

Hood River Glacier

THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1904.

The concluding number of Volume 4 of the University of Oregon Weekly, issued commencement week by a publication committee of the alumni, is a very creditable production.

The Water Co. is doing all in its power to supply the city with water through the present inadequate system. They promise something better as soon as capital can be secured to finance the undertaking. In the meantime, if the patrons of the system will obey the rules of the company with regard to the hours for irrigating there should be no very great inconvenience from the shortage. Stealing water from the company means stealing water from your neighbor.

Here is an opportunity for the new Hood River Commercial club: A convention will be held in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday, August 2 and 3, under the auspices of the Portland Commercial club for the purpose of organizing an Oregon Development league. Every editor in Oregon will be a delegate at large. The mayor of every city and town, the county commissioners, president of every commercial, industrial, mining, horticultural, agricultural, stockraising, irrigation, dairy and other associations in Oregon, which have for their purpose the upbuilding and betterment of this state, will have the right to name delegates, and upon the floor the smallest locality will have the same vote as the city of Portland.

Hood River farmers will do well to ponder over the suggestions H. F. Davidson offers in an interview published in another column of this issue of the Glacier. Mr. Davidson probably has the strawberry situation better in hand than any other man in Hood River. In addition to the suggestions Mr. Davidson offers the growers, he says the question of freight rates is becoming a serious one. The Northern Pacific company deliberately advanced the freight charges 20 per cent or more this year, and the O. R. & N. refused to haul the C. F. X. cars unless there was a train of five or more cars. This prohibited the Hood River berries from going into the southern markets when the price was good there. If one or two cars could have gone into the Middle West and Southern markets each day for a week before the berries were dumped in by the train load the good prices could have been taken advantage of, says Mr. Davidson. The railroad companies are making too good a thing out of the Hood River strawberries. They know the fruit here sells well and they have taken advantage of the shippers to demand more than their share of the spoils.

Now that the Hassalo Commercial club has been revived with good prospects for an active summer's work, there are already expressions of disapproval at the club having any permanent headquarters. The amount of dues to be levied, the name of the club shall go by, etc. These are all very well and good and indicate that something more than a passing thought is being given to the subject. Such matters will very properly come before the club at its first meeting, Tuesday night, July 5, when they should be settled by a majority vote. But there is one thing the Glacier would very much prefer to see, and that is a neatly furnished permanent headquarters. The present headquarters do very well, and the rent is by no means excessive. Without such headquarters the club would often fall short in its accomplishments. Such rooms furnish comfortable meeting places. They will be needed when the club entertains prominent visitors to the city. Suppose immigration or traffic agents of the railroads had a message to deliver in person to the business men of Hood River, what more proper place to receive it than at the rooms of the commercial club? Suppose capitalists wish to talk of putting mills in the town, wouldn't they consider that the business men were more enterprising if they received them in comfortable commercial club rooms, than if met by a straggling delegation of citizens in some real estate office or the city jail? Think it over and endeavor to see the necessity of maintaining permanent headquarters for the new commercial club.

Canby Post Extends Thanks.

The following resolutions were passed at Saturday's meeting of Canby Post, G. A. R.: Whereas, The 23d annual encampment, G. A. R., department of Oregon, held at Hood River last week, was the most successful in point of numbers as well as enthusiasm, ever held in the state, and, Whereas, the success of this reunion of old soldiers is due to the ability of some of our citizens and their unremitting interest given in the affair; therefore be it Resolved, that the thanks of Canby post are due especially to Captain James P. Shaw for his management as chairman of the executive committee, to Hon. E. L. Smith for his endeavor to entertain and make comfortable the visiting comrades and for his able address at the camp fire, to E. T. Winans for his labor in looking after the camp free of charge, to the ladies of the Unitarian society for their successful labors in feeding the multitudes, and to the citizens of Hood River generally for their promptness in throwing open their dwellings to give beds to our visitors.

Front Lake promises a rousing celebration for the Fourth. The exercises of the day will occur on the grounds of the Guler hotel. There is to be a float containing 48 little girls representing the states and territories, and drawn by six white horses. There will also be a goddess of liberty. Professor Miller will read the Declaration of Independence, and Seymour Condon of White Salmon will deliver the oration of the day. After dinner sports will include horse racing, ring riding, racing and other sports. Dancing is to be a prominent feature of the day's celebration. This delightful amusement is billed to begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to last until 6, and then to begin at 8 o'clock and continue all night. Key's band will furnish the music.

Davenport Mill Starts Up.
The Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. started up the new mill on the Berger place, Wednesday of this week. This mill, says Mr. Davenport, has a capacity of 75,000 feet of lumber a day. The mill at the headwaters of Green Point is expected to be in readiness by another month. Mr. Davenport says his company owns 150,000,000 feet of timber within reach of these mills, all of which is paid for.

This company has about completed a ditch to carry 500 inches of water from Green Point to Ditch Creek, where it will be flume to the lumber to the plant mills down the valley. Mr. Davenport says he will have 50 inches of water from Phelps creek for irrigation of his hay lands on the old Barrett place. This water was filed on by Dr. Barrett 30 years ago.

When this canal of 500 inches capacity is completed, it is the company's intention, so Mr. Davenport informs the Glacier, to build a pipe line and bring water from the Green Point springs into the lower Hood River valley. They expect to begin the work of laying pipes to the Barrett ranch this summer.

Death of Edward W. Davenport.
Edward W. Davenport, father of Frank Davenport of the Davenport Bros. Lumber Co., died at his home on the Barrett farm, Monday night, June 27, 1904. Had he lived till August he would have been 82 years old. Mr. Davenport was injured in a fall about two years ago. This, with a steady decline from old age, brought on his death.

Edward W. Davenport was a Utah pioneer of 1850, having crossed the plains with the Mormon immigration of that year. His wife, who survives him, came one year later. He was born in the state of Massachusetts. In Utah he was a member of the Mormon battalion, and one of the band of minute men organized for defense against the Indians. Seventeen years ago, Mr. Davenport moved to Fremont county, Idaho, and in 1891 came to Hood River. Besides a wife he leaves seven children. They are Frank Davenport, John E. Davenport, William E. Davenport, Marcus M. Davenport, Warren E. Davenport, all of Hood River; Mrs. Lora Short of Woodburn, Or.; Mrs. Mary A. Pierce of Paradise, Utah.

Must Answer Serious Charge.
Donnie Wells, 15 years old, is in charge of the Boys and Girls' Aid society, Portland, and 19-year-old Willard Udell, who lived with her unlawfully, was brought over in Justice Nielsen's court, Wednesday afternoon, and is now in jail at the Dalles a sitting trial before the circuit court on a charge that may land him in the penitentiary.

The wayward man and girl were arrested at The Dalles, Monday, on information furnished by Deputy Sheriff O'Fager and Snyder of Hood River. They registered at a Dalles hotel as man and wife. Udell has been employed as cook in a local restaurant. The Wells girl for a time was waiter in the same house.

Too Many Cherries in Seattle.
Special to the Glacier.
Seattle, Wash., June 29.—A. D. Blowers & Co., wholesale commission merchants, report as follows:
"The Seattle market at the present time is overstocked with cherries, and the prices are low. From 50 to 60 cents for 10 pound boxes; strawberries are selling from $1.00 to $1.25; telephone peas 6 cents per pound; wax and string beans 8 cents per pound; raspberries $2.50 per crate; peaches $1 a box; gooseberries 6 cents a pound; currants $1.75 a crate.

Frank A. Gram made a business trip to Portland, Tuesday.
Ed Miller and wife of Mount Hood, returned from Portland, Tuesday.
Miss Birdie Welber of Wasco was in the city Tuesday, visiting Miss Corraan Fowler.
Mr. and Mrs. George D. Calbertson and Major Booth and wife spent Sunday and Monday at their home.

Malcolm A. Moody was a passenger on the noon train from Portland, Friday, on his way to his home at the Dalles.
Mrs. Hannah McKinnin of Portland, an aunt of Mrs. C. H. Stranahan, was in the city on a visit with relatives and friends.
Miss Ethel Sumner, a bright young student of the Oregon City high school, is here on a visit with her cousin, Miss Eva Stranahan.
Mrs. J. S. Waltman of Wilbur, Wash., arrived in Hood River Saturday morning on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. U. Dakin, and family.
Mrs. Claude Copple returned from Eugene, Tuesday, accompanied by her niece, Miss Nellie Hanson of Fairhaven, Wash., and Miss Bessie Day of Eugene.
Uncle Amos Underwood called at the Glacier office Tuesday. He says Henry C. Hald, whose death we chronicled this week, was one of his comrades in the Indian wars.

Captain Sid Scammon of the Dalles City, stopped off Monday night and visited with his mother, who is filling the position of housekeeper for C. H. Stranahan and family.
Dan Mears returned from Parkertown last week, where he had been putting in some concrete work for Davenport's new mill. Mr. Mears has the contract for setting up some new boilers for Davenport's at Greenpoint very soon.
Captain and Mrs. J. P. Shaw left for Portland, Monday morning on the steam-er Dalles City, but not for good says the captain. Before leaving, the captain presented City Marshal Olinger with a lignum vitae "billy."
Arthur Fabrick, brother to Glen Fabrick, returned to his home at Wasco, Sunday night, after spending the berry season in Hood River, where in company with Eph Winans he had charge of being of the refrigerators. Arthur conducts a wheat farm in Sherman county.
Theodore A. Bacon and Miss Ella A. Glanville were united in marriage last Monday night, June 27, at the home of Rev. W. C. Evans. Mr. Bacon is the owner of a strawberry ranch three miles south of Hood River, and Miss Glanville is from Portland. We join in wishing the happy couple a long and successful life together.
The Prather Investment Co. made sales during the week as follows: Sherman Young's 12 acres on the East Side to William Kable of Southern California, for $3,000. Mr. Kable intends to make his home in Hood River. Judd Ferguson's lot on Sherman avenue, south of W. M. Stewart's, to Mr. Orr of Wasco, who will build on the same. Mrs. J. L. Atkinson's fruit farm at Willow Flat, 40 acres, to Mr. Houghtelling of Omaha, who will reside here with his family. The price is given as $5,000.
Clond Cap Inn was opened Wednesday. Mrs. Langille and party going up that day. Already there are tourist parties arranging for trips to the Inn, and indications are that the travel will be heavier than ever this year. As the attractions of this beautiful resort be-

The PARIS FAIR

RETAILERS OF EVERYTHING TO WEAR.

The weather is getting hotter, so are our prices. It will soon be the time of year for you to see advertised so-called Clearance Sales. Merchants who have bought summer goods and marked them up at a 100 per cent profit have the goods yet on hand and must unload them, and will tell you they will give you 30, 40 or 50 per cent discount. Do not make a mistake about these discounts and think you are getting your goods cheaper, it is the net prices that count and not the large discount you are going to get.

Here are a few net prices, not how much we are going to give off on goods marked up 100 per cent, but what you are going to pay for the goods:

No. 8 Blue and White Tea-kettles, not chipped or seconds, but strictly first-class ware. Our price.....	.50

BIG TIME ON THE FOURTH!

ROUSING CELEBRATION TO TAKE PLACE AT HOOD RIVER

$150 FOR DISTRIBUTION IN CASH PRIZES

Base Ball Game Between Chemawa and Hood River--Music by Two Brass Bands--Races, Games, Concert Ball at Night.

Hood River will celebrate the Fourth of July. The eagle will scream and patriotism will effervesce in a manner befitting the gallant deeds of our country's forefathers in 1776. Five hundred dollars has been subscribed for the occasion, and as Hood River never makes a failure of an undertaking, the glorious Fourth promises to be a big day in this city.

A mass meeting of the citizens was held Friday night in the rooms of the Commercial club. Major J. S. Booth presided as chairman. G. E. Williams was made secretary. L. E. Morse, O. Butler, J. L. Henderson, R. B. Bragg, appointed a committee on general arrangements.

On motion the following citizens were appointed to assist the general committee: Transportation—L. E. Morse, Leslie Butler, Frank A. Gram. Advertising—G. E. Williams, A. D. Moe, J. E. Rand. Amusements—O. B. Hartley, S. F. Fouts, J. S. Booth. Music—S. A. Knapp, C. T. Early, Louis Henderson. Finance—Charles N. Clarke, P. F. Fouts, Emmett Tompkins, Truman Butler, J. L. Henderson, R. B. Bragg.

Hood River will celebrate the 4th of July in a becoming manner, and no doubt it will be successful. The little town is very enterprising, and can display its patriotism on the nation's birthday as well as its business tact in the direction of trade. The advertisement appears elsewhere in this issue.—Chronicle.

J. M. Conklin, writing from Garden City, Kansas, says: "I gave one copy of the Glacier to a friend to read and he will send it to his brother at Tacoma, Wash. after he has read it. Another copy I sent to friends in Iowa. I expect to be in Hood River in a month or two with my family. Please put me on your subscription list."

The anti liquor fight is growing acute here. The times office will have to move because its editor, the mayor, has been trying to enforce the laws. He was notified last Friday that his rent which has been $12.50 per month would be $50 per month hereafter. Fortunately he had paid the first of the month until the first of July.—Forest Grove Times.

The board of directors of the Hood River base corporation held a business meeting last Wednesday night. The report showed the gross receipts of the grounds to be $902. Of this amount, $180 goes into the treasury of the corporation. The company expects to secure sufficient funds from bill board advertising on the park fence to keep the grounds in repair.

Thomas Tipton, general purchasing agent for the Wasco & Rio Grande railway, was in Hood River, Tuesday, the guest of W. H. Eccles and Charles F. Early of the Oregon Lumber Co. Mr. Tipton's railroad is an extensive purchaser of railroad ties and timbers from the Oregon Lumber Co. He left the same afternoon for Ingles, on the Lower Columbia, accompanied by W. H. Eccles.

T. Clay Nece of Kent, Sherman county, was a Glacier office caller, Saturday. Mr. Nece was once part owner of the Yamhill Reporter at McMinnville, where he attended college. He is now proprietor of Eastern Oregon farms, where he says the opportunities are wide ahead of anything in the Willamette valley. The portage railroad, Mr. Nece thinks will be of great benefit to the wheat growers of the inland Empire. The people would rather see the portage railroad than the Celilo canal, as they believe it would be more of a leverage on the railroad company.

The Wasco W. O. W. base ball team ran up against a hard proposition at Hood River. It was supposed that they were going there to play the Hood River W. O. W. team, but on arriving there, they were expected to play the first team of Hood River. As the boys are not professionals they were beaten. We would like very much to see the Hood River Stars tackle the Sherman county team. We rather think they would find it harder sailing than to play a team that makes no pretensions of being base ball players.—Wasco News.
