WHITE SALMON NOTES.

Miss Mary Wofford, the Glacier's White Salmon correspondent, is sick. This accounts for the White Salmon notes this week. The Glacier hopes Miss Wofford's sickness will not prove serious, and that she will speedily recover from her present illness.

Barrett District. At last, boys, we're up against it, and hardly know what to do; but Chambers is sailing right with us, and he's in the same boat, too. He's got his money invested, and we our strawberries, too; so why can't we counsel together and decide what is best to do? Now, water is what we are after, and we'll water it must get; but we'll have it all same, you bet! Now, Chambers thinks we people are robbers, and we of him think the same; then why not stand in together and try and make good that name? We will let him rob us in charges, and we'll steal all the water we can; but don't ask us to fix your old ditch. But repair it yourself, like a man. If the V. I. Co. will act fairly and give us the water we buy; then, if you say we don't act fairly, why, all we can say is, you —

For there isn't a man in the valley but what means the fair thing to do; so, if your company will treat us justly, you know we'll stand squarely by you. So stop your trying to ditch us by your scheme of thirty to one, and give our strawberries the water, and water that will all the time run. (Since writing the above, we understand that Mr. Chambers has left us without any other proposition. This gives us new thoughts.) Mr. Chambers has done gone and left us, and so has his man Friday, too; but the joker Friday left with the land-lord, as security for his board that was due. Now, boys, let's organize for protection, and give us a committee authority to protect us from being bled. Our committee is composed of good men, and they are hard workers, too; then let us stand by their action and uphold them whatever they do. It's no use to be talking and balking on each Saturday afternoon; blowing off hot air to no purpose — we might as well talk to the moon. Let us get right down to business, but do business in a lawful way by organizing a legal company, and do so next Saturday.

Then we can take such measures that the law says we may do; then come out and sign together. To hereafter stand steadfast and true. Smallpox has taken a new hold in this district, and several families are down with it, but we are pleased to be able to state that there are no serious cases so far. A certain young lady in this district has accused your correspondent of discriminating against her by not mentioning the public that she has had the smallpox, and that her heretofore good looking face is all pitted over; that her beauty is gone; that she is all wrinkled; that she looks hideous; that she even looks like an old maid; that she has gone to practicing physical culture; inaugurated a dumb-bell exercise; purchased a lung expanding machine; gets up in the middle of the night to practice with Indian clubs; has considered the subject of purchasing a punching bag, and a pair of 16-oz gloves; expects to use stunts during the deep snow; is taking swimming lessons to be prepared when the snow melts; actually refused to attend school on Friday night; has a few more valentines that were taken before her beauty faded; hasn't got any beaux; can spit wood if necessary; and has such a lovely disposition that she would be willing to make the fire on cold mornings, and last, but not least, is a great lover of cats. If she has any other fascinating qualities she has not reported them to us, but we've up our delinquency in not fully reporting or diagnosing her case, and will promise to be on our good behavior from this time on. We are glad to note that Professor Thompson's family have all recovered from their late illness and the professor is a happy resident among his own flesh and blood.

Mrs. J. N. Bridges will give a Martha Washington tea at her commodious home on Washington's birthday, Friday, February 22, 1904, at from 1 to 4 o'clock p. m. All members and friends of the Valley Christian church are especially invited, and we advise you all to get there in the right clothes; who haven't an invitation to be present, and having got back our usual, or unusual, appetite, unless you get in on the first table — well those who have witnessed any of our gastronomic feasts need no further admonitions, and those who haven't can learn by experience. There will be charged the nominal fee of 10 cents. We expect, of course, that some one will lend us the price. As we are fully aware of the delightful hospitalities usually dispensed by Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, we predict a royal time for those who attend. The tea is given for the benefit of the ladies' aid society of the Valley Christian church. S. A. Skinner has dabbled in too much water, and has had the best of it, but is now able to make a first class hand at the table. A. J. Emerson also imbibed too freely of water at the meeting last week, and his increased weight was noted, and for his buggy spring, which broke, leaving him the delightful prospect of having to walk home, but by the use of a bale of wire and a barrel of patience he managed to get home all right. The ladies' aid of the Valley Christian church will meet this week, at the home of Mrs. H. D. Steward. Mrs. E. E. Rogester, organist of the Valley Christian church, who has been assisting in the song service at the revival services of the Christian church at Athena, Or., returned home last Wednesday evening, and reports having a very enjoyable time. She also reports that during the revival, which was under the direction of Rev. J. W. Jenkins, late pastor of the Christian church here, there were 132 additions to the church there. Since coming home Mrs. Rogester's daughter, Marguerite has been quite ill. We sincerely trust that she may soon be out again. Remember the 10 cent Martha Washington tea at the home of Mrs. J. N. Bridges on next Friday afternoon from 1 to 4.

There will be patriotic exercises at the Barrett school house on the afternoon of Washington's birthday. All are invited. One of the young men in this neighborhood is having a hard time. He seems to be the only young man who has a sleigh, and all the girls in the neighborhood are, for the present, dead stuck on him. We warn him, however, not to let his head swell, for they will drop him the moment a new sleigh comes to the neighborhood.

E. M. Camp, while chopping down a tree, had the misfortune to have a tree limb drop on his foot. While it lines him up with the cripples, we are glad to say that he will soon be on deck again.

The Nealghe and family are all lamed up with the prevailing disease, but are getting along finely. Now, Mr. Duke Valley, I'll admit that with your intimate relation to the guinea hen you are better able to explain just when a guinea hen becomes a rooster than we can, so we accept your apology. As to what ship carries the most people, is easy. Ask any young girl and she'll tell you, courtship, and I have to accept her opinion. (Which shows the effect the company we keep has on us. If our correspondent was affiliated with the politicians of Barrett instead of running after the pretty girls, he would have said the ship of state carried the most passengers.—Ed.)

In the Odell District. B. T. Young is at The Dalles attending court, having been drawn as juror. A sleighing party of young people from town were out last Thursday evening and had a pleasant time at C. G. Roberts'.

George Walters has returned to his home near The Dalles to spend a few days until our school commences again.

F. T. Shelby was up from Portland last week for a day or two.

Harry Bailey, our general mail carrier, was unable to get through with the mail Monday, on account of the roads not being broke out. We had quite a heavy fall of snow Sunday, and the road in some places had not been opened up, so that Mr. Bailey, about noon that day, turned back after having got only about four miles out. We all appreciate having a daily mail and should see that next time the roads are kept open.

L. D. Boyd last week hauled up a quantity of 3-inch pipe to lay from his well to the reservoir on the hill. Mr. Boyd has one of the best wells in the valley. He has installed a gasoline engine, with which he can irrigate a number of acres.

One of the best parts of Hood River valley is as yet without an irrigating system—the country between the Lentz ranch and that section near Dethman's, although they do not need water to grow the big red apple; yet for gardens and meadows water is a great help. We understand Mr. Bone has promised to put in a lateral this spring if the farmers will contract a certain amount of water, which they will certainly do, as Mr. Bone will probably have the water ready to use for this year's crop.

Menominee Items. Sleighing is all the go. Our genial friend, J. E. Cameron, general manager of the Menominee Lumber Co., treated all the people of this village to a sleigh ride. Valentines day has come and gone. Everybody reports having received a valentine. The question is, who sent them?

Rumor has it that there will be a wedding in this vicinity in the near future. May joy and peace reign supreme. Lewis Kresse, foreman of the mill, who has been confined to his room with the grip for the past week, we are glad to report is on the road to recovery. Our jolly friend, Ed Greenwood, was in Hood River one day last week on legitimate business, accompanied by his friend O. L. Redish. I wish you could have heard J. C. O'Neill, Mr. Clark and Mr. Cahoon singing the other night. It was charming—enough to captivate any lady's heart. We are informed that Ed Greenwood, O. L. Redish, J. C. O'Neill and Mr. Tally will give an entertainment at the city hall in the near future.

Master Wells Cameron of Portland, son of J. E. Cameron, spent a few days here this week with friends. Mrs. J. P. Day arrived home today after a short visit with friends at Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler of Hood River were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cameron Sunday. Our chief cook, known as Louie, reports the loss of two chickens that disappeared very mysteriously on the night of the 13th. Five dollars will be paid for the apprehension and conviction of the thief.

Trout Lake News Notes. Intended for last week. William Frost, of Menominee was a Trout Lake visitor this week. Coulter's logging camp is running full blast and putting in an average of 65,000 feet of logs a day. Joseph Erni's little girl, who was so unfortunate as to have her arm broken in a runaway recently is rapidly improving. Chapman Bros., our general merchants, have sold out their stock to Bud Blew. The boys are now going to try their hand at logging.

W. W. Moore, the new postmaster, is afraid to leave home for fear of some one stealing the post office. Harry Powers, the veteran logger, has finished his contract with the Menominee Lumber Co., and is now logging on his own place. Mr. Frost was up to scale the logs last week. Miss Lizzie Huber is on an extended visit to friends in Portland. The Guler hotel is enjoying a liberal patronage this winter. B. C. Hamilton is going to start a barber shop in Trout Lake in the near future.

The splashes made recently by the Menominee Lumber Co's dam at Trout Lake have undermined the abutments of the Bose bridge, so that it is not safe for travel. Ask Mr. Bose and Mr. Fritz how they like to go to Camas Prairie after hay. Mrs. Mary Holt is rapidly recovering from her recent illness. The Sunnyside telephone line is now finished. The following settlers have their homes connected by telephone: W. F. Stadelman, F. Coate, E. A. Byrket, A. Kingman, A. E. Sparks, C. A. Pearson, Kendenburg & Sellinger, C. H. Pearson, Chapman Bros., Guler's hotel, C. M. Woffard & Co's store, C. W. Moore, H. Ladiges, J. Clisterbos, William Coate. Coste Bros. are furnishing Coulter's logging camp with beef. George Camp was appointed agent for a rug machine and having a good number on hand can supply all demands. We wonder if Claus Pearson will always live alone on the Hidden Beauty ranch. Mrs. A. E. Sparks was visiting the Stadelman family, Saturday last. Miss Sophia Stadelman is confined to her bed most of the time. Wade Dean likes the new stage route better than the old one. We wonder why. Edward Novak has just recovered from a severe cold that threatened to develop into pneumonia. The cheese factory is running at full capacity and is turning out many rolls of butter daily. Some miscreant deliberately tore down the White Salmon telephone line and cut out a piece 40 feet long. Certain parties are suspected. J. Clisterbos went to Camas Prairie, repairing the line and putting in some new instruments last week. It is reported that Joseph Erni has sold his farm. E. B. Miller, our principal, will move his family from Goldendale about the first of April. Miss Gertie Winston took in the dance at Husum, last Saturday. W. F. Stadelman paid a visit to Camas Prairie this week. Mr. Huber and the Aeral boys started sleighing this week, on the Huber place. The Artisans had their usual business meeting and took in a new member last Saturday.

Notes From Underwood. By the school children. Snow, show, everywhere. On the ground and in the air. Sleighing in the order of the day; but where are the sleigh bells? The attendance is very small in school during these snowy days. The party at Ed Underwood's, last Tuesday evening, in honor of Corbett's eighth birthday, was well attended. Over 60 were present, and a very pleasant time was reported. Where were our notes last week? Were they overtaken by the snow storm? At least they did not appear. They, with other interesting matter, were smothered under the flood of irrigation news that filled the Glacier.—Ed.] Will Wendorf left for Portland, last Tuesday, on business. A four-horse team hitched to a sleigh filled with a crowd of young people, drew reins before Mr. Haynes' door, last Saturday evening and took them all by storm. A pleasant evening was spent. The valentine box, Friday afternoon, was not as successful as it might have been on account of the weather. Mr. Haynes had another accident last Saturday evening. He accidentally stepped on a rusty nail, which has laid him up, and he was not able to carry the sleigh Tuesday. Deputy Sheriff Totten of Stevenson was up Tuesday on business. Ed Lyons is worse again since the snow came. W. Underwood carried the mail for Mr. Haynes, Tuesday. (Intended for last week.) Mrs. P. Sorenson has been confined to her bed on account of the grip. At last report she was improving. Miss Lena Kellendonk returned from Portland, where she has been the past two weeks. Charlie Thornton and wife from Vancouver are moving up to their place at Thorntonville. A. J. Haynes' brother and family from Hood River spent Sunday with him. While here they visited the hatchery. A. J. Haynes met with quite an accident last Thursday. While coming with the mail from Chenoweth, his horse slipped and fell on top of him, bruising him considerably. Fortunately he escaped without any more injuries. The school board has a new pain, a window pane.

Nearly Forfeits His Life. A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. E. O'Brien, Franklin, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica saved him no trouble to cure him. Equally good for burns, bruises, skin eruptions and piles. 25c. at Chas. N. Clarke's drug store.

Unequalled for Constipation. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action, and with no tendency to nauseate or grip. For sale by all druggists."

Rheumatism Positively Cured. The California Medical Company will refund to the customer the money that he pays the druggist in case he is not cured of rheumatism by the use of
