G. L. Robinson of the East Side brought to the Glacier a mess of new potatoes of the Late Rose variety, of which each potato weighed 3/4 of a pound. The potatoes were planted 60 days ago. This is a record had to beat.
B. E. Prather left Wednesday for Manhattan, Kansas, where he goes to enter the state agricultural college for the purpose of taking the architectural course in the mechanical department. Mr. Prather proposes to spend three years in college. His strawberry ranch on the East Side has been left in care of his brother.
W. E. Sherman of Salem bought 20 acres of J. K. Phillips near Henry Priggo last week. Mr. Sherman has several other real estate holdings in Hood River, and thinks so much of the valley, that someday he expects to dispose of his shoe business in Salem and make his home in Hood River. Mr. Sherman is a brother-in-law of F. P. Friday.
Barnes, the real estate man, sold on Tuesday the Ida B. Rop property on the corner of Fifth and State streets to T. A. Shall of North Dakota. Mr. Shall, is to move into his new home as soon as Mr. Stewart can give him possession. Mr. Shall, with his father-in-law, Fred Deitz, with their families were formerly residents of Mayville, North Dakota, and have come here proposing to make Hood River their home.

Amos Underwood of Underwood, was in town Saturday looking as hale and hearty as ever. He is very much interested in a mining prospect in the north part of Skamania county. John Dark has been out there alone all the spring and Mr. Underwood will send two men—one of them Charlie Meyers—with supplies to him next week. These three men do not expect to see civilization again for a year, remaining on the head waters of the Lewis during that time developing their claims. Uncle Amos says they have struck it rich—Stevenson Pioneer.
Contractor McEneaney has completed the work of excavating for the basement of the Unitarian church building and has begun on the masonry work. The basement will be 9 feet deep from floor to ceiling, and 34 x 45 feet in extent. It will be partitioned into a fuel and furnace room and Sunday school room. The woman's alliance will also meet here. The cost of the basement will amount to nearly $500.
Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. sold last week to E. A. Schiffer of Pendleton, Or., the business property on Oak street belonging to H. D. Langille; consideration, $3,000. The same firm secured a tenant for a three years lease in the person of A. B. Crozier, a business man from Portland. Mr. Crozier will remodel the building and put in a complete stock of coffee, tea, spices, crockery and glassware.
Wm. Stewart, the house furnisher, last week bought out the line of paints and oils handled by Jim Hunt, the heavy paint stock of Charles N. Clarke and the hardware business of W. W. Treat. With a large line of furniture and hardware Mr. Stewart will aim to carry a full assortment of paints and painters' materials.
The Goldendale Sentinel says C. O. Barnes has demonstrated that strawberries is a paying crop in Klickitat. From three acres this year he picked 550 crates of nice berries, 24 boxes to the acre, which were sold at $2 per crate. And this year's yield was not above the average, either.
A new hotel is talked of at White Salmon. J. W. Lauterbach of Seattle, brother of E. Lauterbach of White Salmon, is interested in the project. The hotels of A. H. Jewett and Mr. Wyers are over crowded with summer tourists, and business is lively.
Mrs. Abbott, wife of one of Hood River's leading merchants, arrived in the city Thursday with her daughter, who will receive osteopathic treatment from Dr. J. E. Anderson—Chronicle.
Trout Lake and neighboring streams have recently been stocked with 30,000 government fish. Charles Waters of White Salmon superintended the work.
Miss May Money spent the Fourth at The Dalles and had a delightful time.

H. C. Hengst gathered from his field of clover a bunch of clover from one root which weighed several pounds and measured 5 feet 1 1/2 inches in height. This sample can be seen at the Glacier office. Mr. Hengst by using land plaster and water harvests some heavy stands of hay from his West Side ranch. Last year from 1 1/2 acres of ground he got six tons of timothy hay at one cutting. He expects to do as well this summer. By piling on more land plaster and water, he gets a second cutting of timothy, which he says makes splendid cow feed. Mr. Hengst is one of Hood River's most successful farmers.

Greenville Goddard left Wednesday night for Spokane, where he will visit for a week, then continue on to New York, where he goes to arrange for the publication of some of his own compositions. The songs are popular melodies composed and set to music by Mr. Goddard himself, who will join a troupe when next for the purpose of introducing his songs to the public. Mr. Goddard will return to his Hood River home next summer. Although he has traveled the world over, he declares there is no more beautiful place than Hood River.

The 21st international biennial convention of the society of Christian Endeavor meets at Denver, July 9-13. Railroad rates from all parts of the country will be reduced to one fare or less for the round trip, return tickets holding good until August 31. On the eve of the great convention, the Denver Endeavorers are glad to announce that the details of plans preparatory to the convention have been carefully carried out, and that the city is ready for the coming guests.

J. A. Clemenson stayed over a few days in Hood River during the week on his return from a business trip through the state of Washington. Mrs. Clemenson and children are camped in the oak grove of Lewisville and will remain for the summer. Mr. Clemenson is engaged in the wholesale and retail drug business in Portland. He finds his business materially increased by judicious advertising.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bateham left Monday noon for their Easter trip. They joined the Endeavor excursion from Portland and will attend the sessions at Denver. From there they will go to Clearwater, Minn., where they will remain until August 6, and continue on to their old home in Norway, Ohio. They do not expect to return before fall.

I. C. Nealeigh shipped 916 crates of strawberries from four acres and after he quit picking there were 150 crates left on the vines. On the last day of picking he got 38 crates. His Indians quit, and the berries got too ripe for picking. The vines were cultivated 14 times last fall and hoed 8 times. In the spring he cultivated and hoed very light.

William Shipman, night clerk at the Mount Hood hotel, suffering severely from gravel in his kidneys. Last week he was confined to his bed, but is better now, and able to be about, though he suffers a great deal. C. L. Gilbert has taken it upon himself to make up duties of night clerk, while Mr. Shipman is recuperating.

Professor C. D. Thompson returned Monday from a two day's fishing trip up the East Fork of Hood River. The professor was accompanied on the outing by N. W. Bone, and together they caught 240 trout, many of these 8 to 10 inches in length. The Glacier thanks Professor Thompson for a fine mess of trout.

Mrs. M. E. Markley, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Gladys, and her grand Lyle Daines, left for Portland last Tuesday where they took a steamer for Port Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Markley will visit her daughter, Mrs. M. I. Wheeler of Los Angeles. She expects to be gone all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Earles and son Frank, left for Los Angeles, Calif., for the purpose of visiting their home in Los Angeles, Calif. They returned Sunday evening. The trip down the Columbia was very enjoyable.

A young man named John Burns, aged 23, who had been stopping on W. J. Place, left July 4, and was expected to be shipped to his home at the Dalles by Undertaker Bartness, Sunday. The young man came here hoping to regain his health. He died of consumption.

Guests at the Fire the past week were: Rev. T. Mitchell and wife, of Boston; Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Portland; Miss Margaret Montgomery, Portland; Mrs. W. F. Burrell and two children, Portland; Sister Eliza, New York; J. M. Cochran, Meadville, Pa.; H. D. Langille.

D. N. Byerlee, who holds down a case in the composing room of the Glacier office, stands in some Royal Ann cherries last week after press day from his Oakland ranch at Frankton. The cherries for color and size beat anything the Glacier man has seen this year.

P. Sorenson of Underwood, Wash., was in town Friday. Mr. Sorenson farms about 100 acres in the Royal Ann valley. He has one of the earliest places on the Columbia river. His returns on strawberries this year averaged over $3 a crate.

W. H. Hobson has accepted a position in French & Co's bank, and in a short time Mrs. Hobson and her two daughters will return to the city to make this their permanent home. They will be welcomed by everybody.—Mountaineer.

J. E. Waterhouse, representing the Morgan company of Portland, was in Hood River, Monday, taking orders for advertising specialties. Mr. Waterhouse had a fine line of samples, and took a great many orders here.

George Smith left Monday for Couer d'Alene, Idaho, where he has accepted a position as street car conductor on the trolley line running to Spokane. Mr. Smith has had experience as street car conductor in Kansas City.

Levi Tyler has bought, through the real estate firm of Geo. D. Culbertson & Co., one of those slightly residence lots with Wiggins addition; consideration, $150. This firm has more of the same kind for sale.

Mrs. Claude Coppel returned Thursday of last week from a month's visit with relatives in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Coppel spent the 4th at Pendleton, returning Sunday afternoon.

Frank Woodcock, Jr., son of County Assessor Woodcock, died of consumption at Riverside, Calif., July 8. He was 22 years of age and leaves a widow.

R. B. Powell and C. S. True of Hayes and Hitchcock counties, Nebraska, are newcomers in the valley and are looking for locations.
Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson are down from Sherman county on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jackson of the East Side.
Frank Hunsaker and Miss Mary F. Mathews, both of White Salmon, were married in that city, July 2, 1903.
E. O. Brace and family returned Monday evening from Portland, where they visited relatives over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hill were visiting relatives at Hood River last Sunday—Defeat Dispatch.
Mrs. Hoyle Green and children went to Portland Tuesday, returning Friday by boat.

Engineer Hammond, who has in charge the survey for the state of Oregon of the proposed State Portage between Sulfer's cannery and Celilo, is at present encamped with nine men near Sulfer's. The men are making good progress with the survey and think it will take about a month to complete the work. Mr. Hammond intends shortly to increase his force with three more men so there will be no delay with this undertaking.

H. D. Langille, representing the bureau of forestry of the department of agriculture, was in Hood River last week, making an inspection of the timber lands recently withdrawn in the Blue mountains. Mr. Langille is reported by the Gazette as finding a general sentiment favoring the reserve. He says the outlook for stockmen is not flattering, the range being overstocked.

S. P. Brown, formerly of Columbus, has rented a fine 20-acre ranch near Hood River and is doing well there. On the farm are strawberries, fruit and alfalfa. He informs us that T. Good also formerly of Columbus, is settled some two miles from him, and is well pleased with that country.—Goldendale Sentinel.

A Carson item in the Stevenson Pioneer says: "H. C. Edwards had quite a yield of strawberries from the young plants he set out this year. In a few years Wind River valley can compete favorably with Hood River."

The report comes from Carson, Wash., that the Regulator line has six surveyors in the field running a general location from Lyle via Stevenson to Cascade Locks; and it is said they will have a place at each one of the several docks.

Before You Start

Off on your summer trip you should trip in and order a Royal summer suit. Tip top trip suits made exactly to fit your curves and angles by The Royal Tailors of Chicago. Home-spun—wool cranes, summer flannels and some are not. You can have whatever you want and it's all right having. "Rainerine" keeps off the picnic shower.

ELK BRAND HATS.

$2.50 and $2.00.

They are good hats, good for business wear, will stand the sun and dust, and hold their shape and color. For a dress hat you need the "Lorgley."

A good hat is good economy and suggests that a man's head is right. A cheap hat looks "frumpy" and suggests poor judgment in buying.

Monogram Shirts

Are very fine sellers. The discriminating buyers are our best customers, they know they are correct in style and fit. 50c to $2.

Fireworks!

THE PEOPLES' STORE

Shows Steady Growth for Hood River.

A comparison of the postal receipts at the Hood River post office for the past three years gives a good indication of Hood River's growth. The total sales for each of the past three fiscal years are:
1900-01 ..... $3700 28
1901-02 ..... 4252 98
1902-03 ..... 5032 89
The increase for the year ending June 30, 1903, over the same date for 1902 is $779.91. The preceding year's increase was $402.70.

To Open Tea and Coffee Store.

A. B. Crozier of Portland has secured a three-year lease of the Langille building, now the property of E. A. Schiffer of Pendleton, and will on August 1, open a first-class tea and coffee store. Crockery and glassware will also be sold. The building is being refitted and a new glass front will be put in. Mr. Crozier intends to handle the best goods in his line, and will have one of the best equipped tea stores outside of Portland. Although a new business man in Hood River he is confident the city affords a good opening for the business, and is a man well qualified to make a success of his undertaking. Mr. Crozier is here with his wife and will make Hood River his permanent home.

Leader Ranch Still Leads.

The first ripe tomatoes of the season reached the Glacier office Wednesday afternoon. They were grown by C. D. Moore on the Leader ranch, at White Salmon. The Leader ranch still leads.

Married.

At the home of Wilber Register, Hood River valley, June 25, 1903, Elmer C. Register and May D. Morgan, both of Hood River; Rev. J. W. Jenkins officiating.

Born.

In Portland, July 6, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. John Leland Henderson of Hood River, a son.

Joe Wilson has gravel to give away. Take a team and get all you want.
W. H. Marshall has charge of Mr. Teal's strawberry ranch and will be in partnership with Mr. Teal in the berry business next year.

Mrs. E. C. Mooney, who was injured some three weeks ago by jumping from the wagon when frightened was taken to The Dalles Hospital Monday. Her mother, Mrs. O. L. Stranahan, is with her for a few days.

C. H. Stanton of Duques valley brought to the Glacier office on Wednesday a bunch of alfalfa 25 inches long. The seed was sown 25th of May, and therefore the alfalfa was 42 days in growing, making a growth of over one-half inch a day.

The ladies' aid society of the Valley Christian church will serve ice cream and cake at the church lawn, July 17. A short stereopticon programme will be given free, accompanied by good singing. Come and enjoy the evening. Do not forget the time—Friday evening, July 17.

Frank Chandler returned Friday night from California. Mr. Chandler says California may be a great country, but he wouldn't exchange Hood River for it. Very little money is made from farming and fruit growing in that country. The chief income is from tourists. Tons of literature are spread broadcast telling of the scenic attractions of the state, and thousands of people visit the state each year. But when it comes to climate or money making, the state isn't in it with Oregon.

Rev. J. L. Hershner is back from Portland, where he spent three weeks in North Pacific sanitarium undergoing treatment for a badly inflamed eye. While there he experienced gratifying relief. Mr. Hershner will undertake his duties as pastor of the Congregational church, beginning Sunday, July 17. Rev. C. F. Clapp, who is well known in Hood River, will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. When Mr. Hershner was incapacitated for service about June 1, the trustees of the Congregational church very kindly granted him a month's vacation, and as much longer leave of absence was necessary. Mr. Hershner hopes his enforced leave of absence so considerably granted is at an end.

Mrs. D. Lyle Rice of Ashland was a guest for several days during the past week at the country home of Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Shaw. Mrs. Rice is the state vice president of the Christian Endeavor societies, and was on her way to the international convention at Denver.

George I. Slocum is having a serious time with what at first was thought to be rheumatism in his foot. Later the doctors pronounced it gout. He can get about only with the aid of crutches.

Barnes the real estate man sold on Tuesday Mr. Cavers' 10 acres in the Crapper district to A. W. Othland. Consideration $1,000.
St. Mark's guild will meet with Mrs. Savage next Wednesday, at 2 o'clock. Work.

Light and Water Notice.

All light and water bills are due and payable at the company's office, from the 1st to the 10th of each month, in advance. All service not paid for before the 10th will be shut off, and the consumer will have to pay for having the service turned on, in addition to arrears.

All those wishing to irrigate lawns or gardens must make application at the company's office for number of lots they wish to irrigate, before irrigating, or their service will be turned off, same as for non-payment for service. All irrigation MUST be done by SPRINKLING; no other METHOD will be ALLOWED. Street sprinkling by hose is absolutely prohibited.

All irrigating west of line of Fifth street must be done from 3 a. m. to 11 a. m. All irrigating east of line of Fifth street must be done from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m.

Any or all failing to comply with the above rules for irrigating will have water shut off.

By order of board of directors. N. C. EVANS, Manager.
