Barrett District.

What's the matter with that peppy old grand dog? We thought Bishop did him up, but this cold spell contradicts that fairy story. He told us about the trip he made, or else the meeting of a couple of young damsels on the mountain had some extraordinary effect on Thomas, Sr.'s imagination, eh?

Mrs. M. S. Dunn had the misfortune to step on a nail, and it being harder than her foot, she declines to do any pedestrianism for some time.

Mrs. John A. Wilson visited with her daughters at The Dalles last week, returning on Saturday.

W. R. Hoole, of Coppel & Hoole, has been appointed notary public by Gov. Chamberlain, and is now prepared to execute all legal documents. He will take acknowledgements, etc. But he gives due notice that he does not issue marriage licenses.

Ray Imbler, who has been sojourning in the state of Washington for several days, has returned with a peculiar bluish upon his cheeks. He says, however, that it is nothing that is catching unless you come into personal contact with some one affected with the same disease.

Two ladies of this district had a vicious battle with a turkey gobbler one day last week. The gobbler objected to the ladies visiting his mistress, and having no watch dog to guard the house, Mr. Gobbler took the duty on himself. One of the ladies was armed with an umbrella and a G. A. R. sandwich. Her first attempt to use the umbrella, however, proved disastrous. The gobbler ducked and the lady raising the resistance she expected, was precipitated several feet beyond the equilibrium line. Dropping her G. A. R. sandwich on the ground, she restored her equanimity, and adroitly side-stepped in time to avoid a vicious lunge of her antagonist, who, before he could recover his velocity, ran head on against the sandwich, which dashed him and set him wobbling. He got his second wind, however, before the lady could pursue her advantage, and came again with both feet, attempting a knock-out blow, but the lady was equal to the occasion, and with both hands clutching the umbrella, she sent Mr. G. A. R. a blow in the solar plexus which caused the stars to shine to the extent that he discovered the G. A. R. sandwich. Thinking it a toothsome morsel, and being in need of refreshments, he at once proceeded to get out of it. Result: One dazed gobbler, two very much frightened ladies and a boy up a tree. We wouldn't tell the ladies' names for the world.

There will be special music rendered by the choir of the Valley Christian Church next Sunday at the morning service. We would advise all lovers of good music to be present and enjoy a treat.

Mrs. Thos. Bishop left last Tuesday for a week's visit with friends in Sherman county.

Lovers of good music enjoyed a rare treat at both morning and evening services at the Valley Christian Church last Sunday. At the morning service Mrs. T. A. Reavis sang a large selection of beautiful contralto solo: "Not Ashamed of Jesus." At the evening service Mrs. T. A. Reavis and Mrs. E. E. Register favored the congregation with a duet, entitled, "Annie's Prayer for the New Mother." Mrs. Register also sang a sweet solo, entitled, "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters." These two ladies, assisted by the balance of the choir of this church, are making a reputation that is drawing people from all over the valley to the Sunday services.

The club's debts all being settled, quite an animated meeting was held at the corners last Saturday night. If cork screws are any evidence of democracy, then the entire club are democrats, for even George maintains that he has a right to bring an instrument of that nature when the club holds an executive session. Star-gazing was the main feature of the evening.

J. B. Lister, secretary of the Oregon Christian association, with headquarters at Eugene, was a visitor and preached for the congregation at the Valley Christian church last Sunday. We learn that he intends to buy property in this district and at no distant date become a permanent resident here. Mr. Lister is one of those men whom it is a pleasure to have for a neighbor, and we gladly welcome him to our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clark and son, Newton, Jr., came up from Cascade Locks, accompanied by Miss Jeannette Clark, of Portland, Mr. Clark and Miss Jeannette going to their claims in this valley and Mrs. Clark and son spending a week visiting with Miss Jones at Camp Lookout, Newton, Jr. being a distinguished visitor, owing to the fact that he is a great-grandson of Mr. Clark, of Lewis and Clark fame. Newton is a bright little fellow, but he says with much emphasis that he does not care to have anything to do with live gobblers. Dead ones are good enough for him. They all express great surprise and admiration for the great improvements in the Barrett district since their last visit.

Rev. A. A. Berry, of the Valley Christian church, preached an eloquent sermon last Sunday night upon the subject, "What the Valley Christian Church Stands For." Mr. Berry handled his topic in such an able manner that it behooved us to be present.

Everybody is busy with spring work. There is a great scarcity of teams, which is hindering the work.

Belmont Clippings. Miss Boss Isenberg has gone on a pleasure trip to California. Sam Kelly is building a barn on his farm at Hardscrabble. Mrs. Joseph Frazier, sr., was a guest of Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen, Tuesday. Miss Alice Church has returned home from Turner. A crowd of young folks gathered at the home of Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen, Friday evening. The evening was spent in playing games and pulling taffy. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf and Mildred were visitor on the East Side Sunday.

Sing Lee Laundry is now opened and solicits the patronage of the public. Stations sewed on and rips repaired. Give me a trial, and be convinced of satisfactory service. Formerly Yoo Kee Laundry, just west of Snow & Upson's blacksmith shop.

Dukes-Valley Items. The warm days have brought out our ducks, and the water may be seen at the den. C. A. Stanton and W. Massey went to the den and killed ten the other day. W. G. Dodson and family have left our valley and are much missed; but Dukes Valley's loss will be Barton's gain. Noah Stuts has leased William Dodson's place for one year and is making it his home. Ate Stults is on his homestead after an absence of about 18 months. His brother went to Salem and got him. He seems to be much improved in health. We understand C. R. Bone is to go to work on the ditch soon. We would be glad to hear of his going to work soon, as it looks as though we would want water if the warm weather continues.

Our Sunday school was small last Sunday. Let us all turn out next Sunday. As the weather is good now there is no reason why we should not have a good Sunday school. Rev. David Morris was out and preached to us at 3 o'clock. He comes on the 2d and 4th Sundays now. Mr. Morris is a good talker. Let every one come to hear him.

Dukes valley is having some counter-feit parties. They are given out under the name of party to get a crowd. Then they play a few games and then turn it into a regular old fashioned dance. Why not call it a dance at the start, and then those who do not want to dance will not go to hinder those who enjoy the sport?

There was a surprise party at Mr. Massey's a short time ago, but the surprise was on the wrong party. Strawberries on Willow Flat look fine, but Dukes valley has no berries to boast of.

Mount Hood Notes. Hon. D. E. Cooper and James Wishart were in Portland, Monday, where they purchased tickets for Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Wishart to make their trip to Scotland. They will start from Hood River, April 11 and will be gone about three months. Their many friends wish them a pleasant voyage and safe return. Robert Leasure sold, last Saturday, 40 acres of his land to W. S. Tower, from Southern Oregon. The price received was $350. The land lies along the river and all bottom land. E. Hennes, returned, Sunday, from Oregon City, where he spent the last three months. The dam of the Davenport Bros. Lumber Company, on Graham creek, was finished Saturday, and the men and teams pulled out for Parkertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leasure left, Tuesday, for Montesano, Wash., where they will visit with an aunt of Mr. Leasure. William Edick is hauling lumber for the Fortner's Irrigating Co. He is hauling to the head of the flume and from there it will be floated to where needed.

At the Hazelwood Parlors SPECIAL FOR Wednesdays and Sundays. Neapolitan Bricks, Strawberry, Vanilla and Chocolate Flavors. Special attention given to Party Orders and Sunday Dinners. Phone 723.

Olympic Patent Family Flour (now on this market to stay) is guaranteed, and will make a greater quantity of better bread than any other flour costing as much or more money than Olympic. Mr. J. E. Rand is giving away Olympic Flour, at his store, beginning Thursday, May 5th. We take this means to introduce the popular Olympic Flour to the Hood River housewife, and Mr. Rand will be pleased to have you call on him and get a chance on a 50-lb. sack of Olympic with any purchase you make in either the Grocery or Dry Goods departments.

The Portland Flouring Mills Co. Makers of Olympic Cake and Pastry Flour, Olympic Pancake Flour, Olympic Wheat Hearts-a-Mush.
