State encampment at Hood River in 1904. Wouldn't that G. A. R. you?

Encampment Comes to Hood River. The encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Portland, last week was the largest gathering of the kind ever held in the state. A big delegation from Canby post and the Relief Corps went from Hood River. In fact the Hood River delegation filled a car. The city of Portland gave the veterans and the Isdies a ride over the city in open cars. The care were filled by the open cars. Ten cars were filled by the party. The day was fine and the ride was very much enjoyed.

The encampment elected David H Turner of Newberg department com-mander; the W. R. C. elected Mrs. Rose M. Schenck of Toledo its department president, and Mrs. L. M. Benedict was chosen department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. Hood River was selected as the next place of meeting. Eugene, Grant's Pass, Albany, Ashland, Pendleton and Hood River were placed in nomination, and probably a dozen speeches were made in nominating and seconding the nominations. M. P. Isenberg in a neat little speech nominated Hood River. After all had had their say, Captain James P. Shaw in a speech of a few words seconded the nomination of Hood River. A Grant's Pass man had spoken of their lovely climate and froit. He said if the boys would come down to Grant's Pass they would get the best peaches and watermelons in the world, that they could eat enough fruit to give every one of them the diabetes. Captain Shaw, in his remarks, after dwellingsupon our grand scenery, the grandest in the world, and mentioning our luscious strawberries for which Hood River is famous, declared the boys when they came to Hood the boys when they came to Hood River could eat all the strawberries they wished without fear of diabetes. Captain Shaw's little speech won the day, and when the ballot was taken Hood River got 54 votes but not a ma-jority. As the hour was late a second vote was taken by raising hands, when 76 hands were counted by the secre-

So Hood River will have the en-campment in 1904. It will bring here probably 400 people from all parts of the state. Some of them will remain with us for a week or more; others for two or three days. When the proper time comes a citizen's committee will be organized to act with the Grand Army post and W. R. C. in providing quarters and entertainment for our visitors. Hood River will be equal to

Grand Army, the Women's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the G. A. R. next year. The time will be set for the encampment in June, late enough for the rush of the strawberry harvest to be over. If you hear any one say that Hood River can't take care of the crowd that will come, tell him to "go way back and sit down."

Strawberry Shipments About Ended.

The total production of strawberries in Hood River this year is something between 85,000 and 90,000 crates. Although the reported daily shipments furnished from the depot do not show this total, Mr. Davidson has figures to show that his company has shipped 38, 242 crates, the Fruit Growers' Union 20,681, and the route agent of the Pacific Express company stated that the express shipments amount to over 24,000. This makes a total of 82,923, with several more hundred yet to be shipped. Wisconsin veterans had a reunion at the encampment in Portland and 42 were present. Of this number four types of the present of the sum may be added the 6,000 crates received at the cannery, making the grand types of the present of the sum of
