E. F. Hitchcock of Portland, manager of the Viava company, was in town on business this week.

The social which was to have been given at M. H. Nickelsen's place this Friday evening, has been postponed until further notice.

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. sold the north 60 acres of John Vanthier's farm last Monday, situated at Mount Hood post office, to Harvey C. Bush of Eastern Oregon.

Alfred Ingalls went to Portland Wednesday, where he will spend a few days taking in the sights of the great metropolis.

Ernest Jensen returned this week from his trip through Eastern Washington and Idaho. He has decided to remain in Hood River for the present.

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. made sale this week of the John H. Fredenburg 40 acre place near Mount Hood, to H. C. Bush of Arlington, Oregon.

Miss Cal Booth returned Tuesday from The Dalles where she had spent Sunday. Her mother will remain there a few days longer.

A brand new breed of goats has been originated near Oregon City, judging from the following notice in the Corvair-Herald: "Taken Up—A full-blooded Nannie goat. Owner inquires of W. A. Rakel at V. Harris' grocery."

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dearborn left Wednesday for the Willamette valley, where they will visit relatives for a time before returning to their home in South Dakota. During their stay in Hood River valley they have made many friends who are sorry to see them leave.

J. P. Egan of White Salmon met with a painful accident Thursday morning. While working with a chisel he got the index finger of his right hand caught in the cog of the mill, badly crushing his finger and tearing away the nail and considerable flesh and necessitating a "rip to Hood River" to have his wound dressed by a physician.

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. made sale on Monday of 40 acres, of H. H. Tomlinson's property near Mount Hood post office, to Orval A. Knox, for the consideration of $1,000. Mr. Knox was formerly a resident of Hood River, and having since tried both Idaho and California returns to Hood River to find a permanent home.

Professor H. T. Griffith, the well-known Portland phrenologist, was in town a couple of days this week, but as his bills were not distributed before his arrival, failed to get out a crowd. He departed yesterday for The Dalles and will tour the Eastern portion of the state. The professor is an able entertainer and an expert in his line.

W. B. Cole and family returned Monday evening from a two-week's visiting and hunting trip to Camas Prairie, Washington. He reports having a good time and bagging 50 birds while out. Their little boy met with a very painful accident while there. He was riding one of the horses and fell off, dislocating his right arm. He is a grave little fellow though, and while he is obliged to carry his arm in a sling, he goes trudging along the street the same as usual, without a word of complaint.

The following-named pupils were neither tardy nor absent during the month ending October 24, 1902:

C. D. Thompson, Principal.

Crupper Croppings.

The apple crop is nearly all gathered in this part of the valley and with few exceptions yielded more than was expected when picking commenced. Some have nearly double what they expected. H. E. Blocher and family have moved to Nicolai for a while. Mr. Blocher has a contract for banking out a lot of wood for O. B. Hartley, that will keep him busy all winter in, and then he will move back to his ranch and go to clearing land for himself.

E. E. Lyons expects to start next week on a visit to friends and relatives whom he has not seen for several years. He expects to be gone a month or six weeks.

Fred and Ruby Chandler were visiting friends at Duke's Valley last Sunday.

A. C. Helms moved into his new house last Monday. He says he has lived in a tent so long he doesn't know how to act in a house any more.

Mr. Friedley took a band of horses to Sherman county last week, where they will be wintered. He expects to take more up after a while.

The Toledo Blade.
Before the close of 1902 the Toledo Blade will be installed in its new building, with a modern plant and equipment with facilities equal to any publication between New York city and Chicago. It is the only weekly newspaper edited expressly for every state and territory. The news of the world so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All news is made plain in one language by special editorial matter, written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular is proven by the fact that the Toledo Blade now has over 178,000 yearly subscribers and is circulated in all parts of the United States. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes news, local, and general news, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year. Write for free specimen copy. Address The Blade, Toledo, Ohio.

Pumpkin Pie Social.
The W. R. C. Halloween pumpkin pie social has been postponed from Oct. 31 to Nov. 8 at 12 o'clock, at which time tickets will be sold admitting the holders to dinner and supper for 10 cents. Dinner will be served from 12 to 1, and supper from 5 to 7 p. m. An interesting programme of exercises, consisting of select readings, songs and instrumental music will be given after each lunch, and after each programme there will be sold a hand-made pie, made in the kitchen of the ladies of the W. R. C. The proceeds of the sale of these pies will be given to the needy and destitute of the city.

Reading Club Meeting.
In accordance with the invitation by our wide-awake and progressive teachers, a meeting was held in the Congregational church last Friday evening to organize a reading club. After a general discussion and voicing of sentiments by those in attendance, an organization was effected. Mrs. E. C. Shaw was unanimously voted the honor of being the first president. Truman Butler was elected vice-president and Professor C. D. Thompson, secretary.

The next meeting will be held at the residence of Principal C. D. Thompson this Friday evening at 8 o'clock. This is to be known as Shakespeare evening and members are expected to give ideas about how to read Shakespeare. Definite plans will be made for future work, and if you expect to become a member of the club don't fail to attend this meeting. All are requested to come prepared to recite their favorite quotations from Shakespeare.
