BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Peerless flour at Hartley's. Fakir's festival Thanksgiving night. Feiler's Union 5c cigar at W.B. Cole's. Get Bartness' prices on shingles. Write your insurance with Friday & Barnes. No. 1 baled hay for sale at the Transfer & Livery Co. List your property with Friday & Barnes. Bottom prices on doors and windows at Bartness'. Get your material for Thanksgiving fruit cake at O.B. Hartley's. Dressed chickens, young and old, at McGuire Bros. Saturday. Flour and Feed at Spot Cash Grocery. It will pay you to get Bartness prices on building material. Doors and windows—Bartness has the most complete stock in town. Fetch Portland quotations on house furnishings to Bartness and save freight. If you want to file on timber land homesteads, call on George T. Prather, U. S. Commissioner, district of Oregon. It will pay you to get our prices before buying your winter supply of groceries. The Spot Cash Grocery. Mrs. W. D. F. Mercer and children moved from Mrs. Howe's cottage to their ranch last Saturday. Frank Noble has built a stone wall and leveled off his lot, making a great improvement in that part of Oak street. Mrs. J. B. Hunt, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is now in a fair way to recover her usual health.

L. D. Tweedy, who spent two or three months in Sherman county engaged in weighing wheat, returned home last week.

Miss Emma Bonney has returned from her homestead in Tygh valley and is again at her desk in the Commercial Co's office.

Judge and Mrs. L. Henry will in a few days take their departure for Southern California, where they expect to spend the winter.

J. L. Van Loan of the East Side is suffering from blood poisoning. He scratched his hand on an apple box and a few days later had to call on a doctor and have his hand lanced.

Foresters of America of Hood River will give the crack ball of the season, New Year's eve. They will have first-class music and supper and popular prices, especially the latter.

Wm. Stewart has commenced the foundation for his residence on State street, and if he carries the work to the completion of the structure on the same lines as he has the preparatory operations, he will surely have the finest residence in the city.

Hood River assembly United Artisans has incorporated with a capital stock of $3000. The purpose of the incorporation is to buy land, erect a hall and lease the same. The incorporators are F. C. Brosius, A. P. Batoham, D. McDonald and Fred B. Barnes.

J. E. Batson, from Northfield, Minn., is a new arrival in Hood River. He is an old acquaintance of Judge Prather. Mr. Batson has purchased the Taylor place of 40 acres on Neal creek and expects to some day make Hood River his home.

Charlie Davidson, the sage of Bellamy Gardens, has taken a homestead at Mt. Hood, half a mile east of the postoffice. He went up Sunday to view his new possession. He finds that he has 40 acres that he can put into apple orchard, and will procure a lot of Angora goats to clear the same. A fine big spring bubbles out on the upper part of his land.

Joseph Huber, who has been working at Mount Hood, went to Portland Saturday. Mr. Huber is an old soldier who seems to be in a streak of bad luck. He worked all summer clearing land on a homestead held by a Portland man. While at work, his cabin burned down and he lost his clothing and commissary stores. A survey of the land made about this time, proved that he had cleared the land, about 3 1/2 acres, on another man's claim. He then went to Portland, and the man he had been working for refused to pay him anything because the work had not been done on his claim. He then came back to Mt. Hood and worked a month for another man, clearing land and holding down his homestead. The man he worked for boarded him but failed, so Huber says, to pay him anything. The old man was given a ticket by Canby post to go to Portland. He is a pensioner at $8 a month, and served in the 1st Kentucky and 18th Ohio, in the civil war.

The Watson tract, adjoining town, will soon be put upon the market. The syndicate having it in charge, represented by J. F. Batchelder and R. R. Irwin, is only waiting now until the plats are properly filed and accepted by the common council. The Idlewild property, adjoining the Watson tract on the west is also controlled by this syndicate, and lots and blocks in this desirable locality are now in the market. The syndicate will make the streets, build the sidewalks and culverts, and have the addition lighted by electric lamps. River street will be improved to the State road and Oak street, also, will be improved so far as it does not interfere with the big springs on the place. These springs will be utilized to furnish water for the addition, and purchasers of lots will be given water free three years. Five acres and a fraction in the southwest part of the Watson tract will be reserved for a hotel and summer cottages.

A. Ad Keller of The Dalles has taken the agency for "Treasury of Knowledge," a publication of 1050 pages, edited by Trumbull White, which is one of the most meritorious recent works that have come under the observation of the writer.

The subjects are treated by well known authors and writers in a clear and concise manner, and compiled by Mr. White in a way to be comprehended by all. The book is highly illustrated, making it very attractive. It is sold at $2.75, $3.50 and $4.50, according to binding. This work should be in every library. Mr. Keller was in Hood River Tuesday and Wednesday taking orders for this work. He will canvass Hood River valley next week.

Last Friday evening Miss Mignon Abbott was given a party in honor of her twelfth birthday. Among those invited were: Misses Pearl Bracey, Anna Jackson, Alberta Jackson, Bessie Stranahan, Susie Vaughn, Ella Holmes, Mary Mooney, Florence Hanna, Eva Connell and Lulu Bird; Masters George Howe, Arthur Cumming, Clinton Mooney, Ellisworth Hanna, Johnnie Connell and Horace Stranahan. The evening was passed in games and a good time in general. At 10:30 refreshments were served, and after wishing their hostess many happy returns of the day, the guests departed.

D. McDonald of Hood River was in town on business Tuesday. He gives a very interesting account of methods in connection with the strawberry crop at Hood River. From what he says a large family, the larger the better, can make a living and save money on five acres of Hood River valley. Mr. McDonald had some 5 1/2 acres in berries himself as a side issue last summer, and after hiring everything done cleared $75 an acre. Land is high in the valley, but when profits of this nature are taken into consideration it is little wonder that a big price is asked for desirable places.—Waco News.

Uncle Oliver Bartness passed the hat and got contributions enough to light the U. S. church with electricity and place a good, strong light in the street in front of the church. Uncle Oliver gave $5 towards the good work, himself, and several others contributed $5. The street light shines for all, night, and belated pedestrians will bless Uncle Oliver as long as the light shines.

Thos. Bishop was one of the delegates to the irrigation convention at Portland, and reports a very good meeting. Mr. Bishop says that the visiting delegates were royally entertained by the city of Portland and enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Warm Suggestions

For the cold, wet fall days. You will find our Fall and Winter Goods to be very warm, congenial friends, and our prices are sure to give you that friendly feeling towards us. We have studied carefully the quality of our purchases and bought only worthy goods. We have avoided everything of doubtful quality.

Quality is First Consideration
With us, and next after QUALITY is price; but we do not sacrifice quality for price. You can always get quality goods at a good stiff price. You can always get cheap, inferior goods at a cheap price.

FROM US you can always get good, reliable goods of unquestioned quality at fair, reasonable prices that are in your favor as compared with some quality goods elsewhere. We do not claim to have the cheapest on earth, and don't want it. Neither do you.

The weather suggests and we recommend our Fall line of Heavy K-toe Hosiery,
Wool Hose, Mittens,
Wool and fleece-lined Underwear
Felt Slippers, Velvet Slippers,
Felt Boots, German Sox,
Complete line of Rubbers,
Men's Wool Hose,

Fascinators, Circular Shawls,
Wool Tams in great variety,
Heavy fleece-lined Jersey
Leggings,
Men's Gloves,
Langley Hats for men,
Overgaiters,
Ladies' Gloves sud Gaun-lets.

Millinery

SHOES in a large variety of styles, but only one quality, and that good.
Right now is just the time to order your Winter Suit built by the Royal Tailors.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoemaker arrived at Hotel Pendleton Saturday evening, from The Dalles, where they were married on the 5th instant. Mrs. Shoemaker was Miss Maude Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gilbert, prominent citizens of The Dalles, and was a favorite of the young people of that city. Mr. Shoemaker is very well known here where he lived during his boyhood days and he is receiving the congratulations of his many friends. He is general manager of the Spokane branch of the Washington life insurance company and is recognized as the most successful man in the business today. He won the prize given last year for writing the most policies of any of the company's agents. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker will remain here a few days before going to Spokane, where they will make their home.—East Oregonian.

George Knapp, bridge contractor for the Columbia Southern railroad, came down from Sherman county Monday. He reports that the rains in Sherman county have not been enough yet, to wet the ground deep enough for the plow. But there was plenty for the work of seeding, and the crop is up and looking fine. Farmers are elated over the good prices they are getting for their big crop of wheat. It is now worth 90 cents for No. 1, a man is running a chicken coop, and a good thing by following the threshers with a fanning mill and cleaning up the chaff and straw where the machines stood. He cleaned up as high as 22 sacks in one day.

Captain Flowers, member of the council of administration, G. A. R., met with the board of Portland last week to camp out. The tents will be set up in the park. May 12 was the best the captain could do for Hood River. But this date will hardly interfere with our strawberry harvest, and Hood River can turn out a full delegation.

Sherman Young, rural mail carrier, has a new vehicle in which are apartments and pigeon holes in regular post office style. The outfit cost him $150. He has a good, strong thing to haul the vehicle, and everything is in shape to give good service. It is a well-made, good-looking, allowed rural mail carrier is not sufficient for the service rendered, and as Mr. Young has gone to so much expense to accommodate the public he serves, his patrons should patronize him whenever it is in their power to do so.

Jan. F. DeBord of this city has been awarded a free tuition contract by the correspondence institute of America, Scranton, Pennsylvania. This entitles the holder to a free mail course in either illustrating, ad writing, journaling, proof reading, bookkeeping, telegraphy, practical electricity or electrical engineering. As Mr. DeBord already had one of these contracts, he will be glad to transfer the extra one to any worthy person who is interested. A golden opportunity for somebody.

Nice apples for a permanent exhibit are wanted in Portland, Hood River and other places. Those who have good crop specimens and should do so. Send to George H. Lamberson, secretary of the state board of horticulture. Hon. E. L. Smith will take charge of any specimens left with him for this permanent exhibit if he is here at the time they are brought in. At Portland they will be put in glass jars. The largest jars hold 17 good-sized apples.

L. Struck, on part of the Head place, had a fine lot of Newtown apples. He will realize about $1,000 for his apple crop on six acres, besides taking off good crops of strawberries and clover planted between the rows. The apple trees were irrigated. Irrigation on that land has proven it to be first class for Newtown apples, without irrigation it was a failure. The Davidson Fruit Co. bought the apples.

Oscar Stranahan and wife returned home from Spokane last week. They were called there two months ago by the serious illness of their son Bert, who was sick with typhoid fever. They nursed him until he was able to come home with them. Mr. Stranahan was very much taken with the city of Spokane and invested in ten lots. He thinks it a good place to invest in real estate but he doesn't go back on Hood River.

Mrs. Louise Goddard left Sunday for a visit to Portland, after which she will join Mr. Goddard in Tillamook, where the latter is engaged in teaching vocal culture, having a large class of private pupils, and also teaching in the school. Mrs. Goddard has been solicited to accept a position in the music department in Tillamook and will remain there until spring when she and Mr. Goddard will return to their home in Crapper.

Prof. W. F. Werschul of Portland formed a very interesting class in vocal music at the Congregational church on Monday. The class consists of 25 members. Professor Werschul is a very busy and successful teacher and his presence in Hood River affords the musically inclined people a rare opportunity to cultivate their talents.

Another double apple has been presented to the Glacier office. This time by Judge Henry. It is a Newtown and has one stem that divided, or split, and serves each part. The Newtown is now even with the Ben Davis.

Professor Werschul of Portland will sing a sacred solo at the Congregational church on Sunday at the 11 o'clock service entitled, "Thou art Weary."
