were.
Rev. Lawrence Idleman, an Episcopal minister of Denver, Col., was in Hood River last week visiting his sister, Mrs. H. L. Dumble.
J. A. Thompson and his brother-in-law, Sam Green, from Canada, have returned to Hood River valley.—Moro Observer.

Mrs. Edgar Belknap has returned to Portland after a two week's visit in Hood River, the guest of Mrs. M. A. Cook.
Mr. Monahan of Portland came up Monday to spend a few days with his family who are rusticating on the hill.
Clarence Gilbert and Charles Tostevin went to Trout Lake Wednesday intending to return next day.
Lute Dinsmore of Los Angeles, Cal., was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Cook, a few days last week.
Miss Anna Smith is visiting in The Dalles, the guest of Miss Virginia Marlen.
Miss Mionie Bartell of The Dalles spent Sunday visiting friends in Hood River.
Walter McGuire and family have gone to Maple Dell for a few week's outing.
Rev. H. L. Herbersther will preach at Pine Grove next Sunday at 3:30 p. m.
Miss Isabel Jakway of Portland is visiting the family of S. F. Blythe.
Miss Francis Pounstone of Portland is visiting Miss Hazel Olinger.
Mrs. E. E. Erwin and daughters are at Saint Martin's springs.
Don't fail to read J. E. Rana's ad this week.

Seasonable Goods

Summer suits made by the Royal Tailors at big reductions. The constant and well-known up-ness, in-ness and seldom out-ness of our stock makes Royal Tailoring an inviting proposition. No other house has so few "outs," you nearly always get your "first choice," and everybody concedes that we are particular in measuring, and the tailors are particular in making a superb fit.
Ladies' Skirts made strictly to your measure by the best tailors the Royals have. We challenge any house on earth to produce finer made skirts at any price. They can't; and the prices cut surprisingly low. We have them as low as $5, express added.
Order your fall skirt now while summer price cutting is on.

Yours for Fair Dealing and Low Prices.
