

Another Brick Building for Hood River.

Hood River is to have another brick business house. Hon. E. L. Smith has let the contract for the erection of a $5,000 brick structure to be completed by November 1, and to be occupied by William M. Stewart as a hardware and furniture store.

The building will be located on the southeast corner of the block bounded by Second and State streets, and will be 50x100 feet in extent. L. D. Boyd secured the contract for the brick work, and began operations Monday morning.

"Mr. Smith has made a thorough investigation of the business conditions throughout the West," said William M. Stewart, the home-furnisher, when approached by a Glacier reporter, "and will emphasize his utmost confidence in the future of Hood River by the erection of the most extensive improvement yet contemplated. Details of construction are in my hands, and when the building is completed I expect to occupy it with an extensive stock of general hardware, building material, paints, oils, glass, stoves, tinware, furniture and general house furnishings."

The main building will front 50 feet on Second street and 100 feet on State street. It will be of brick and the general structure will be such as to practically guarantee against fire. All possible woodwork will be avoided while all openings will be carefully protected with iron and asbestos.

In the rear I shall have a warehouse for storing goods to be shipped in by the railroad. The entire plan contemplates a most economical handling of an immense tonnage, which, with the lower cost of goods bought in quantities and the cheaper freight rates by carload lots, guarantees our consumers a buying market complete in assortment and at lowest market rates."

Mr. Stewart is also preparing for the erection of a handsome dwelling house on his property adjoining Judd Forson's on State street. This with his brick store will add materially to the thrifty appearance of the town. Mr. Stewart was for nine years manager of a big wholesale store established in Portland, and during this time his extensive travels over five of the western states enabled him to investigate and to take advantage of every possible business opening. His final location in Hood River is a proof of his confidence in the future of the town.

"Taking the entire proposition from a mining standpoint the future of the country depends entirely on discoveries to be made. Many who are sanguine think there is a great future from the development in the immediate vicinity. At Juneau mining is going on as it has for a number of years, with the prospects good for an indefinite continuation. Since removing the government offices from Sitka to Juneau that place has received a decided advantage."

Someone passing himself as a representative for Babagat, photographer, was in Hood River one day last week.

Several Hood Riverites are wiser but poorer thereby. The impostor sold 50-cent coupons for photographs, claiming that his employer was at the depot with a special car ready to open up a gallery in town, and that by presenting the coupon and an additional 50 cents the holder of the same could obtain a dozen cabinet photographs and an enlarged picture. The scheme was a "grand introductory affair," and only a limited number of coupons were to be sold. Several people paid 50 cents for a coupon, but failed afterward to find the photographer.

William Rogers, the Hood River photographer, is making preparations for an extensive enlargement of his gallery on Third street. An addition of 25 feet will be built on the rear and a general renovation made in the present quarters. This improvement will give him a commodious and well arranged photographic gallery. Mr. Rogers obtained some excellent photographic views of Mount Hood while at Lost lake last month. Some of the pictures present a unique appearance, with a foreground border of vines and bushes, the camera having been placed in the bushes at the edge of the lake.

Mrs. E. D. Calkins was given a pleasant surprise Tuesday, by a number of her friends and neighbors. Those of the women present and the names of their home states were: Mrs. C. E. Curtis, Illinois; Mrs. M. A. Shoemaker, Illinois; Mrs. S. C. Garbrant, Indiana; Mrs. M. E. Teak, New York; Mrs. E. B. Byrnie, Iowa; Miss C. A. Byrnie, Iowa; Miss W. Jenkins, Ohio; Miss M. A. Lakin, Indiana; Mrs. J. W. Forbes, Ohio; Mrs. J. W. Forbes, Iowa; Mrs. J. W. Rigby, Pennsylvania.

The Prather Investment company displays an enterprising spirit in advertising Hood River, by having printed on the back of the company's business envelopes in red ink "Hood River, Oregon, the land of strawberries and big red apples—a beautiful climate, pure water, and beautiful scenery." This is an idea that could be profitably carried out by all our business men. Every business letter leaving the town could, at a trifling expense, be printed in this manner to yield big advertising returns.

The Hood River blackberry crop this summer is very short. Usually 2,000 or 3,000 crates of the fruit are shipped from Hood River, but this year less than 200 or 300 crates will be sent out. The cold weather of late winter destroyed the young vine shoots. There is money in blackberries as there is little expense attached to the growing and the gathering of the fruit.

Miss Alma LeRoy of Portland, is spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. W. Rankin, at Hood River. She is a sister of Frank Rankin's, who for several years has been a teacher in the Williams avenue public school, will leave shortly for Boise, Idaho, where she has been made principal of a public school in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bishop and son Perce went to Newport today. Mr. Bishop came from The Dalles on the early morning train and was met by Mrs. Bishop and Perce, who arrived here last week from Warm Springs. Mr. Bishop will attend the Indian institute at Newport.

Captain H. F. Atwood, who recently bought a portion of the Charles Chandler place, the Prather Investment company transferring the deal, harvested this year 8 tons and 525 pounds of alfalfa hay in two cuttings from 1 1/2 acres of land.

The little child of Mrs. Osborne died, August 20, aged 18 months. Mrs. Osborne is a sister to Frank Rankin's, and recently arrived here from Colorado. The child, a boy, died of membranous croup. Funeral today; interment in the Idlewild cemetery.

A. O. HERSHEY and wife returned last Saturday from a visit to Mr. HERSHEY's old home in Indiana. They did not get stuck on the Hoosier state, and are glad to get back to Oregon. S. J. HERSHEY came with them and will make his home here.

School district No. 3 advertised for bids on 38 cords of wood to be delivered at the school house. The bids of the kind were received, those having wood to sell evidently finding plenty of a demand in the open market.

Mrs. R. E. Harbison, and daughters, Heister and Mary, left Friday on The Dalles City for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Harbison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Bank.

George L. Thompson, chief clerk of the Hotel Perkins, and family, were the guests of Mrs. James Ingalls for two weeks, and returned to Portland Monday.

M. Roberts, representing Wyckoff, Seaman & Benedict, of Portland, general agents for the Remington Typewriter company, was taking orders in Hood River during the week.

Will Rogers will entertain the members of the Order of Washington Saturday evening, August 23, with his phonograph. Members who are absent will miss a good show.

S. L. Taylor and wife were visitors in Hood River last week. They have rented their place here to Mr. Wood, a carpenter recently arrived, and will remain at Corbett.

George T. Prather, one of Hood River's most energetic and enthusiastic citizens, is in the city on his way to visit relatives up the valley.—Oregon Daily Journal.

Miss Kate Earl has been elected to the position in the Hood River public school made vacant by the resignation of Miss Ethel Tassel of Laramore, N. D.

W. H. Pengel, one day last week captured an 8-pound salmon trout in his irrigated ditch. The fish had evidently straggled on his annual trip to the sea.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins and Ashley Cash went to the coast last week and will return Saturday. Mr. Jenkins will fill his appointment on Sunday next.

Robert Colyer and family of Portland, stopped 10 days at the country boarding house of Mrs. A. Ingalls, and went home Monday.

Miss Ida Duncan, a friend of Will Langille at Nome, Alaska, arrived in Hood River Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. S. Langille at Good Cap Inn in town.

Clearance sale of groceries at the Spot Cash grocery next week. Watch for announcement in next week's Glacier.

Robert Leasure and Albert McKenney of Mount Hood attended lodge meeting in town Saturday night.

Miss Melvia Dawson, of Heppner, visited in Hood River this week with Miss Maude Gilbert.

Mrs. Truman Butler left Tuesday morning for a visit of several weeks in Southern California.

M. E. McCarty of the Paris Fair went with his family to the springs, Wednesday.

L. E. Morse and wife are at Moscow, Idaho, visiting Mrs. Morse's father.

At home after August 20 at the Spot Cash grocery. Hanna & Co.
