CLOSING OUT

SHOE SALE

R. B. BRAGG & CO

We are going to close out our different lines of Ladies' shoes preparatory to putting in a special line of Ladies' Shoes, and to do this quickly, we will make the price an object for all who are going to need shoes any time in the near future to come to us for them.

These are all good styles--some of the latest lasts, and most of them are all new goods, made by the best manufacturers, such as Buckingham & Hecht, Tennant Shoe Co, Bluff City Shoe Co., Isaac Ferris Co., J. Miller and others.

These all go as follows:

- $1.50 Ladies' Shoes for $1.20
1.75 Ladies' Shoes for 1.40
2.00 Ladies' Shoes for 1.50
2.25 Ladies' Shoes for 1.80
2.50 Ladies' Shoes for 1.90
3.00 Ladies' Shoes for 2.25
3.50 Ladies' Shoes for 2.65

The above prices are worthy your attention, and our object in doing this is to put in one or two lines and keep from having so much money tied up in so many different lines of Ladies' shoes, so don't neglect this opportunity to supply yourself with shoes, for we assure you these are real BARGAINS.

WHITE SALMON NOTES.

Robert Wilson is sick with typhoid fever at his home in Cook addition.

The Modern Woodmen of America will give a dance on the evening of January 21, in Lauterbach's hall to celebrate their 21st anniversary. Every one is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mead have returned to their home in Portland.

Mrs. Green of G. A. Rath & Co., was in Portland last week on business.

J. L. Henderson, Barton and Frank Davidson of Hood River were White Salmon visitors last week.

The White Salmon camp, Modern Woodmen of America installed the following officers, Saturday, January 9: S. C. Ziegler, conductor; H. E. Bowman, advisor; J. P. Jensen, escort; R. Lauterbach, clerk; W. O. Cox, banker; Fred Purser, watchman; M. J. Cast, sentry.

After the meeting adjourned camp fires were lighted on the east end of some of Volard's best 5 centers, and at 12 o'clock, when the talk and cigars began to grow short, all went home.

J. Mordecai Jones, Wm. Olson and Tom Pierce of Husum went to Portland Monday to attend the National Live-stock convention.

Little Dorris Condon is sick at her home, but is reported to be much better.

Miss Grace Morris was married December 31, to William Wright of San Francisco. The bride has many friends in White Salmon.

Odell Notes. Services were held at the Union church Sunday by the Lutheran church.

B. T. Young is engaged in sawing wood with a new horse power saw for W. V. Johnson on the East Side road, while W. H. Sears is making a steam saw buzz on the oak hill near his home.

Home-seekers are in evidence almost daily about Odell. Mr. C. Harrison is active in showing up our valley. We commend him for his vigilance and hope he will land them.

Mr. Morgan from Idaho, who recently rented in town, was out here a few days ago, with his family, looking about with a view to buying a small tract for a home.

The Little White Store has registration blanks on hand and is prepared to register voters for the coming election.

The meeting held at the school house last Saturday for the purpose of voting a special tax was premature, and nothing was done. By the way, notices are out again for a meeting on the 21st, for the purpose of voting upon a tax. The letter of the law has been strictly followed this time and a vote will then be had. Every resident of the district should attend, so that the sentiment of the majority would be expressed.

F. W. Angus of the West Side was transacting business at the Little White Store, Monday.

Sam Sillman has a contract with Frank A. Masee of Willow Flat for grubbing five acres. He established camp there yesterday. After the recent heavy rains grubbing is a soft job.

We understand that C. R. Bone has sold some land on Willow Flat to some parties who will organize a company and plant 100 acres of apple trees in the spring. Willow Flat is fast coming to the front as a desirable apple land, and such a project is no mistake.

C. L. Rogers has been working quite a few of men on his ranch at Willow Flat lately. Mr. Rogers is an apple man and has great faith in that section.

C. G. Roberts and wife are in Portland this week attending the stock and fruit growers' convention.

L. D. Boyd has a new gasoline engine and pump, at his elegant home. It throws a 10 inch stream, pumping 7,200 gallons of water an hour. He has a reservoir on the hill near his house where he will store water for irrigating purposes. Such enterprises are commendable. Hood River valley is in the front rank and matching steadily forward to still greater achievements in the near future.

Mount Hood Notes. Mount Hood is the best place on earth to have a good time between dances and shooting matches. There is all kinds of fun.

Joe Pettier, has gone up to the Blue mountains to his timber claim. He expects to be gone about two months.

T. H. Larwood and A. G. McKamey went to The Dalles last week to settle with the county court for their year's work on the roads.

D. R. Cooper and A. M. Kelley went to attend the county court at The Dalles, returning home on Thursday.

The boys had a good time at the shooting match at A. Leroux's place last Saturday. There were about 25 in attendance and Mr. Leroux did all he could to make it pleasant for everybody. He says come again.

The Davenport mill started up last Monday after being shut down for about two months.

W. A. Ofield came down the other day. He says there is no snow to get right trapping in the vicinity of Mount Hood, as far as rather scarce.

Durameth News Notes. Mr. Duram is getting along nicely. He is able to sit up some at this writing.

Miss Annie Eadeline has returned home on a visit to her parents in Hood River valley.

Miss Mand Duram and Mr. McVaugh will return to The Dalles in the course of the next week or ten days.

The W. L. Co. are cleaning up here at present with the intention of moving in the spring.

John Hensell, one of the stockholders of the W. L. Co., has gone to Portland to spend the winter.

Mill A received orders to close down a few days ago, and will finish what logs are cut. The crew will cross the Columbia to some of the other plants.

Dukes Valley Notes. It looks a little wintry up here these days. There is enough snow on the ground to make it look pale, but not enough for the boys to take their girls sleigh riding.

Say, the dogs are making the grub fly over east of Charlie Murphy's.

O. B. Hartley was out to the literary Saturday evening.

The minister was out Sunday and preached to us. J. O. Cameron took him home to dine with himself and family.

Mrs. Carrie Cameron, Mrs. Dora Dodge and Mrs. Daisy Deason visited the school last week.

We have a new organ in our little valley, at the home of Jack Kessel.

W. C. Dodge and J. Q. Carnahan have returned home again from the Chandler place.

John Dodson and sons were out fixing roads last week. Guess our mail carrier is glad.

Little Chester Dodge returned with his aunt, Mrs. Nellie Aldrich, to her home in Hubbard, Or. He began attending school there last Monday, and expects to make quite an extended visit.

Mr. Edgington has returned to Drakes valley again. He spent his holidays with his friends in Eastern Oregon.

Joseph Knox was up to The Dalles last week.

A. T. Dodge was hunting a man to work for him. We don't know whether he succeeded in obtaining one.

Mad, rain, snow and fog all combined make lovely weather.

Barrett District. We signed a petition for the appointment of a road supervisor some time ago, and since then the roads have been getting worse every day. Did our signature kill the petition, or has the supervisor the smallpox.

There has been inaugurated a new departure in the establishment of a daily stage line from the Crapper school house to Hood River and return. This shows great enterprise on the part of the route should generously patronize this line. Barrett, as usual, always gets to the front.

The Valley Christian church society, at their regular annual meeting, last Wednesday evening, elected the following officers: S. Cochrane, elected elder; T. A. Revis and E. E. Regeater, deacons; Mr. Miller, trustee; A. B. Cash, re-elected clerk and treasurer. A large and enthusiastic audience was in attendance and all expressed the determination to make 1904 the banner year of this organization.

Do not forget that W. R. Hoole wants some guinea hens. Send me prices. Hood River, R. F. D. No. 2.

The ladies aid of the Valley Christian church, last Thursday, held their annual election with the following results: Mrs. J. A. Wilson, the popular and efficient president of the association, was promptly re-elected for this year. This is a well-deserved compliment to one of the hardest workers of the society. Mrs. W. A. Bodins, vice-president; Mrs. S. Cochrane, treasurer; Mrs. W. K. Hoole, secretary. The society will meet at Mrs. A. J. Emerson's, Thursday, January 21, 1904.

One of the interesting features of the election of officers in one of our women societies was the introduction of political management of a character that simply takes the who's bakery. It created much amusement and demonstrated the practical use women would make of the ballot if placed in their hands.

One of the ladies was nominated for office and she promptly nominated the one who nominated her. Another nominee spoke in favor of this lady, who now felt reasonably sure of two votes. Behold, when the ballots were counted she received "nothing" vote, showing conclusively that the other nominees who had spoken in favor of her had either voted for themselves or for each other, thinking that some of the voters would be sure to vote for their nominee. This lady is taking her defeat philosophically, but we bet our last nickel that she will be on to way to get even at the next election.

Miss Nannie Gerking has been under the doctor's care for the past two weeks.

By the School Children. Charlie Van Blarcom is quite sick, and Mrs. McCartney's little girl has had a spell of diphtheria and measles.

Miss Lois Friedley is on the sick list.

C. D. Thompson, principal of the Barrett school, has also been on the sick list and has been unable to perform his duties.

Miss O. Norman took charge of Mr. Thompson's room, with Miss Edith Moore swinging the willow in Miss Norman's room.

Smallpox, lagrippe, measles and diphtheria seem to be all the go among the people.

Mrs. F. N. Dornhecker, we are sorry to say, has had an attack of erysipelas.

A. J. Emerson and son have contracted to cut wood for Rev. J. W. Jenkins on his home place.

Underwood School Notes. A little snow fell Saturday evening, but with the combined effects of the sun and the showers it soon melted away.

A. J. Haynes, accompanied by his little daughter Isabelle, left Saturday on the train, for Portland, where Mr. Haynes went to Vancouver on land office business. They expect to return Wednesday.

Will Underwood is carrying the mail during Mr. Haynes' absence.

Miss M. Rude, aunt of Mrs. Fred Lathrop, returned home from Portland last Saturday, where she has been visiting for the past two months.

Ed Lyons is expected home Tuesday from Portland where he went for his health, thinking a change of climate might benefit his rheumatism, but at last report he is no better.

Ed Underwood left for The Dalles last Saturday morning, when he went to see his little son Corbett, who was expected home Saturday morning but failed to come. We hope it is nothing serious keeping him.

The children declared they heard a wild cat, while on their way to school Monday morning. If so, he was afraid to put in his appearance and only let his voice be heard. One little fellow said he wouldn't go home in the evening, but would stay in the school house all night rather than pass that way.

Voted $1800 Bonds. White Salmon, Wash., Jan. 11, 1904. Editor Glacier: I have been reading all the articles about the bonds for a school building erected at White Salmon, that have appeared in the Glacier and Enterprise. I see that the White Salmon correspondent in your issue of January 7 says the bonds carried 68 to 22, but did not tell whether it was for the $1,800 brick school house the heaviest taxpayers had decided upon or the one to cost $1,800, all that can be legally raised by bonding the district. You, Mr. Editor, put us in bad shape to those who may come to favor White Salmon in future years by your editorial remarks at the close of Eavesdropper's communication. The fact is there was no vote made that your correspondent heard of to get the brick school house, but a strong pull was made for bonding the district for $1,800 and carried.

The coyotes are about all dead, as Mr. Cox has trapped as many as 40 in the past eight weeks, the squirrels are all roosting in the tops of tall pine trees out of reach of the small boy's gun, and the sun still shines at White Salmon. When Main and Bowman get their 10-horse power pumping machine at work on the pumping the Jake spring to a reservoir at 120 feet elevation, to irrigate many acres of strawberries by sprinkling, then where will Hood River be? A side show.

Judge Byrket voted yes on the bond question and has no relatives of school age in the district. It was remarked of him, "I can't see why he should vote yes." The judge is a progressive citizen. It is said he pays more taxes than all of those who voted no. W.

Saved From Terrible Death. The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbit of Bargerston, Tenn., saw her dying and was powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It is the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at Chas. N. Clarke's drug store.

Monthly School Reports. BARRETT DISTRICT. Following is the report of Barrett school, No. 4. The following named pupils were neither tardy nor absent during the month ending January 1, 1904:

- Fern Wright, Jesse Smith, Joe Gerding, Della Smith, Thomas Brown, Grace Hoskins, Nettie King, Katie Camp, Emma Gibbons, Amy Brosius, Lois Steward, Claude Moore, Harry Hoskins, Ella Morse, Viola Thomson, Elsie Moore, William Blocher, Clinton Neaigh, Willie Davidson, George Brown, Grace Sherrick, Elsie Haskins, Carrie Camp, Beatrice Camp, Mary Neaigh, Agnes Mahoney, Raymond Ingalls, May Smith, Kitty Smith, Kent Shoemaker, Lois Friedley, Roy Blocher, C. D. THOMPSON, Principal.

Congratulations. John M. Cullom, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago, when our first child was a baby, he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by all druggists.

Found a Cure for Indigestion. I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly 51 years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now. George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ark. For sale by all druggists.
