

Hood River Glacier

THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1903.

This week's Glacier contains a most interesting article by H. C. Coe on the history of Hood River 50 years ago. The story is too long for completion in one issue and will be continued next week. This will be a valuable paper to keep. Extra copies have been printed and they may be obtained at this office for 5 cents each. Hood River today and Hood River (or Dog River, as it was then called) 50 years ago presents indeed a strange contrast. With all the modern conveniences of rural telephones, free rural mail delivery, electric lights, enterprising merchants, large orchards and strawberry plantations, six daily passenger trains, and with the valley filled with prosperous fruit growers, we of today can little realize that 50 years ago the valley was still the hunting grounds of the Indians, and lives were yet to be sacrificed that the present prosperity should be ours. Fifty years ago it was a two-days' journey to Portland; now the distance is made by train in a little over two hours. Mails were few and far between; now we converse with our city friends by telephone, and receive the daily papers the same day they are printed.

Hon. W. R. Dunbar, register of the United States land office at Vancouver, Wash., died in that city, March 29, 1903, aged 64 years. Judge Dunbar was a school teacher in early life. He was the first man to enlist in the Oregon cavalry during the civil war, was state lecturer for the Good Templars for several years, was a past grand master in Odd Fellowship, and in 1879 moved to Goldendale, Wash., where for years he was United States commissioner. He was appointed register of the land office by President McKinley, and was reappointed for another term by President Roosevelt in 1902. In all official positions he was a true servant of the people. He was an honest man, honored among men, and died comparatively poor.

Crupper Croppings.
Strawberry hoeing commenced in this part of the valley the fore part of last week. Some are putting in more berries. A. W. King is getting ground in shape to set out about four acres more of strawberries.

Mrs. P. Marsh started last Monday, for Abilene, Kansas, her former home. She goes with the intention of staying. Mr. Marsh will follow in the fall, provided he sells his place by that time.

Charley Waite, who has been working for H. E. Blocher this winter, started for Idaho last Friday, where he has a job awaiting him in a saw mill.

J. H. Shoemaker was quite severely injured last week by being thrown from his wagon while on the road to town. The single-tree became unbalanced, and letting the wagon tongue drop, the horses became frightened and ran into some rocks. One of the horses was so badly crippled that it could not be taken home. Mr. Shoemaker is able to be up and around but says it was a close call.

The parties that were in this neighborhood shooting grouse, last week, had better take warning and stay away with their guns and dogs. They are being watched, and if caught with any birds, it is liable to go pretty hard with them.

A party was given at the house of John Phillips last Saturday night. It was quite well attended, and all report a good time.

There will be a dance and supper at Blocher's hall Friday night, April 3. All invited to come and have a good time.

Moster Items.
Mosier, March 29.—John Coyle, who met with a serious accident, a few days since, is again at work.

Frank Hunter went to Portland Monday to remain indefinitely.

Mrs. A. Gooden and daughter Christine returned from the Dalles Friday, after having visited relatives in that city.

The Mosier base ball team defeated the Hog Canyon team Saturday afternoon at a match game.

F. M. Baker was in our town this week, soliciting for The Dalles nursery.

Eva Van Nortwick spent Wednesday night at home, returning to the Dalles on Thursday.

Mrs. Ben Eben has returned, after a two-weeks' stay in Portland. Mr. Eben remained in Portland to have his eyes treated by a specialist.

Ed Davidson is again one of our residents. He has been for the past year at Seattle and has decided that "there is no place like home."

John Davenport spent Friday in the Dalles, where he was called on important business.

J. Findley of Cedar Mills, Washington county, was a transient visitor in our town last week. Mr. Findley is interested in property at this place.

F. W. Wilson of The Dalles purchased 20 acres of land from C. W. Wynn last week. Fred is fast becoming a noted real estate owner at Mosier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carroll returned from Portland Wednesday, bringing home their son Charles, who is much improved in health.

Miss Lucille Crane and Ada Meloy of The Dalles are visiting Miss Loretta Dunmore at Hog Canyon.

P. Hemmingsworth, son of Walter, is sojourning this week in Portland.

Del Rand of Hood River was in our city Monday.

Mrs. V. C. Young returned from The Dalles Friday.

School district No. 32 is now possessor of a new bell, and its ding clangs can be heard far and near.

The gentle equinoctial shower of Monday was appreciated by all.

Beyond All Comparisons.
One of the many factors contributing to the remarkably rapid and solid growth of St. Louis is the marvelous development of the Southwest and other territory tributary to that city in all lines of trade. In 1904 there will be held the greatest World's fair in the world. The presidential campaign will also take place. To keep informed with the whole world you should subscribe for that peer of newspapers, the Times-Week St. Louis Republic. It is indispensable to the farmer, merchant, and professional man. Its telegraphic and cable service excels that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; no imaginative occurrences, but domestic and worldwide facts. It is democratic in politics, but distinctly a national newspaper and family journal. The subscription price of $1 gives you two papers each week, 104 papers a year.

The firm of Friday & Barnes, who have been doing a good business selling real estate, has been dissolved by mutual consent. While Mr. Friday will continue in the real estate business, he will devote more time to his fruit yard. He is now setting apple trees, and will have 55 acres in apple orchard. Mr. Barnes is having an office room fitted up in the Model restaurant building, to front on Oak street, and will go it alone in the real estate business. Mr. Barnes is a roaster and will make his share of sales.

Summons.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Wasco.
Joseph A. Knox, plaintiff, vs. Katarah D. Joseph, defendant, the above named.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 21st day of April, 1903, and if you fail to answer, the plaintiff above named will take the case by default, and the court will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint on his behalf, to-wit: That the bonds of matrimony now existing between you and the plaintiff herein be dissolved forever and annulled, and for general relief.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof once a week for six consecutive weeks, and for seven consecutive publications, in the Hood River Glacier, a newspaper of general circulation, designated as the most likely to give you notice, published in the county of Wasco, Oregon, and the date of the first publication of said summons and this notice is April 2, 1903.

ONLY EYE TESTER.

I wish to let the people of Hood River know that I have the only Eye Tester on the Columbia River between the Dalles and Portland. Come to me if you need spectacles, and have your eyes tested so that you can be suited in glasses. If your eyes are not both the same, it is sometimes necessary to have lenses ground, cylindrical and spherical. I have all my lenses ground by the very best optical company in America. They never fail to give satisfaction. And I can sell them for less than half what you would pay in Portland, as my expenses are small. I have a way of fixing rimless lenses that is a secret, by which they are not easily broken. For compound astigmatism no one can be suited with lenses unless their eyes are treated by a regular eye-testing instrument, same as I have in my store.
