

FRANK A. CRAM,

ALWAYS UP TO DATE, THE MAKER OF LOW PRICES.

NEW SPRING CLOTHING STOCK

Men's Suits of the bright new stylish effects so much affected by the best tailors in the land. Our clothes FIT, whether a $6 suit or a $25 suit.

A revelation is in store for seekers of clothing. Our prices are 10 per cent lower than Portland, and quality, we stand behind in material and construction.

Men's Furnishings, Shoes, Neckwear, Underwear, Hosiery, Hats, Gloves, etc., all of the high class, which warrants our assertion that there is "NONE BETTER MADE."

Our Boys' Clothes are made just as carefully as our men's goods, and whether you are looking for Sailor Blouses, Norfolk Juniors, 3 pieces, little men's or what not, we show them in strictly first class goods, ranging in price from 75c to $7.50, and a 20th century

Air Ship is given absolutely free with each suit. We run our Boys' Clothes department to please the young folks, and the fact that we have reordered another gross of air ships is evidence to us that our efforts are appreciated.

Special Offerings for Week Commencing Friday, May 1, 1903.
Ladies' fancy Hosiery, 25c and 50c quality, at half price. We have 75 Wrappers left, from 88c to $1.95, the remainder to close at 50c each. Lace Curtain sale will be continued one week longer owing to numerous requests from our country friends who could not avail themselves of our offer of last week.

Yours Truly, FRANK A. CRAM.

F. O. Brace expects to have the repairs to the East Side grade completed and the road open for travel, Saturday. Mr. Brace and a force of from 5 to 15 men have been working on this difficult piece of road for 30 days, and about $900 has been expended for the work. Half of this amount was appropriated by the county court, the remainder being supplied by cash subscriptions from the enterprising farmers of the East Side.
This grade is now from 7 to 10 feet wide for the whole distance, and teams can pass at almost any point. A rallying will be placed along the most dangerous parts of the road.
A. Whitehead will shortly open a short-order restaurant and lunch counter in the Brosius building, corner of Second and Bank. A commodious dining room has been added to the building facing Second street, and the other rooms have been remodeled and renovated. Jim Hunt doing a very neat job of paper hanging and painting. Mr. Whitehead purchased the outfit of the Model restaurant and will run a strictly first-class eating house. With the strawberry season at hand Mr. Whitehead should have a very successful business.
Sunday, April 23, 1903, marked the 84th anniversary of American Old Fellowship. Monday night Idlewild lodge No. 107, L. O. O. F., held a special meeting in compliance with a proclamation issued by the supreme lodge of Odd Fellows, and also the grand lodge of Oregon, that the occasion be observed with thanksgiving unto God for the blessings of the order. A banquet was spread and short speeches made by J. E. Hanna and others.
L. E. Clark, who purchased the Levi Monroe place on the East Side a couple of years ago, set out 450 winter apple trees this spring, mostly of the Yellow Newtown and Spitzenburg varieties. Mr. Clark took charge of his place about a year ago, and is well pleased with Hood River. He was in the retail lumber business in Sherman county for 15 years, four of which he spent at Wasco.
N. P. Anderson of Portland came up Saturday and went out to his ranch in Dukes valley, where he found his place in good shape. Monday he went over to White Salmon, where he has a homestead. Mr. Anderson is in the brewery business in Portland and is one of the proprietors of the Portland Weiss Beer brewery. He is doing a good business.
G. J. Smithlein of Woodville, Jackson county, who is a member of the United States jury in Portland, was in Hood River over Sunday on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Sherrill. Mr. Smithlein was formerly a member of the Oregon legislature from Jackson county, and is an extensive stock raiser of Southern Oregon.
Mrs. Anna Mrs. D. Everhart, having sold their home of five acres, will move upon the 8 1/2 acres they purchased a few years ago on S. J. LaFrance. This place lies just east of the Butte place, on the Belmont road and is a delightful location for a home. They have named it Roscroft. They will tent upon the ground until their house is built.

In the report of school examinations last week Miss Margaret Robinson who received the second highest standing in Wasco county, was by mistake credited to the Crapper school. Miss Robinson was a student at Pine Grove, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson. She was the only graduate from the Pine Grove school.
G. W. Riggs, the shoemaker, who is slightly deaf, tells the following joke on himself—or rather on his customer: A gentleman brought him a pair of shoes to be mended. When he returned for the shoes, he asked, "How's business?" Mr. Riggs understood him to ask, "How much do I owe you?" and promptly replied, "Six bits."

E. R. Bradley, agent for the Denmore typewriter, sold a No. 5 machine this week to Barnes, the real estate man, and to the Transfer & Livery company. This typewriter purchased by the liver company was in the shape of a surprise for Norman Young, the efficient bookkeeper for the firm.
Barnes the real estate man sold another of the 20 acres of the George T. Hollings property near Belmont; consideration, $1,000. This property was purchased last Friday by Messrs. Overland
