The residence of Charles Chandler, three-quarters of a mile north of the Crupper school house, was destroyed by fire at 11 o'clock Monday, the building together with its contents being consumed by the devouring flames. The loss was seven or eight hundred dollars, partly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been in a defective flue. The loss of his home will be distressing news to Mr. Chandler, who is now in Texas.
A. S. Hudson, a carpenter in the employ of the Oregon Lumber company

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Do not forget the Friday afternoon Kensington at the home of Mrs. Early on State street. These social gatherings are much enjoyed by all of the participants and this one promises to be as much of a treat as any in the past. A short musical will be given at 3:30; lunch served at 4. Piano duet—"Whisperings of Love," Miss Blowers, Miss Ing-breten; recitation, selected, Raymond Early; piano duet, "Martha," Fred Byer, op. 112, Miss Hartley, Miss Mosley; trio, mandolins and guitar, Mrs.
Reese, Miss Ingbreten, Mrs. Knapp.
The ladies of the other societies are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. FLORA HARTLEY, President.

Peter Mohr came to town the other day and purchased a new hat. The hat was wrapped up in a neat package, and later Mr. Mohr sauntered into the store of the Commercial Co., laid his new hat upon a counter, and went out to look after some business before going home.
One of the clerks at this busy store was packing goods for shipment to Tygh valley, and as the new hat was laid by the side of the goods intended for shipment, it was boxed up with them. When Mr.
Mohr called for his hat it could not be found. And now he wears the old hat while he awaits its return from Tygh.

Interested persons are circulating a road petition for a county road, to be presented to the next term of the county court. As the petition sets forth, the road will begin at the northeast corner of the northwest quarter of section 24, township 2, north range 10 east, Willamette meridian, running thence south 80 rods; thence west 80 rods; thence south one mile and a quarter, following the section lines between sections 23 and 24, and 25 and 26 to a point in the center of, and connecting with, county road at or near a gate on the farm of Mrs.
Anna Lenz.

The K. of P. dramatic club, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, will produce for the first time in this city, the beautiful sensational melodrama entitled "The Old Dairy Homestead." The play is full of strong and pathetic situations with a light vein of comedy to keep up the interest and amuse the old as well as young. The play will be produced Thursday evening, February 19, at K. of P. hall. A good patronage will be assured the good cause—a good play and small admission, guarantees a large attendance.

Rev. U. S. Drake and family of White Salmon left, last week, for Altona, Pa., where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Drake was the White Salmon correspondent of the Glacier. His weekly batch of items were always acceptable, and will be missed in the Glacier office as well as by our readers.
May good fortune attend him and his family in the Keystone state.

The Davidson Fruit company is sending out its annual calendar to friends and patrons throughout the valley. The design is the portrait of a handsome young lady, and was no doubt the selection of the general secretary of the company, whose tastes in matters of this kind can always be relied upon. The Glacier man acknowledges the receipt of one of the beautiful calendars.

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. sold last Saturday the Jacob C. Huff farm of 150 acres, about 7 miles from Kilkibit on White Salmon river in Clatsop county, Washington, to Christian Mick-elson of Hood River. Mr. Mickelson but recently sold his East Side property to fruit inspector Webber, and will move on his Washington place at once.

Postmaster Yates received a letter from Congressman Moody, Tuesday, stating that rural mail route No. 2 for Hood River will start March 2. The mail carrier for this new route has not yet been appointed. His appointment will come from the superintendent at San Francisco and may be expected to be heard from now at any time.

The ground hog saw his shadow if he came out of his winter quarters Monday. So, according to the old saying, we will have six weeks more of winter.
The ground hog would be very foolish, anyhow, to stow out of winter quarters when there is two feet of beautiful snow on the ground.

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. sold the Levi Tyler strawberry tract, containing 9 1/2 acres, situated about one and a quarter miles from Hood River and adjoining the Mrs. Howe place on the west, to local parties this week.

Frank Gregory is confined to his home with a mild form of smallpox. His recovery is being quarantined as a precaution against the spread of the disease.

Mrs. S. A. Knapp received second cash prize for an article contributed to the Western Milliner, a leading millinery magazine of Chicago.

The Hood River box factory started up during the week. In less than 60 days our fruit growers will be hauling out strawberry crates.

Choice residential lots in the popular Coe's addition to Hood River, for sale on easy terms by Geo. D. Culbertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoemaker of Pendleton were visiting in Hood River last week.

No. 1 timothy hay for sale at the Spot Cash Grocery.

Pure White Flour at Hartley's.
Minced ham at Hartley's.

The spacious parlors of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler were well filled last Friday afternoon by members and friends of the Congregational aid society, the occasion being the regular monthly tea. An excellent programme of musical and literary exercises was presented, and refreshments were served consisting of brown bread, Boston baked beans and coffee.

J. T. Holman will move his harness shop today to the Band building, in the store room formerly occupied by the Denver Clothing Store. Mr. Holman finds he needs more room, and for this reason he is making the change. Riggs, the shoemaker, will also move to the same place.

Rev. Glover, the state Episcopal missionary, will hold service in the A. O.
U. W. hall at 7:30 Sunday evening.

St. Mark's guild will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. Judge Henderson.

House to Let—A four-room cottage, furnished. Apply to Mrs. Alma Howe.

Obituary.

John Monroe, an old and highly respected resident of Hood River valley, died at his late residence, near Idlewild cemetery, on Monday, February 2, 1903, aged 87 years, 4 months and 8 days.
He was born at Zanesville, Ohio, September 27, 1815. In 1856 he moved to the state of Iowa, where he resided until 1877, when he went to California and lived there two years.
In 1879 Mr. Monroe came to Hood River and resided here until his death.
His death was due to old age.

Deceased was an upright citizen, a kind neighbor, and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. He was the father of twelve children, six sons and six daughters, six of whom survive him—Warren of Eureka, Cal., John W. of Walla Walla, and Levi of Clarkston, Wash.; Mrs. Leah Geese of Cheyenne, Wyoming; Mrs. Jane Dana of Eagle Grove, Iowa; Mrs. Amanda Moffett of Oklahoma. At the request of deceased, his funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. L. Hershner, on Wednesday, at the M. E. chapel, Pine Grove, followed by burial in Pine Grove cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

The relatives of the late John Monroe desire to express their thanks to the good people, neighbors and friends, who showed their kindness in helping to care for Mr. Monroe in his last days. They were friends indeed.

Three-year-old Julia wanted to write to Santa Claus to bring her a "shoot gun." When asked what she wanted for she said: "I want to shoot one of papa's cattle and get the money out of it, for papa says there is money in cattle."—The Little Chronicle.

Mrs. Von Blumer—What sort of a hostess does Mrs. Caterly make? Von Blumer—Splendid. She made me feel as if I wasn't at home."—Life.

REMNANTS.

This week we will close out all remnants at half prices. Don't miss this, as there are some good values.

Our new goods will soon arrive, when we will show you many new novelty weaves. Last season it was stated that mercerized fabrics had reached perfection, and that it would not be possible to further improve them; but they are better than the 1902 showing.

Shoes.

We are talking of our new Shoes. Styles are a little newer, quality a little nicer, workmanship a little better than any $3.50 shoes we ever had before, and we are told they are a little nicer than any other $3.50 shoes you are likely to find. At any rate, they are worn by the best dressed people.

Saturday night is the close of our Clearance Sale. If you wish to save money don't miss these last two days. For these days we will make you a special price on all our Underwear. SEE OUR WINDOW.
