Japanese and Russians Engage in Furlous Skirmish.

St. Petersburg, June 16 .- General Stackelberg, through the army headquarters at Harbin, reports a number of desperate skirmishes with the Jap and in one of which the Russian Gen eral Gernross was severely wounded At midday yesterday an entire di vision of Japanese made a desperate at tack on the left flank of the Russian position at Vafangow. They attacked in three columns, and after shelling the Russians with heavy artillery made a furious bayonet charge in the face of a heavy charge of rapid-fire guns and musketry. The desperation of the Japanese charge is shown by the fact that some of them succeeded in getting with-in a few yards of the Russian trenches before they were shot down. They
