The Glacier takes pleasure in endorsing the candidacy of J. T. Neff for the nomination for county school superintendent on the republican ticket. Mr. school before he was called to accept the principalship of The Dalles high school. Hood River people can therefore almost claim him as their own candidate. If Neff taught four years in the Frankton nominated, he will poll an immerse vote irrespective of party or factions. but the interest must not be over 10 Mr. Neff is the ablest educator in Was. Mr. Neff is the ablest educator in Wasco county and stands high in the educational circles of Oregon. No man can be found more honest and conscientious in his work, even to the smallest detail. He is very popular with Wasco county school teachers, and has hundreds of friends in Hood River who hope to see him nominated and elected.

The Portland Journal, two years old tomorrow, March 11, has arranged to put out a Sunday morning issue, beginning March 20. An able staff of writers The Glacier has been secured, and the management proposes to make the Sunday Journal the most popular newspaper ever issued in Oregon. It will have its own leased wire service to cover the news fully and adequately. Judging from the rapid strides made by the Portland Journa' since its first appearance, this paper is bound to make good. Its 15,000 daily circulation is attracting a large advertising patronage.

Compliments from the Press. The Hood River Glacier's motto is "It's a cold day when we get left." But from the big batch of local news the the Glacier publishes, no very cold day occurs even up there under the moun-tains.—Portland Journal.

The Hood Piver Glacier is now a well come visitor at this office. It is one of the best weekly newspapers in Oregon.

MAYOR T. R. COON RESIGNS

The reading of a letter from Attorney W. T. Hume, shortly after the council convened Monday night, stirred up a regular hornet's nest, the whole affair ending with Mayor Coon tendering his resignation and leaving the meeting.

Mr. Hume asserts that he was sick in a Portland hospital when the Fouts case came up for raview before Indea Read came up for review before Judge Bradshaw, and that snap judgment was tak-en by settling the case in his absence. Mr. Hume stated that Mr. Fouts had repeatedly made the remark in Portland that he (Fouts) owned the council, and whatever Hume asked of the city would be promptly turned down. Humes wanted to know if he was expected to go on with the case, saying the city stood a good chance to have a rehearing in the Fouts writ of review, with a final judgment in its favor. The attorney said he didn't care to procede further without a remittance. He presented no bill, but hinted at a suit against the town if the council showed no inclination to recompense him for what he has done. Councilman Early contended that sickness would excuse no lawyer for losing a case. He was anxious to call off Mr. Hume at once. Councilman Mayes considered it was up to the council to see a wrong righted, and in his opinion the city should go on the band boys, and for that matter the whole town, owe a debt of gratitude. No one has done more for the band than Captain Shaw. He sets a good example for others in his assistance to public enterprises. The town has done nicely by the band, and the people may rest assured the boys will do by them.

The band concert at Barrett schoo house, last Friday night, netted a near sum, but the following night, at Sears' ball, the boys did not fare so well, because of stormy weather and bad roads. The minstrel work is splendid, and a rowded house is expected in town Friday night.
