

Extraordinary Announcement!

Paul Strain, Portland's Greatest Clothier

BRINGS JOY TO THE PEOPLE OF HOOD RIVER AND VICINITY.

I was enabled to purchase May 1, 1904, the entire $147,000 stock of the Colorado Clothing Co., of strike-stricken Victor and Cripple Creek, for $28,000, cash, being less than 19c on the dollar. The finest stock of Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods ever shown in the West.

Being unable to dispose of this vast stock in my Portland stores (Strain's and The Hub), I have packed up $25,000 worth of the finest of the Stock and has it here at

Jackson's Store, Hood River, WHERE IT WILL BE SOLD AT

1-2, 1-3 & 1-4 Actual Cost

The Sale is now on and will continue until every dollar's worth is sold. STRAIN'S WAY—Satisfaction or your money back—applies to everything sold by me. If anything you purchase during this Great Sale is not in every way satisfactory, bring it back and get your money.

You will naturally ask yourself: "How can Strain sell first-class goods so cheap?" Simply because I bought them at Nineteen Cents on the Dollar. Every article exactly as advertised.

Bring this Ad. along; it is worth $1.00 on a $10.00 Purchase.

A $20 Suit for $7.50

This was a Colorado Clothing company leader. It was made for this concern by a prominent Eastern manufacturer to be sold at a bargain at $20. We bought the stock so cheap that we can afford our prices and yet have a nice little profit left. No merchant in this country ever before sold such suits at this figure. And there is not another store who can sell their equal for even $20.

A $30 Suit for $10

Elegant, up-to-date, tailor-made beauties. The very latest summer styles, including the new English frock, the swell 2 and 3-button double-breasted garments now the rage among society men of New York and Boston. In shapes, makes, cloths and cuts the variety covers every popular effort in the United States. Every piece is sewed with silk, lined with serge and satin, and the collar and button holes are hand made, so that fraying out will be impossible. This is the swellest Suit ever shown in this city.

$25 Outing Suit for $10

We received in our consignment from Cripple Creek and Victor 1,000 exquisitely tailored Outing Suits made to sell by the Colorado Clothing company at $20.00, $22.50 and $25. These garments are the finest imported Irish homespuns, Ballyho and Scotch Tweeds, perfect in fit and beautiful in coloring. In Portland these garments have usually sold at not less than $20 in any case, and some merchants have asked $30 for the kind that we sell for $10.

A $11.50 Suit for $5.95

This is an all-wool fabric, hand-tailored and sewed with best silk thread cut in latest style of sack and frock, and worth every cent of the $10 and $11.50 at which the garments sold for at Cripple Creek and Denver. No other clothing house in the city can touch these suits at less than double the price we ask for them.

$7.45 for a $17.50 All-Wool Suit

$7.45 gives the buyer pick and choice of all these handsome man-tailored $12, $15 and $17.50 all-wool suits in light, medium and heavy weight. They are dressy as they can be, worth every penny they sold for in Colorado, and cannot be duplicated anywhere at double the prices we ask.

$9.95 for $20 to $30 Garments

$9.95 takes pick and choice of the finest tailor-made suits of imported cloths in black clay worsteds, unfinished worsted, serges, vicunas, tweed and Oxford mixtures. In fact, every known weave of cloth and cut of garment, the most fastidious votaries of fashion ever knew. No man was ever so rich that he need be ashamed to wear these clothes. We would like to see them upon the backs of some of Hood River's most stylish young men. If they told where they procured them and the price they paid, no further advertisement would be necessary to speedily clean up this lot.

Fine Top Coats

$6.95—think of it, only $6.95—for any one of the Colorado Clothing Co's $12.50 and $15 summer top coats in 15 different styles. It would seem like almost any man could afford such a comfort. They will never be sold again at this price.

$8.95 for a Medium Weight Overcoat Worth $25.

There is every style in this lot. There are $50 to pick from and they were good values at $20 to $25. We sell them at $8.95 because we bought them at less than 19 cents of their worth—of their invoice price.

$10 for Heavy Winter Overcoats Worth $50

Men who are a little forehanded have now an opportunity to provide against the storms of next winter at so small a cost as to make the expense almost imperceptible. They are of Frieze, Beaver, Chinilla, Meltons and Kerseys, and there is style and fashion in every coat. They are certainly worth five times the price we are asking for them.
