Hood River Glacier

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1902.

Council Proceedings.

Council met in adjourned session on Thursday evening, December 4. Present: Councilmen Blowers, McDonald, P. S. Davidson, Clarke, Rand; Recorder Nickelson.

Alderman Blowers, president of the council, presided.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A communication was received from the O. R. & N. company offering to pay the sum of $40.00 in settlement of the city's claim for damages by fire. On motion of Rand the compromise was accepted.

A petition was presented asking that a survey be made and grades established between the west line of Park street and Dr. Adams' premises. On motion of McDonald the petition was referred to the city surveyor, who is already authorized to make such surveys.

On motion of McDonald bids for construction of the city hall were ordered returned to the bidders unopened, as the council did not deem it advisable to begin the work of construction during the winter season.

The following bills were presented, allowed and ordered paid:

D. McDonald, recording deed	$1.25
The Glacier, printing ordinances, election notice and notice to contractors	3.85

The council proceeded to canvass the vote cast at the recent city election, and on motion of McDonald the following city officers were declared elected:

T. R. Coon, mayor,
G. J. Gessling, }
Ed Mayes, } aldermen,
Geo. T. Prather, }
J. R. Nickelsen, recorder,
Truman Butler, treasurer.

Adjourned.

Bone & McDonald selling at auction.

John Leland Henderson has tendered his resignation as city surveyor.

Since Holman & Son have moved their shop to the hill, East Siders are complaining that we have no harness maker down town.

Another of those popular dances will be given at Oat Eastman's house this Friday evening. Stable room will be found for horses.

Joe Purser has sold his home place at Belmont to Underwood Brothers, 22½ acres, for $5,000. Mr. Purser will continue to reside on the place until spring.

Frank Stanton has on exhibition at the Mount Hood hotel a freak of nature in the shape of an apple, half Russet and half Spitzenberg. The apple grew on a Spitzenberg tree.

Chas. Temple will have an auction sale Saturday, from 11 a. m. to 1 o'clock, and will continue every Saturday, but hereafter in the afternoon. Diamond rings, gold watches, and other high grade goods will be sold.

Jim Langille left on his annual tour to California Wednesday. He will go by easy stages, stopping to visit placer mining districts, and expects to reach San Francisco about the first of the new year. He may remain there till spring.

Bone & McDonald haven't room to display all their goods at their old stand, so they will move to the building just vacated by Clarke, the druggist, and cutting and slashing of prices will go on at both places.

McGuire Bros. have further beautified their market by laying linoleum on the floor. Their handsome meat blocks have been painted. The new improvements give the market an air of neatness that agrees with the business the firm is engaged in.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradley were surprised Monday, by the arrival from Tacoma of Mrs. M. I. Christner, a sister to Mr. Bradley, who will spend the holidays at Hood River and with other relatives at Portland and Dilley. Mrs. Christner ss accompanied by her youngest son, Master Forrest.

A man who was in arrears for subscription to the Jefferson Review failed to receive his paper one week. He had the nerve to write the editor that if it occurred again he would stop the "infernal rag." If that man had been in arrears to the Glacier four years he would be in luck. He could come in, pay up and walk off with four chances to get the buggy we are giving away.

Miss Lulu Anderson of Portland spent part of last week in Hood River, and was the guest of Miss Ethel Mooney. Miss Anderson's parents are residing in Oregon City at present, but are thinking of returning to Hood River in the spring. Mr. Anderson, who has been suffering for the greater part of a year with a lame foot, is able to be at work again.

A box of bon bons makes an acceptable Xmas gift. Coe & Son keep the best. Everything you need for the holidays at the Golden Rule Bazaar; and its always the best.

Mrs. C. Rathburn lost a valuable curio last Sunday night. In company with her husband she returned from Portland on the midnight train. On the way from the depot she lost a small tusk with two gold bands. The value of the tusk to her is considerable as it was brought from the Philippines by her husband, who served in the Second Oregon. There were two wild boar tusks, fastened together with gold bands, and made a very pretty pin. The finder will be rewarded by leaving the tusk with C. Rathbun or at the Glacier office.

Slawson & Stanton report that sales of fruit trees from their nurseries have been good during the past season. They have sold a great many trees to fill the big demand for all kinds of fruit trees. They still have in stock a big variety of choice trees. The demand for Spitzenberg and Newtown trees this fall has been unprecedented. Next year this nursery will put in a big stock of these popular varieties; enough to supply any number that may be called for. Any persons who want the new varieties of apple trees that are talked about would do well to leave their order with Slawson & Stanton and they can propagate them.

H. S. Richmond and wife of Mount Hood are visiting in Portland. Mr. Richmond last August read of a man from Mexico being in Portland wanting to buy apples for the market in Mexico. He wrote to him and sent him three boxes of Newtown apples of the previous year's growth. The man was so well pleased with the samples sent him that he became a regular customer ever since. Mr. Richmond makes a shipment of two boxes every week to this man in Mexico. The express charges cost $14 a box, and Mr. Richmond gets $2 a box. Apples grown in the Mount Hood neighborhood are long keepers. Baldwins will keep there nearly a year.

Don't forget the Unitarian sale. Christmas presents a specialty—and be sure and bring your family and eat your lunch and supper with us. Baked beans, brown bread, coffee, mince and pumpkin pies, good cold meats—and no one shall go away hungry. Home made candies for sale, and orders taken for boxes of candy for Christmas. The rummage counter will be an attraction where all kinds of articles will go at your own price—the fancy and useful articles are in the best of taste and there is absolutely no trash. Come and see for yourselves. Lunch from 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. Supper from 4 to 8 p. m. All to be found in the room two doors north of McGuire's meat market, Saturday, December 13.

The old and well-known firm of Bone & McDonald, doing business in Hood River for years, has decided to quit business. All of the general merchandise stock of the firm is advertised for sale at record breaking prices. The firm finds it costs money to pay rent and pay clerks while they are selling out, and have decided to make quick sales by offering goods at prices known by the general customer to be way down. They want to go out of business, and the sooner they can get out the better they will be suited. The firm has rented the store building formerly occupied by Clarke's drug store, in which they will have part of their goods for sale, and where they can make better display than at their over-crowded store room at their old stand.

C. H. Stranahan started East Wednesday over the O. R. & N. He goes in the interest of immigration and other matters in the employ of the O. R. & N. Mr. Stranahan is an old resident of Oregon and the Northwest, is a rustler, and will do good service for the country and the company he represents. It is Hood River's good fortune also to have a Hood River man on the road in the interest of immigration. Mr. Stranahan will go as far as Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas, and will be gone about two months.

O. Fredenburg, the mail carrier to Mount Hood, corrects the report in last week's Glacier that there was eight inches of snow at Mount Hood. He says at no time has there been more than three inches on the ground. Monday morning last, there was about three inches on the ground. According to this statement, Mount Hood has had no more snow so far this season than the lower part of the valley.

The streets of Hood River are a fright. Mud is about six inches deep throughout the principal streets. These muddy streets are due to prosperity. When we didn't have more than one team on an average pass up and down our streets in a day, we had good streets and didn't even need sidewalks. When the rains ceased the streets were solid and good. The only way to get relief is for the city fathers to order the streets graded and graveled and let the property pay for it.

The Hood River Boom and Transportation company held their regular annual meeting December 9 and elected C. R. Bell, George T. Prather, P. S. Davidson, George P. Crowell and J. E. Rand as a board of directors. The secretary and treasurer's report showed the company to be in a flourishing condition. The company has over 300 acres of land, a dam that cost $6,000, and the big boom at the mouth of Hood river.

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. sold on Wednesday of this week, the north (80) eighty acres of Geo. P. Perkins' farm about two miles south of Mount Hood post office, to Richard Becker and John Hollowell, the former of Portland and the latter of Hood River. Consideration $1,400. Messrs. Becker & Hollowell will begin very soon to open up this land and plant it to fruit.

It pays to advertise. The little error made by the Glacier make-up man under the head of born in last week's issue was pointed out to the editor by about 1700 constant readers. The pointers even came by mail. One correspondent suggests the compositor might make fat by keeping the type a sufficient length of time.

Fred Coe has returned to his first love and gone back to work in the store again. After January 15 the store of Geo. F. Coe & Son will be found in the annex to the Masonic building, opposite the post office, where their many customers will receive the same courteous treatment as at their old stand.

The Electric Light Co. held its annual meeting Tuesday. N. C. Evans, J. H. Ferguson, Ralph Savage, A. A. Jayne and D. McDonald were elected directors. The secretary's report showed that $33,587.92 in cash has been expended by the company since its organization two years ago.

Amos Underwood, the old Indian war veteran, celebrated his 68th birthday Wednesday. Mr. Underwood was a volunteer in the Indian war of '56 and saw hard service. May he live to celebrate many more anniversaries of his birth, is the wish of his many friends.

Miss Laura Hill's school at Mount Hood closed Friday, December 5. The directors were so well pleased with her success as teacher that they extended her time and gave her another month of teaching. This is Miss Hill's first term as teacher.

Lee Tong, an enterprising Chinaman from The Dalles, bought the Model restaurant, corner Second and Oak, Thursday, and will take possession Saturday. Mr. Tong will continue the business at that favored location.

Chas. N. Clarke, the druggist, has moved his store into the Masonic building, opposite the post office, where he will be pleased to see all of his customers and any one else in need of anything in his line.

Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen had a fine display of ladies' needlework for sale at Jackson's store Wednesday. The proceeds of the sale will go to improving the parsonage of the Belmont church.

J. T. Washer of Barnard, Kansas, an old neighbor of the Morse Brothers in Kansas, is here on a visit. Mr. Washer is a veteran of the civil war, having served in the 39th Wisconsin.

All orders left at McGuire Bros'. for dressed turkeys for Christmas, up to December 21, get a chance to draw a turkey for New Year's. They will give away a turkey to the lucky purchaser.

Advertisers often ask us to put their ads in a prominent place where all can see it. If they would put them under the "born" head, all would see them.

Tomorrow, Saturday, is the regular meeting day of Canby post G. A. R. and W. R. C. A full attendance is desired, as election of officers will take place.

D. S. Crapper went to Portland Monday, where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. M. A. Hackett. The health of the old gentleman is much improved.

Crokonole, combinola and archarena boards at Coe's.

St. Mark's guild will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Savage, at 2 o'clock.

Dolls, candy, toys, vases, at the Golden Rule Bazaar.

James DeBord made a short business trip to Portland the first of this week.

Rev. Lake will preach at A. O. U. W. hall next Sunday, at 7:30 p. m.

A Million Voices

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Hall, of West Point, Ia. Listen why: A severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most obstinate cough. Several physicians said he had consumption, but could not help him. When all thought he was doomed he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and writes—"it completely cured me and saved my life. I now weigh 227 lbs." It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Chas. N. Clarke's.

Strayed—A small black and white spotted cow, white spot in forehead and lower half of tail white; no brands. Has a dark colored heifer calf 5 months old. No white on calf. Reward at Glacier office for their recovery.

Estray Notice.

I have taken up at my home near Mt. Hood, Ore., the following described cattle, and owner can have same by paying for their care and this notice: 1 yellow and white spotted cow about 8 years old, marked crop each ear and branded ML on right hip; 2 young calves, red, same mark; 1 red cow about 3 years old marked crop right ear and underbit left, wearing bell and has calf. Apply to GEO. PERKINS.
