Mrs. M. A. Cook is visiting her mother in Portland.
J. S. Booth spent Tuesday in the metropolis on business.
E. E. Savage's Sons' store building is receiving a new coat of paint.
Miss Mae B. Roe, our popular milliner, has gone to Portland on business.
Jayne & Hartwig have had their office on Third street furnished with electric lights.
E. W. Stahl, a printer from Portland, is helping Mr. Bradley through his rush of job work.
The Pine Grove educational society will hold its first meeting on Saturday evening.
Miss Dora Richter is taking a course of instruction in the Standard Dress Cutting school.
H. J. Palmer, after spending his vacation on his homestead in Crook county, returned to Hood River last week.
Charles H. Moor, prosecuting attorney of Skamania county, Wash., died in Portland, September 24, of Bright's disease.
Rev. W. G. Elliot will preach at the A. O. U. hall Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, from the subject: "Law and Lynch Law."

Helen, the year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Flint Bradford, was taken to The Dalles hospital for treatment, Monday.
Elder Thomas Chapman will preach in the Union church at Odell at 10:45 a. m., Sunday, October 5, in reply to Elder C. A. Wyman.
Abbe Deane returned last week from Walla Walla and Colfax, Wash., where he has been engaged in helping harvest and thresh the large wheat crop.
A. G. Wright was in town Tuesday on his way to attend The Dalles carnival. Mr. Wright has purchased 40 acres near Vancouver, Wash., and expects to move to that place in the near future.
The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will give a pie social at the Tabernacle tonight, Friday, October 3. A stove has been placed in the building to add to the warmth of welcome to all lovers of pie.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Graham started Sunday on the G. A. R. excursion to Washington City. They go by the Canadian Pacific and will be two days longer on their trip than those who go by the way of the O. R. & N. and the Union Pacific.
The citizens of Pine Grove and Odell districts last Thursday morning shipped 1,200 pounds of apples and potatoes, some clothing, and $50 in money for the destitute forest fire sufferers. Mr. Hennagin brought in the goods and shipped them and bought a draft for an even $50.
R. B. Lindsay and son Vovl returned last week from Sherman county, where they have been engaged with a threshing outfit week during the fall. Mr. Lindsay left immediately for Wind river, Washington, to accept a position as scaler in a logging camp.
D. S. Crapper, living southwest of town, is quite sick. Mr. Crapper is over 80 years of age and has always enjoyed robust health until a few months ago, since which time he has not been feeling well, but it is hoped that his naturally strong constitution may enable him to regain his health.
It is told on one of our Hood River citizens who went to The Dalles, and after partaking of two or three of Barkeep Kelley's famous gin cocktails sat down to dinner at the Unatilla. After he had been served with the different courses the waiter asked him what he would have to drink—meaning of course, tea or coffee. The Hood River man looked up in surprise and asked: "Why, do you bring it in here?"

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.
Agents for Royal Tailors.

F. C. Sherrieb purchased an $800 Ivers & Pond piano this week. The instrument, which is a fine one, arrived Wednesday. This is another evidence that farming pays in Hood river valley, and Mr. Sherrieb is deserving of his good fortune.

Mr. Plog, who has purchased Frank Chandler's place, departed Wednesday for his old home at Mapleton, Iowa, to dispose of his interests there. Mr. Plog expects to arrive in Hood River with his family about the first of the year.

J. R. Nickelsen has sold his shop and business to John Zeek from Oregon City. Mr. Zeek moved his family to Hood River last week and is occupying the Rigby cottage on Oak street. Mr. Nickelsen has been engaged in the blacksmith business here for years, and has been closely confined to his work all this time. He will now take a day off and get acquainted with the surroundings of Hood River. The consideration of the sale was $2,600.

New License.
Manufactured in Hood River by A. Whitehead. A better cigar than is obtainable elsewhere for the money.
TRY ONE.
Strawberry Plants.
I have for sale a choice lot of strawberry plants.
