We will issue rebate checks, just the same as before, through this clearance sale, and we gladly redeem them in our beautiful porcelain dishes or any article in the store. Extra help secured so will be waited on promptly.

Every reasonable inducement to open your pocket book. Remember we can't put it all out at once, but every line will be put on sale some time during the next 60 days, so watch our ads. It's money in your pocket.

Yours truly,

FRANK A. CRAM.

WE WISH YOU A

Happy New Year

And 365 days of prosperity in 1903.

We will continue to put out the best goods for the money and start with a

CLEARANCE SALE.

We have been "taking stock" the past week and find that while we have been handing out goods in big bunches, we have some broken lines that must be closed out. You need not bring all your money; prices are so low that you can leave most of your money on the "plane."

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Mrs. M. A. Cook has published an artistic booklet entitled "Idyllic," a beautiful poem descriptive of the scenic attractions of Hood River. The dedication reads: "Dedicated to loved ones and friends, as a souvenir of my Hood River home, where rolls the Oregon—May Dinsmore Cook." The poem consists of 15 eight-line stanzas, and the prevailing foot is dactyle. The poetic idea is a beautiful conception of the far-famed Hood River valley as viewed by the eye of an artist. The booklet is illustrated with well-known views of Mount Hood, Lost Lake and points on Hood river. The press work is that of E. R. Bradley, the Hood River job printer.

Messrs. Snow & Upson, blacksmiths, are opening a shop on River street, where they expect to be doing business in about a week. They will also do all kinds of wagon repairing. Mr. Snow comes from Portland and Mr. Upson from Lyle, Washington.

S. C. Zeigler left on Saturday for a trip to Pennsylvania. He took two boxes of White Salmon apples to let the Pennsylvanians see how much we can beat them growing this fruit. Mr. Zeigler will also visit in New Jersey and other parts before returning.

Bradley, the job printer, made himself a holiday present of a full series of the latest design in Engravers Old English, a most beautiful set of type, and so late in the season that all the fonts have not been issued by the foundry. Mr. Bradley is always up to date.

The Glacier is in receipt of the Christmas number of the Opinion, published by the senior and junior classes of the Peoria (Ill.) high school, of which Edward E. Head is editor in chief. The Opinion is a very creditable publication.

The Knights of Pythias dramatic club will give a series of entertainments in their new opera house. They are hard at work on the first of the series which will be placed on the boards in the near future.

O. B. Evinger won the buggy that was raffled off by N. W. Bone Christmas day. He sold the buggy to J. E. Rand for $100. Mr. Evinger paid $120 for his chance and $5 to rent the crowd to cigars.

Chas. N. Clarke of the Glacier pharmacy has just received a very happy and prosperous New Year. Call on him in his new store in the Masonic building opposite the post office.

Frank Noble and family went to Beaverton Friday, where they were called by the serious illness of Mr. and Mrs. David Purser. Mr. Purser is a brother to Mrs. Noble.

Now is the time to square up your old bills and start in a new year with a clean new set. See Slocum's line of blank books before buying elsewhere.

The wiring of the new opera house has been completed and will be attached to the Electric Light company's wires very soon.

The failure of the electric light one night last week was caused by a snow slide that knocked down the flume at the power house.

G. R. Castner and wife were called to La Grande on Saturday by the serious illness of their son, Mrs. J. B. Castner.

Mrs. G. D. Woodworth and son Guy are at Pasadena, California, where Guy is being treated at a sanitarium and doing well.

On and after January 1, 1903, the office of the Electric Light company will be at Jensen's old confectionery stand. 21.

Robert Parrott, son of A. C. Parrott, arrived from Minnesota last week. He expects to make Hood River his home.

The holidays are over, but Slocum will continue to carry all the new books, the latest thing in stationery, etc.

G. D. Woodworth has disposed of his Hereford bull. It was a fine animal and he regretted to part with it.

Lost—An express package addressed to Miss Nellie Clark. Finder will please leave it with Miss Nellie Clark.

Mrs. Clyde T. Bonney and two children of Brooks, Oregon, are spending the holidays in Hood River.

The Degree of Honor will install officers Saturday evening, January 3. A full attendance is desired.

Frank Chandler has purchased the Charles B. Prather place, east of town, from J. L. Henderson.

Miss Marian Sabin of Portland is the guest of Misses Lulu and Helen Absten during the holidays.

Tom Wickens is spending the holidays in Portland and may visit Puget sound before his return.

T. H. Clark went to Portland to spend the holidays with his daughter Mrs. A. E. Bevans.

Furs, men's sweaters and odd lines of men's underwear sale at Frank A. Cram's.

St. Mark's guild will meet Wednesday next at Mrs. Charles N. Clarke's.

Outing flannel gowns and muslin underwear sale at Frank A. Cram's.

Cloaks, capes and men's and boys' overcoat sale at Frank A. Cram's.

Ira Small, who is attending college in Portland is home for the holidays.

Rev. J. L. Hersher will preach at Pine Grove on Sunday at 3 p. m.

Wm. Jackson of Moro is here for the holidays.

Married.

In Hood River, December 31, 1902, Joseph W. Mayes and Miss Myrtle Mae Horner, Mr. Mayes is well and favorably known as a member of the Hood River Commercial company. The Glacier joins in congratulations.

At the home of the bride's parents, in Hood River valley, Christmas day, 1902, I. A. Macrum and Miss Pearl Diabrow, Rev. J. W. Jenkins officiating. The immediate relatives of the bride were present. All enjoyed the happy occasion, and the best wishes of their many friends go with the young couple to their new home at Mount Hood.

Died.

Mrs. Nora De Pree, oldest daughter of Mrs. J. C. Markley, died of consumption, December 30, 1902, aged 35 years. Deceased was a widow and leaves five destitute children, the youngest five years old. Mrs. De Pree came here from California last summer, hoping to regain her health.

Election of Officers.

The following officers were elected by Hood River lodge No. 342, Order of Washington, to serve the first half of 1903. The election of officers took place after the initiation of 11 new members and receiving five backsliders into fellowship Saturday night last. Pretty good business for one evening and indicates the order of Washington is in a good, thrifty condition.

Past President, Mrs. D. N. Byerlee. President, C. L. Copley. Vice President, E. L. Road. Secretary, E. Hanna.

Treasurer, Ed Mayes. Medical examiners, Drs. J. F. Watt and H. L. Dumble.

Chaplain, Miss Laura Metcalf. Escort, H. A. Tawney. Assistant Escort, Perry Belien. Guard, J. F. Reynolds.

Sentinel, H. E. Macomber. Musician, Mrs. W. D. Rogers.
