

WHITE SALMON NOTES.

Miss Benetta Dorris and Mrs. Allen Eaton of Eugene, sisters of Mrs. Condon, are visiting White Salmon.

A very unfortunate accident occurred near the wharves to our dock on Monday. Rev. Mr. Talbot, pastor of Taylor street church of Portland, was quite seriously injured by the overturning of a wagon. He was cut about the face and severely injured in one knee.

Everybody is interested in water and all are talking water development. Keep the ball rolling. Let's not be satisfied because our soil produces profitably without irrigation. It does that. But with a plentiful water supply it will do more and the results will be much greater and come quicker.

The social gathering at the church Friday evening was a great success. The house was filled and so were the people. An unusually fine phonograph programme and some interesting recitations from Shakespeare by Rev. Mr. Talbot were leading features in the literary line, and ice cream and cake galore did the rest.

The water system owned by Mr. Jewett is again working nicely. Thanks to his energy and promptness in making a small supply of water work of a large one. He has done all he could and realizes as much as any other resident that we need a great plant representing a larger investment. There is plenty of the finest water on earth back of us. Some day we shall have it in clear, running brooks all about us, and this will be indeed the gem of all Columbia river residents.

The school bond election came off Tuesday—56 votes being cast, 35 of which favored a new school building, and 21 were "for" the old. The votes against, with a very few exceptions, came from families farthest from the school site. In this matter, our paper, the Enterprise, has voiced no sentiment, whatever.

The school directors find that it will be possible to open the public school on next Monday, September 7. This will make it possible to close a week earlier in the spring, when older pupils will be needed in the spring work. Remember the date—Monday, the 7th.

The Glacier is increasing its subscription list on this side of the river because of its efforts to furnish the news and treat us with fairness.

Mosler Items.
As the former correspondent from this place has gone away and we have been requested by the editor to get down a few items, we will endeavor to do so each week. Our chances for gathering news are limited, so you need not be surprised if you only get part of the happenings in our vicinity.

Picking and packing prunes is the order of the day, and each afternoon load after load of packed prunes come in as the result of the day's labor. Hands are scarce, and the work goes on about on account of the growers not being able to procure tin tops.

Lee Evans loaded a car of prunes on Saturday last, another on Tuesday, and consigned them to Denver, Col. Many other growers are shipping by local express.

Mr. Beringhouse and family started for the hop yards of Yakima, Wash., Monday morning. Mrs. Bailey and children accompanied them.

C. W. Croft and family were here last week. He recently sold his Indiana home and is looking for a location. He went to Grass Valley from here.

J. M. Denny, who has been running A. Reebel's threshing engine, near Wasco, is again with us. He reports a fair crop and a cool time for harvesting.

A. P. Batchman of Hood River was here Saturday and contracted for a carload of spit-burgers at $1.75 a box.

One Olsen, while working in S. W. Stark's saw mill, accidentally got his hand on the saw and lost one finger and mangled his whole hand badly. He went to The Dalles for surgical aid.

Mrs. D. Stungis came home from Portland on a visit last week. Her son Frank went to the Blue mountains to work for the rest of the season.

School began in the Ireland school August 31, with Mrs. Merriman at the helm. We predict a successful term, as it is her second there, and everybody seems glad she is back. School will begin in No. 8 September 7. Mrs. Morgan will teach. No. 12 begins at the same time, but we have not learned the teacher's name.

Several of our citizens were on the watch for the swimmer, Lawyer Henderson, last Sunday, but as he was on the opposite side of the river, and it being very rough, they did not get to see him in the water. However, they understood he was taken aboard at Strait's Landing, but did not think it strange, as swimming land for a man must have great powers of endurance and lots of "fish quality."

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.
September 9 and 10, we will have a Farmers' institute at White Salmon. It will be a good live one, too. Sessions will be held on Wednesday at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., and again at 8 o'clock in the evening. On Thursday, the 10th, sessions will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Our new blacksmith, A. R. Hogan, is at his forge, and is doing good to hear the anvil's ring. He did not get his shop leveled up, after moving it, until he had a job waiting, and he has been busy ever since. This is what we have needed for some time—a good blacksmith.

E. J. Middlewart and son Frank spent several days back in the mountains last week, hunting, but were only rewarded with small game and a few trout. B. O. R.

Notes From Underwood.
Miss Moore spent Sunday with Mrs. Dark.

Will Underwood and A. J. Haynes will make a trip to huckleberry mountain Sunday after bar.

Ed Underwood is starting to build a kitchen. When it is completed he will have a good sized house. His son Will is kept quite busy hauling the lumber and supplies for the Counter camp.

Amor Underwood went to The Dalles Saturday afternoon on the steamer Spencer and came down to Hood River in a small boat. He and Charles Hayward accompanied John Leland Henderson, who was to have swum from The Dalles, but owing to the water being so cold had to give up the trip at or near Strait landing, and finish the trip to Hood River on the Maja.

William Wendorf shipped a lot of peaches to Portland Monday morning by the steamer Charles R. Spencer.

J. J. Luckey of Hood River was a visitor at Underwood Sunday.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Underwood came in from the huckleberry mountain Friday with three horse loads of purple huckleberries, which they took to Hood River to market. They expect to go back for more berries Tuesday. There is an unusual lot of berries this season.

Ed and Jake Thornton came home from Carson, Tuesday, where they have been at work in a logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Thornton are visiting with Mrs. Thornton's father, A. Y. Marsh, at The Dalles.

Mrs. Fred Lathy and family left for the hop fields of Marion county last week. Those who went are: Miss Frieda Boche, sister of Mrs. Lathy, Miss Elma Lathy, Miss Mary Ruds, aunt of Mrs. Lathy, and two or three of the small children, leaving Fred to keep bachelor's hall, assisted by his youngest son, Irwin.

Ellis Huff is keeping bachelor's hall on the Olson farm. He will finish out the lease on the farm instead of his father, J. C. Huff, who moved with the rest of the family to Island City, Or., a short time ago.

Chenoweth News Notes.
J. M. Spriggs and family have returned from Corvallis and report a good time. Crops are good in that locality.

Threshing is now in full blast and the hop pickers are just going out.

Will Kellendonk from Underwood brought over a load of fruit Tuesday.

The Washington Lumber company now have a full force on their flume trying to get out some of their lumber.

Fred Kantz, Roy Johnson and others went to Hood River Tuesday on business.

Mrs. R. M. Mills was in Hood River Friday.

A. E. Moritz spent two or three days in Hood River and Portland last week. He will leave our village tomorrow and will move to Sherman county, Or., on a ranch.

Roy Johnson and Bert Linville are going back to their ranches tomorrow.

Eugene Raper left our camp last week and went to Parkertown to work for Dawson Bros. Lumber company.

Chas. Hill has been a very sick boy for a day or two but is better this morning.

O. H. Brown, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is out again.

Frank and Jim Larson captured a handsome mess of Dollie Varden and Salmon trout. Mail carrier Haynes came in for a fine one and says he never tasted anything so fine. They were the prettiest lot of fish he ever saw. Thanks.

Happenings at Nicolai.
We have to thank Rev. Fred Allen Well and friends from Hood River, who came down last Sunday with their musical instruments and treated us to some Happenings at Nicolai.

We have to thank Rev. Fred Allen Well and friends from Hood River, who came down last Sunday with their musical instruments and treated us to some music. Mr. Well's sermon was appreciated very much by the unusually small attendance, but next Sunday we will surprise him with a full house. Services will begin at 4 o'clock.

On account of growing business, our groceryman, Mr. McLane, has made an addition to his store so as to hold a larger stock.

The O. R. & N. are to begin building a platform for the unloading of freight this week. The timbers are all in readiness.

J. Johnston and "Happy" Bates are preparing the week at Collins hot spring, recuperating their health.

The Menominee Lumber company have just built Fred Foster a house, and last night he gave a dance, which was highly appreciated by the people of Nicolai, it being the first one held here.

W. G. Cameron and W. J. Frost arrived here last night just in time to participate in the gay revels of the dance.

Mrs. F. R. Absten and daughter, Miss Lula, left last week for a visit to Oregon City for six weeks.

T. Brewster, inspector for the Oregon Short Line, came down today to inspect the loading of ties.

Dukes Valley Items.
We are having some fine weather at present.

Our school house is not done yet, but is progressing nicely under the management of W. C. Dodge.

W. G. Dodson has gone to Viento to take charge of the lumber yard at that place for the Oregon Lumber company.

C. R. Bone is talking some of putting in a sawmill on W. G. Dodson's place and sawing lumber to build flume on his irrigation ditch. This would be a great thing for the valley, and make lots of work and lively times in Dukes valley. If he should decide to do this he will run the mill by water power, which will go through the mill and into the ditch and then on to some dry ground, which will make green fields and fat stock.

J. O. Cameron is cutting his second crop of clover, which is fine.

There was a land buyer out looking over C. R. Bone's place last week, with the thought of buying and setting out 200 acres in apples. This would be a good thing, but we would hate to see Mr. Bone leave us.

The weather is cooler again after the nice welcome shower we had.

The circus has come and gone and a great deal has settled over our peaceful little valley once more.

Our new school house is very nearly completed, and it looks very attractive in its new coat of paint.

John Thomsen of The Dalles has donated a $25 bill to our new school house, which will be a great help to our new district.

William Dodson and family returned Friday night from a week's visit in Portland.

George F. Pfaff has been laid up the last week with his hand, which he got cut badly on a saw.

Dennis Dodson went back last evening to haul wood for the Little White Store man. Den is one of the few of this valley who can handle the ribbons over a four-horse team.

We will offer for next season's planting about 20,000 well-bred apple trees, largely Newtowns, Spitzenburgs, Jonathans and other varieties adapted to local conditions. We warrant this stock free from apple canker, woolly aphid and other pests common to many parts of the country. As our supply of trees is limited, orders should be received at an early date.

This may seem like a fairy tale or a fish story, but it is nevertheless true. We are not inclined to boast through the columns of the paper, but to keep abreast with the times we are justified in stating facts. Come to think about it, there is not so very much furniture in a car load—$1200 or $1500 worth—and sold on a close margin it is not a big thing, nor would we try to deceive any one.
