

NEW SPRING GOODS FOR EASTER

Now Ready at the Up-to-Date Store of
FRANK A. CRAM'S.

The new goods were never so rich in appearance and were never so LOW PRICED as they will be this season at this store. Our cash system permits us to take every advantage of the market as we sell for cash we are enabled to buy with cash, thus insuring our increasing list of customers the best goods produced for the least possible cost. We own every staple we require this year at prices based on 8c cotton, and no matter who raises prices on these goods we will not, as we have bought and paid for them at the lowest cash price, and can sell cotton goods as cheap as most merchants can buy the same goods for, all remarks to the contrary notwithstanding.

We are going after the biggest year's business we have ever known, and have the prices to offer as inducement to you to help us swell the grand total.

Our expenses are the lowest that exist. Our goods are all sold for spot cash. We buy everything for spot cash.

When we sell 12 pairs of shoes we get the money for every pair. Can we sell the shoes cheaper than the man who sells 12 pairs and gets paid for 10 pairs, and loses the price of two pairs?

Who pays for the two pairs that some one failed to pay for?

You are all too good business men and women not to know that those who pay for the shoes they get, also pay for the shoes which some one else got, but did not pay for. The merchant can't lose it. His business must show interest on the investment, so he must charge more for goods than the cash store sells them for. A trial is convincing.

NOTE---A complete stock of Butterick Patterns on hand. All Butterick publications for sale here.

Yours Truly,

FRANK A. CRAM.

Don't raise cull strawberries, but force them into large sized fruit by an application of No. 4 fertilizer to be had at the Davidson Fruit Co. Strong in potash and nitrogen. It pays well and should be applied as early as possible after February 1.

The Oregon Fire Relief Association has now in force $16,000,000 of insurance in 30,000 separate risks. This is several millions more than is carried in the state by the largest of 55 old line companies operating here, and that, notwithstanding the fact that the association takes no business risks. The average cost per annum for insurance in this association, during the nearly ten years of its existence, has been less than half the cost in standard companies, and always on the easiest possible method of payment. It has thus saved to its members, during the 12 months of 1903 alone, the enormous sum of $118,630.50, while during the same time it paid 180 losses and had cash left in its treasury nearly sufficient to pay 180 more. For further particulars address Hugh Gourlay, general agent for Wasco and Sherman counties, The Dalles.

Buy a Benicia steel HILLSIDE PLOW of the Davidson Fruit Co. They are all right on level as well as hillside ground. No ridges nor dead furrows, and cost no more than an ordinary plow.

The order of Washington will give a masquerade ball at Artisan hall Friday evening, April 1. Masqueraders 50c; spectators 25c. Four prizes will be given.

For Sale—Household goods: cook stove; lounge; linoleum, etc.

Mrs. J. E. HANNA.

Have you registered?

Home Davenport, the famous cartoonist, will lecture at The Dalles April 25.

Mrs. U. S. Enderby died at her home near Wapinitia, March 12, aged 38 years.

Miss Teal returned from Portland last Saturday, after a stay of six weeks. Miss Teal's friends will be sorry to learn that she is confined to her home on account of acute stomach trouble.

Mrs. Harrell entertained a few friends last Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin, Mr. Marzan, who left Thursday for Nez Perce, Idaho, where he is engaged in business. Mr. Marzan was favorably impressed with Hood River, though he saw it at a very poor season.

The house of Robert Cameron, at Marquette, took fire, last Friday, from the chimney and the roof was burned off before the fire could be subdued. Water had to be carried in buckets to put out the fire, and the fire-fighters did well to save the building. The piano was badly damaged by the water.

C. Rosenkrantz of Underwood, Wash., was in town Saturday. He reported that two inches of fresh snow fell at his place on the morning of March 19. The late spring is hindering work on the north side of the Columbia as well as on this side. Recently Mr. Rosenkrantz and Mr. Latty put up a railing on the bridge across the White Salmon river, making travel over the bridge more safe than it has been.

Miss Lizzie Roberts has been having quite a serious experience lately. About three weeks ago she slipped on an icy place and severely sprained her left ankle, leaving her tottering. She went on crutches and her ankle was doing nicely until one day last week when she again slipped and sprained the same ankle, and now her condition is worse than at the first. Her hurt is very painful, and Miss Roberts has the sympathy of her many friends.

J. R. Ballard visited an old friend of his at Hood River last week. He says they told wonderful tales of what their fruit growers do up there, and if the half be true, then a gold mine is not in it for value as compared with an apple orchard or a strawberry field. One man with a 30-acre orchard claimed to have cleared $800 per acre last year. Hood Riverites think no land under the sun can grow such fruit as these and they value it accordingly. — Forest Grove Times.

Miss Ruth Disbrow came down from Mount Hood, Monday, on her way to University Park. She has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Allen Macrum, since January 10, where she passed a very pleasant time, if they did have lots of snow. Her father, A. S. Disbrow, has traded his place at University Park and bought 700 acres of land near Nashville, Lincoln county, Oregon, where he will go into the goat business extensively. His brother, A. L. Disbrow, will go in partnership with him. Mr. Disbrow expects to move with his family to his new home about April 1.

The dinner given by the ladies of the W. R. C. on St. Patrick's day was well patronized by the good people of Hood River, and a neat little sum was realized that will go toward the fund being raised for the G. A. R. encampment, June 15-17. The dinner was said by all who partook of the same, to be the best yet served during the season. The ladies got up a regular country fare dinner, something that is always relished by business men in town.

C. P. Ross blowed in from Umatilla, Monday morning. He came down to put in a few hard days' work on his place south of town, where he hopes some day in the not distant future to make his home again. He has 10 acres, but he sometimes thinks that it is too much for one man to own and work and he may be induced for the right kind of consideration to part with several acres.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nickelson and son were in Portland Saturday. They were witnesses to the severe wind storm that visited Portland that day, when top buggies were overturned and signs and awnings flew around, making it unsafe for pedestrians on the streets. Mr. Nickelson took in the republican convention.

E. C. Mooney was up from Portland, Monday, to close the deal with the base ball club for three acres of his land. Mr. Mooney is employed in the standard box factory. He hopes that things may soon take a turn so that he can move back to Hood River with his family.

Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Shaw returned, Monday, from their Eastern trip. They went as far East as the Atlantic coast. The doctor's advice to those who desire to visit in the East is not to go in the winter time. He says the cold weather was simply awful.

Some one traded umbrellas with George Slocum at the Unitarian church, Monday evening, leaving a poor one in its stead. Mr. Slocum would like to have his umbrella returned. On the handle are the initials—G. I. S.

Mrs. Harrell is laid up with rheumatism, and is hardly able to get about the house. She says in the future she will be very careful about lifting bread of her own making.

Rev. J. T. Merrill will preach at the U. R. church next Sabbath morning and evening. The Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning service.

A. F. Smith was in town Monday, from Pine Flat, Wash. He says there were three inches of snow left at his place on Sunday.

The women's alliance will meet this week at the home of Mrs. J. F. Watt, Friday, at 2 o'clock.

Miss Laura Dunne of Portland arrived on Tuesday's train and is visiting Mrs. C. T. Early.

Mrs. W. H. Eccles and daughter of Ogdan are in the city this week.

S. E. Bartness went to Portland, Friday, to take the examination before the state board of health as undertaker and embalmer. He had already two high honors, but the state required this examination, according to the new law. Mr. Bartness returned home Monday. He reports heavy wind and rain storms prevailing all the time he was in the city. At one time his hat blew off and disappeared from sight at once. A kind-hearted stranger ran after the hat and recovered it after a lively chase for a full block. Hats and packages went up in all directions, causing great sport for those who could hold their hats on. Oregon night at the Unitarian church, Monday, called out a full house. Reminiscence of Hood River in 1861, by Captain Coe; a trip from Portland to Idaho in 1882, by Mrs. Jay P. Lucas; early railroading on the O. R. & N., by W. J. Baker; and pioneer times in Oregon, by Captain J. P. Shaw, were interesting throughout. Hon. E. L. Smith's stories of Indian mythology were not the least entertaining part of the programme. The music by Clarence Gilbert and Miss Anne Smith was excellent.

The O. L. & W. Co. made many good sales during the week. The one that pleased us as much as any was the sale of fifteen acres to W. T. Hibbard of Hood River. We mentioned Mr. Hibbard's presence in our last issue, and now he "is one of us." When the best and most progressive farmers of that famous tract, like the Hibbards, cast their lot with us they say, by their very presence, "Irrigon is all right, and from such men that speaks volumes.—Irrigon Irrigator.

C. H. Stanton was up from Viento, Saturday. He says the Oregon Lumber still have a half dozen men employed at that place. The planer is run occasionally. Mrs. Stanton's health is poor. She has been bedfast for several months. Mr. Stanton expects to move back to his ranch in Lutes Valley just as soon as his wife is able to stand a trip. The members and friends of the ladies aid society of the Pine Grove Congregational church will meet at the residence of Mrs. T. C. Rice, Thursday, March 31, at 2 p. m., to effect a new organization of the society. All interested are expected to be present.

Mrs. O. L. Stranahan is in Portland, who has come to see her new grand-daughter, who came to the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. Ethel Anderson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mooney.

Miss Gladys Hartley spent the three days vacation between winter and spring term at home, returning to Forging Tuesday morning.

J. Casper Davidson, son of Jesse Davidson, arrived here, Sunday, from Ohio, to make his home with his father in the Mount Hood settlements.

First Strawberries.—J. J. Turner yesterday brought in from the place he sold to S. H. Cox a handful of strawberries in different stages of ripening.

S. E. Bartness has employed a professional upholsterer, and is now preparing to do all kinds of upholstering work.

Miss Prudence Patterson of The Dalles spent Monday in Hood River, the guest of Miss Hartley.

Mrs. Dr. Edgington of Wasco spent Saturday in Hood River, the guest of her brother, Colonel Hartley.

Mrs. C. B. Atterbury returned, last week, from California, where she spent the winter.

The Congregational aid society will meet Friday afternoon of this week with Mrs. Crowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Entertain. Reckon you'll come To a rag time affair. Don't fail to be there.

It was a very smart function, and one of the notable events of the many successful affairs of the social season this winter in Hood River. Progressively it was the game of the evening, but everywhere there were suggestions of the "coon" and "rag-time." The score cards were hand-painted and cut to represent slices of "watermelon." As winning cards were dealt, the crowd around the card table defied draped about the rooms were large red bandannas. When the series of games was played, the card tables were bunched and more bandannas appeared, used this time for covers. The refreshments served were delicious. The prizes were distributed. With three of the ladies it was a tie for first prize. The draw was decided by cutting for the highest card, and the award went to Mrs. Edward Blythe.

Mrs. Ralph Savage secured second prize in the entertainment. The prizes of things, the booby award went to Mr. Blythe. He received a night lamp, with the injunction to improve each shining hour in the study of Hoyle.

The drawing room floors were then cleaned and partners selected for a card walk. Staid Mr. Jayne couldn't be persuaded to participate in this event, so with Mr. Stewart he acted as judge of the finish. Mrs. Chipping was declared the best lady dancer, while the cake went to Mr. Gray and Mrs. Sand. The rewards were applied placed.

The enticing strains of a dreamy waltz were struck up, and dancing continued until the goodnights were said. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart had done everything for the entertainment, which their guests, and the assurance that it had been a pleasant evening was truly genuine.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jayne, Mr. and Mrs. Friday, Dr. and Mrs. Dumble, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Vanden, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Chipping, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. Blythe, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Early, Mr. and Mrs. Cram, Dr. and Mrs. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Messrs. Butler, A. P. Bateham, W. Davidson, G. I. Slocum.

That Rag Carpet Party. Friday, March 18, was banner day on the state road. Mrs. Tom Calkins gave a "rag party" at which the chief source of amusement was sewing carpet rags and punishing one of the most delicious noonday lunches. The ladies served a delightful time visiting with one another as they alternately labored and absorbed the good things from Mrs. Calkins' well-laid table, and they stayed so late that a howl went up from all the neglected old men along the state road. Those present were Mrs. Tom Calkins, Mrs. E. D. Calkins, Mrs. John Hinrichs, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. R. Noble, Mrs. D. C. Garrabrant, Mrs. Sam Koplin, Mrs. Hiseock, Mrs. Worley, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. D. N. Byerlee, M. R. Noble and D. C. Garrabrant. What is harrowing the souls of the paternalist along the state road is why it was that those two last named old gannets, M. R. and D. C., should be taken in and jollied up all day and fed on the fat of the land, while the rest of us were turned down, made to stay at home and wrestle with the rocks and fill up our gastronomic compartments with liver and cold potatoes. There was one redeeming feature, Uncle Ed Calkins was there to chaperone the giddy creatures, otherwise there would've

Royal Tailor suits at Knapp's. Knapp's Buttonless suspenders. NEW—the Buttonless suspenders at Knapp's.

Found—W. H. Davis found a pair of child's shoes and left office at 10:15. We are closing out Utah land plaster at $13 a ton. Davidson Fruit Co. A. J. Haynes at Underwood had severe colds of thoroughbred Buffington eggs for sale at $1 for 15.

Democratic County Convention. The democratic county central committee met at The Dalles, March 19, pursuant to the call of Chairman F. A. Seufert. A call was issued for a county convention to be held in The Dalles on Saturday, April 16.

The convention will consist of 90 delegates, the appointment of whom was based on the vote cast for George E. Chamberlain for governor in 1902, being one delegate for each 15 votes cast, or major fraction thereof. April 9 was fixed upon as the date for holding the primaries.
