

WHITE SALMON NOTES.

Bert Rath's feed store is nearly completed. He will do business on a strictly cash basis. The Enterprise office is almost finished. Geo. Harlan is to be congratulated. Art Ward has joined the force of clerks at Wolford's.

Professor Smith of Minnesota says barnyard manure gives to soil the "humus" needed, and commercial fertilizer "acts" in for a night. Let's try both.

Our public school has opened with a fine outlook. Twenty pupils in the principal's room and 25 in the room of the assistant.

The White Salmon hotel, formerly conducted by Mr. Wiers and now run by Mr. Fox, is full to overflowing. A full-dressed chicken dinner every Sunday is one of the attractions. Crow's quartet, druggists, are playing advertising boards over the country, calling attention to their goods—drugs and stationery, etc.

The contract for furnishing wood for our school district has been let to George Farmer and Joe Brannaman at $20 per cord for fir and $25 for oak. The only other bid was for $2 for fir and $3 for oak.

Some of our fruit growers get up half an hour early every morning to pour forth the vials of their wrath at Mr. Fox, who has the bird leg of a cow would appear like good arrow wood.

Mr. Woolford is trying to keep up with the development of his business. We have no competition in Hood River valley, but we have the next best thing—a merchant in whose word every one has confidence. An addition to the store, now under construction, is being constructed.

White Salmon has one organization about which little has been said, and which does a great deal of good. The women's club meets from home to home and in quiet way relieves every case of real distress brought to its knowledge. Clothing, bedding and even medical attendance have been furnished. Men talk Christianity but women live it.

Some families have a terrible time having their babies, but only one in Hood River valley has a scheme of his own. His name is Ira, he named the "old" Ira. The coming years cannot but be a trial to him, for all he will have to do is to call to mind the familiar things, "Ira, Ira, here, Ann, Pillsbury, Pillsbury, Nicholas, John," and call it the next.

Y. O. Cox carries his arm in a sling owing to a milk-up with his cow Sunday evening. It happened thusly: Round 1—Mr. Cox and the cow play for an opening. Cox wears a determined look and attacks the cow at the southwest corner; the cow tries upper cut with right but fails to land. Cox lands right and left on upper repeatedly, but without bringing anything but milk from the cow's udder. Round 2—Both come up fresh and mix things from the start. Cox looks fresh and left on bucket and tries for fall short. Cox shows distress and is panting heavily. Lands right on cow's side and left over right kidney. Round 3—Cow as fresh as a daisy. Mr. Cox looking at at an awkward angle, wind, left and land right and left square in the milk; receives, plants right on wind. Mr. Cox fails to respond at end of count. The attending physician reports the victim getting along nicely, but unable to meet similar engagements for some time.

Dukes Valley Notes.
We had quite a shower of rain last Saturday, which made the farmers think it time to sow their fall grain.

The coal nights make the ratters hunt their den and the coyote set up his wailing howl. He gives concerts nightly.

Our school began last Monday with 20 pupils enrolled. Miss Daisy Thomas of Mount Tabor is teacher. We have confidence in her as a teacher.

Work has been resumed on our new school house. We hope it will be finished this time before we let up.

School started in the old building until the new one is finished.

Charles H. Stanton is thinking of moving to Viento this winter to work awhile.

W. G. Dodson is home now and is working on the new school house.

Dennis Dodson can be seen almost every Saturday evening in his eager going to the dance in the Crapper district. There is a magnet or a Ruby that draws him in that direction every week. Which is it, Dennis?

Our Sunday school will meet attended last Sunday. We were glad to meet everybody. Come again.

One night last week, while wife and I were coming up the Wyman grade, I saw the cougar that I read about in the last Glacier. It was in the road ahead of us, and I wanted to go back to M. D. Odell's and get him and his dog; but my wife was more brave than I and insisted on going ahead. So we went ahead, with her in the lead and I following, trembling with fear. Before we got to it it left the road and climbed a tree near the road. When we got close enough to see a good view of it, my wife pronounced it a chipmunk! We got home safe, but I still insist that it was the L. L. and I, cougar.

OVER

Five Carloads of Furniture

Sold Since the Beginning of this Year.

ALMOST ONE CAR LOAD PER MONTH.

This may seem like a fairy tale or a fish story, but it is nevertheless true. We are not inclined to boast through the columns of the paper, but to keep abreast with the times we are justified in stating facts. Come to think about it, there is not so very much furniture in a car load—$1200 or $1500 worth—and sold on a close margin it is not a big thing, nor would we try to deceive any one. Every week word comes to us that our prices are below Portland prices. Glad to show you our full stock at any time. Dealer in Miscellaneous.

P. Henningsen made a trip to Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham returned home to Portland after a week's visit here among friends.

Mrs. Robinson of Portland, who has been spending the summer at her mother's, Mrs. L. J. Davenport, returned to Portland last week, by boat. Miss Alice Davenport and Miss Janette Boese also went with her.

Miss Kathryn Davenport went to the Dalles last Saturday, where she has been employed as a teacher.

Miss Anna Phillips, Miss Edna Root and Miss Ethel Middlemarch were passengers to the Dalles last Saturday. They expect to attend school at The Dalles this winter.

Rev. Brover was up from Cascade Locks, looking after his place here Monday.

C. T. Bennett and William Graham, after procuring seed wheat and getting the ground ready to sow on the Mrs. Alice Eganet place, was given notice that the farm had been purchased by Mrs. L. J. Davenport, so the boys had no place to sow their wheat.

Mrs. Minnie Johnson, sister of Mr. Carlson, is visiting with relatives and friends. Her husband is a foreman for the U. R. & N.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Husbands, formerly of this place, but now from Portland, are visiting among their old neighbors.

The new dock is completed and also the freight house for it. We understand that all boats and there are belonging to the U. R. & N. company, and everybody seems glad.

W. C. Cook has the ground leveled off for his new residence here, and is laying the foundation, the lumber and everything being on the ground in complete his dwelling. He expects to put up a box factory soon.

W. C. Stuart of Portland, who has been building a dwelling on his place, has been engaged and will soon complete his house.

Dick Evans and son Ernest, Harry Evans and son Robert and I. D. Evans are spending this week in the mountains back of W. Y. Wells, looking for large game. We are all counting on a large piece of bear and venison on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Young took their baby to Hood River on Sunday last, to the doctor. The baby seems better and they think it will get along all right.

The city or is now running night and day. As it was impossible to get white men to work here, Mr. Henningsen employed Japanese to work in front of the dryer, dipping the prunes and putting them on the trays. He expects to employ female help the same as last year and a man or two to operate the work. He is still in need of a hand, I think.

John Wellberg, who has been bartering in Hood River, is now in the city, he is here now, looking after his apple crop.

Mr. Carlson spent two or three days with his son-in-law, Mr. Carlson, at the Knappa was attacked with rheumatism and Mr. Carlson took him to the springs. We are glad to hear that he is now improved and is expected home soon.

Louis Yockle and Jack Roberts are building a wooden for school district #2. They are going to build a better and larger than the children taught with them.

At an entertainment about a month or two years ago. We are glad to see that improvements go on, and if we did not know better off the yard and ditch that we should have and ground they might not be proud of. Look at district #2, everything painted up and yard cleaned off, big bell in the lobby, and inside of house and desks freshly painted and varnished. Isn't that an honor to that district?

Pine Grove Cleanings.
Samuel Miller and wife of Waterloo, Iowa, visited with their nephew, W. Pike, the past week. They are on their way home from San Francisco.

Mrs. J. L. Davis and son of Newberg, Ore., were guests at the Davis home a couple of days last week.

Miss Rice is entertaining a grand-daughter from Mount Tabor, Ore.

The enrollment for the first day of school was 22 for the high school and 23 primary pupils.

Rev. Housner of Hood River and Rev. Smith of Portland are calling on the people of Pine Grove to see what the prospects are for building a new church.

Martin Drageeth is home from Sherman county, where he has been during the harvest season.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman will go to Portland tomorrow for a couple of days visit with Mrs. Newman's brother.

H. F. Davidson and wife celebrated their wedding Monday evening, September 13. Relatives and friends planned to give them a surprise party. The small boy got wind of the affair, and a big crowd of boys gave the wedding party a cheer. The game and the wash boilers were in evidence to beat the band. The champagne and a hot water bottle. Mr. Housner invited the boys to keep up the music. He rather enjoyed it for a while, but he said it was too noisy, and the crowd was treated to cake.

The ladies' aid society of the Congregational church will meet at Mrs. Cannon's Friday, at 2 o'clock. Special business.

Three Carloads of Furniture For the First Half of 1903,

And the cars just in by far the largest and filled to the roof with a better grade of Furniture than we have ever shown.

A mere statement of this fact proves much. We have not changed the policy that so quickly placed two carloads into the hands of users. We have improved it. PRICE, QUALITY AND ASSORTMENT, all changed to your advantage. No trouble to show goods. If we are busy, please go over the stock yourself. All goods plainly marked.

Barrett District.

We have often wondered since we settled in Hood River valley, why a section of country that seems to have been settled by a class of people endowed with an unusual amount of intelligence and blessed with all the advantages to be derived from church, school and social privileges that can be obtained even in the cities, and possessing one of the most beautiful and fertile tracts of God's earth, capable of producing in an abundance any and all kinds of cereals, fruits and vegetables, in the raising of which the most modern methods and appliances are used, which of itself is evidence of the intelligence of the people, and the fact that there are over 200 school children in this district give positive evidence that the doctrine of President Roosevelt prevails in this section in an unusual degree; and my wonder has been why such a settlement, possessing all these advantages, is without representation on the correspondence force of the Glacier.

The only excuse I can think of is that the activity of the soil does not give the farmers any time devoted to the heralding of the most favored spot in the Hood River valley. But believing that even the most favored spots should, even at a sacrifice of time, make plain their advantages, we take up the cause of the people of this section, confessing, however, our inability to do the subject justice, unless the people of the community aid us by giving us the news and latest happenings in their immediate neighborhood. Receiving such support we will endeavor to make the Glacier a weekly report of the happenings of this community, and while we ask the aid of our neighbors in preparing these reports, we desire first to say that we do not propose to report personalities, family or neighborhood differences, as news items. We believe that in the arduous task of presenting a good paper as the Glacier, once a week, the editors find troubles enough of their own, without airing the personal or neighborhood quarrels. We have not learned that any such troubles exist in this section and trust that all future time will find a perpetuation of the present peace and contentment; but we want to state our policy, and that no one can complain if their items of news are rejected. Give us the news and let us jointly make the happenings of this locality clean, readable news items, that will be a help to the Glacier editor and interesting to the public.

Barrett school opened for a seven-months' term September 7, with Professor C. D. Thompson, late principal of Hood River school, in control, and A. B. Cash and Miss O. Norman, assistants. There was a large attendance of children, and a lady passing as school was dismissed, remarked that there must have been a circus somewhere, there were so many kids on the road.

A. B. Cash spent the first two days of school in getting the flag pole in position so that Old Glory may be unfurled and serve as a patriotic inspiration to the people.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins, pastor of the Valley Christian church, who has been enjoying a vacation returned Friday and resumed services Sunday morning, preaching an unusually interesting sermon.

Raleigh Phelps, who is serving Uncle Sam as ranger, protecting the woods from the inroads of stockmen and in preventing the spread of forest fires, was made happy by a visit from his wife and babies at his camp, but the weather having turned cold and rainy, he was compelled to bring them home. He returned Monday morning with instructions to move his camp around to the east side of Mount Hood.

The ladies' aid society of the Valley Christian church, who were at the arduous task at their last meeting, of endeavoring to persuade one of their members to work, in which they did not succeed, concluded they were entitled to a day's rest, so last Thursday they took their hog and hominy in their pockets and visited at the beautiful home of Mrs. L. D. Boyd on the East Side. They all report having enjoyed a lovely time, even the refractory member, N. B. They did not see any rattlesnakes.

The new store started by Mr. Brayford, a quarter-mile west of the school house, is succeeding much better than was expected. The proprietor is an old hand at the business and knows how to cater to the country trade, and carrying with him at all times a full stock of squareness and politeness and fair dealing, backed up by a stock of goods not equalled by any store in Hood River. He should be, and no doubt will be, well supported by the appreciative public of this community.

The fruit of this vicinity has about all been harvested, except apples, of which there is a goodly quantity, and of intelligent culture is of fine quality. Several have refused $1.75 per box, and all demand that they are entitled to the highest market prices.

T. D. Tweedy, whose feet, he says went on a strike, is now far on the road to recovery.

S. A. Skinner, who visited at San Francisco with the G. A. R., has returned, and is so full of the hospitalities tendered them by the citizens of the Granite City, that he spends half his time out on the fence talking about what a bit-time he had, and what a grand thing it is to have been one of the nation's defenders in her serious time of need.

Washington state, admitting Oregon's superiority in educational matters, has drawn from this community P. H. Sparks, to serve as principal of the White Salmon school, and their discernment is creditable to them, as he is one of the most popular teachers wherever he has been engaged, and will give their people perfect satisfaction.

We learn that Rev. Dillenger, who has been serving as pastor of the M. E. church at Belmont, has been transferred to some other charge. We are sorry to see him go, as he has been an earnest worker in behalf of the church, and his name a pleasant addition to the society of the community. We wish them much success and congratulate the people of his new charge in securing his services.

Now, in concluding this communication, we earnestly ask the assistance of all the people of this section who desire the public to know of the advantages of the Barrett district, and ask that all items be left at the new store, where a box will be provided for their reception. All communications, however, must be signed by the writers, not for publication, but that the responsibility of the items may be furnished to the editor of the Glacier should he demand it.

QUANTUM SERVICE.

Fearful Odds Against Him.
Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such is brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Ver-saillus, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctor nor medicine gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for liver and kidney troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Chas. N. Clarke, druggist.

Mount Hood Notes.
Dr. Olmstead, lecturer for the United Artisans, will give a lecture at the Mount Hood hall, September 24. Free, and everybody invited.

The new steam mill is running a full crew, cutting out lumber for the new houses being built.

Two weddings are to come off in the near future. We will give no names at present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gribble returned last week from an outing at Lost Lake. At the lake they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Rosenkrantz of Canby. The party spent a week at the delightful retreat and brought out 10 gallons of huckleberries.
