THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cochran returned last Saturday from an extended trip to Iowa and California. They left here October 11, stopped a couple of weeks in Grande Ronde valley, then went to Iowa, visiting different parts of the state, and December 20 left Iowa for California, where they visited a son at Camp Angel. Mr. Cochran says he suffered more from cold in California than he did in Iowa. In California people have no heating stoves, and when the cool, damp weather comes they shiver without fire. In Iowa, same as in Hood River, people prepare for cold weather.

G. J. Gessling had his head in a sling when he took his seat in the council meeting Monday night as the new member from the third ward. It was feared by some of his friends that he had met the enemy and come out second best, while others wondered how the other fellow looked. But it seems that he undertook to cut his hair with an ax. He was chopping wood, when the ax came in contact with a limb overhead and in rebounding the ax struck Mr. Gessling on the head, making a scalp wound that might have been serious but only caused the loss of a little superfluous blood.

Order of Washington.—All members please note that the installation of officers which was postponed from January 10, will take place next Saturday, January 24. Supreme Secretary Mitchell and perhaps others will be present to conduct the ceremonies. After the installation, fresh oysters will be served at the meeting of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. J. E. Rand and Miss Anne Smith gave a delightful party last Thursday evening at Artisan hall, in honor of Miss Virginia Marden of The Dalles. Twenty couple of Hood River's elite society were present to do honor to the occasion, and a delightful evening was spent at progressive cards and tripping the light fantastic. Miss Marden returned to her home Friday, carrying with her the good wishes of her many friends in Hood River.

Milton Penley, the milkman, drove up to Rivers' Monday evening, and left his horse without tying. Later when he wanted to start home, old Baldy and the wagon were gone. Up to Tuesday morning he had failed to find old Baldy or the wagon. He finally found him tied up on a back street.

Articles of incorporation of the Hood River Apple Juice Company were filed with the county clerk by Martin Luther Pipes, W. E. Potter and George W. Bates, who intend to manufacture cider and vinegar, buy and sell fruit, etc. Their principal place of business will be Hood River and the capital stock $10,000, divided into 100 shares.

E. D. Calkins returned from his trip to Idaho last week. He reports everybody prosperous in Idaho. He held $300 worth of work at Boise upon the advice of a physician, who advised him to take a rest. Mr. Calkins had received a sprain on his right side, which incapacitated him for work for awhile.

Charles Plog and family arrived Thursday from Mapleton, Iowa, and have taken charge of their new home. Mr. Plog bought the Frank Chandler farm, 3 1/2 miles south of town. He is well pleased with his purchase, and will be happy to be the owner of the best place in the valley.

Miss Laura Hill's school at Mount Hood closed Tuesday last week. Miss Hill gave such good satisfaction in her school work that she was complimented by all patrons. She has been secured to teach next term, beginning March 2. She left last week for a visit with her folks at Corvallis.

Miss Otis Walker is the new operator at the telephone central office. The office now has four girls employed—two on duty from 8 to 10 in daytime. Twenty-five new phones have been put in or will be put in by the first of the month, at the dollar rate for residences.

The Lost Lake Lumber Co. is anxiously awaiting a rise in the Columbia river to start the saws a buzzing at their mill. They have about two million feet of logs ready to cut into lumber, and are a little restless because they can't get at them.

Mrs. Kinsey and her music pupils entertained a large number of their friends at her home last Friday evening. The class acquired themselves most creditably, and all present agreed that it was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

The county commissioners, who are not in favor of the special road tax talked of, Road taxes remain the same as formerly, and you can either work out your road tax or pay the cash.

The patrons of McGuire Bros. who bought a turkey for Christmas, were given a chance to win one for New Year's. Mrs. H. R. Lewis held the lucky number and had turkey again for New Year's.

Walter McGuire bought M. A. Cook's vacant lot on River street and will put up a dwelling house as soon as he can get the lumber. He is having the lot filled in. The price paid was $300.

Joseph A. Wilson is agent for Tutthill Water Wheels and Motors. They are the best jet wheel made. Blythe and Bradley have 'em.

Edwin A. Soule of Ilwaco, Wash., was in town last week. Mr. Soule is a contractor and builder. He thinks that he would like a change of climate for the reason that they have too much rain in Ilwaco, and he may come here to live in the spring. At present he is in the employ of the government at Ilwaco.

Newton Clark has had his farm surveyed and platted to be sold in small sections to suit purchasers, reserving only a tract about the house for his own use. This is a very desirable real estate and will give homeseekers a chance to secure homes in a desirable part of the valley. The land is about four miles from town. Friday & Barnes of Hood River have the agency for its sale.

Obituary.

William S. Dicken died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Koplin, in Hood River valley, on Sunday, January 18, aged 46 years, 9 months and 18 days. Deceased was born near Cumberland, Westmoreland county, Pa., on March 29, 1856. Early in life he moved to Syracuse, Nebraska, where for a number of years he was engaged in mercantile business. His health failing he disposed of his business and came to Hood River, hoping that a change of climate would be beneficial, but no improvement came to his health. Although Mr. Dicken was a resident of Hood River for only about one year, yet he became well known as a man of sterling worth and noble, upright character.

Deceased leaves a wife, a son and daughter to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and a dutiful parent. The funeral services were in charge of Edwilde Lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 107, Rev. J. L. Horstner making the address at the house, with interment at Edwilde cemetery. Mr. Dicken was a member of Syracuse Lodge I. O. O. F. No. 51, at Syracuse, Neb.

Government Land.

I can locate homeseekers on government land—good fruit land, with springs, some with water to irrigate, easily cleared, 12 to 25 acres for sale, near county road, 12 miles from E. C. MILLER, Hood River, Or.

Dressmaking.

I have opened dressmaking parlors on the hill, opposite Churchland Bros' store. Prices reasonable and work guaranteed. MRS. E. J. MARTIN.
