

CORRESPONDENCE.

MOSIER.

S. D. Fisher met with an accident while hauling logs to his mill last Thursday, the tongue of his truck dropping while going down a steep hill, thus causing him to lose control of the truck, which ran on to the end of the bridge, and upset with three good sized logs, throwing Mr. Fisher out and bruising him.

We understand that J. N. Mosier has let the contract for the erection of his residence on the hill, to Mr. Soule, who will commence its construction as soon as the material can be placed on the ground.

Payo & Husbands of our new blacksmith and wagon repairing shop, are kept very busy these days, so much so that they have not been able to entirely complete their shop.

J. M. Elliott made a flying trip to The Dalles, last Friday.

Mr. Skene was in town last week laying the foundation for Mr. Lamb's new building.

J. M. Denny is building a residence on land recently bought of J. H. Surface.

The Root Bros. are baling hay for T. J. McClure, who will have about eighty tons.

The peach plum shipping season is now on and good returns so far have been the rule. The crop this year will average about one-half the usual crop.

Rev. Bailey shipped some of last year's apples to a friend in Michigan, last week. These apples were procured from George Ireland, and were perfectly sound. Good returns are being had from shipments of this year's apples to local markets, so of a truth, Mosier can boast of having apples all the year.

Rev. Bailey of The Dalles held services twice on Sunday at the school house in district 52, and had more than a full house, quite a number having to listen to the learned gentleman from the outside of the building.

Notices are posted for another school meeting of the legal voters of district No. 52, for the purpose of authorizing the board to provide more school room.

H. E. Delaplane, who has quite a force at work enlarging and timbering tunnel No. 3, gave a dancing party on Saturday night, which was attended by a large number of the young people.

Our genial agent would like for some one to invent something that will wake him up in the early morning. He has three alarm clocks, all going at the same time, and yet manages to sleep, regardless of the noise.

Mrs. Smith and son, Ralph, and Miss Lottie Gilbert were passengers on No. 2, destined for the show at The Dalles today.

MT. HOOD.

Warm weather prevails here at the present time. The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cooper is reported to be very sick.

Glady, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aubert, met with a very serious accident which left her with a broken leg. Her father put her on a load of hay, and in some way she fell off. She is resting as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

Most of the boys have gone out harvesting, and the rest are wishing they had gone too, as work is scarce here at present.

Last Saturday morning A. Leroux found a break in C. R. Hone's ditch, and the water went down the hill through his clover to his strawberry patch and then into his spuds. Owing to the steepness of the ground the water flowed very fast and did considerable damage.

We find that we were in error last week in stating that Will Rodenbeiser had rented his ranch for three years. He has rented for five years and doesn't know whether he can get a cook in that time or not. He is building a new barn 30x50, and it is cranked for room and light. He will have about five or six hundred dollars worth of hay this year.

UNDERWOOD.

Mrs. A. J. Haynes spent a few days visiting Hood River this week.

Mrs. Olson returned this week from her trip to the East.

Mrs. Fitzgerald is visiting her sister, Mrs. Effie Thornton.

Miss Fannie Haynes returned Thursday from her visit in Portland.

A little girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Thornton.

C. H. Cromwell made a business trip to Stevenson Thursday.

Mrs. Dark made a brief visit at Portland this week.

A. J. Haynes and B. H. Cromwell made a business trip to Stevenson Monday.

E. C. Goddard expects to return to Portland Wednesday.

Laffie, the invalid son of Ed Underwood, died Sunday and was buried Monday after a few weeks' sickness. The family have the sympathy of all their friends and neighbors.

A sister of Mr. Lyons came up Thursday and returned Friday.

Frank Larson is quite sick with the measles.

BELMONT.

The social and concert given by the band boys on last Friday evening was in every way a success. The boys will net about $18 as the result of their supper. The social was held on Mrs. M. E. Potter's beautiful lawn, and the young ladies of Belmont prepared a number of baskets which sold for about $9. The people of Belmont stand nobly by the band boys. Come again, boys, as soon as you can and we will give you a hearty welcome.

William Sabin of Portland has been visiting Mr. P. Isenberg and family.

M. A. Lesley, a business man from Portland, spent a week at the Keystone fruit ranch.

Miss Lulu Hunt from the East Side and Miss Abby Prentiss from East Grand Forks, Minn., were visitors at the home of F. G. Church Sunday.

G. D. Woodworth has finished shipping his cherries. Mr. Woodworth had 2,000 crates of fine cherries, the most of them being shipped to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Sletton and baby are visitors at the Ideal farm this week.

Mrs. B. T. Barrett is on the sick list.

FRANKTON.

Our Frankton correspondent laid down on us this week. He says the first item that came to his official notice this week was the record made by a Frankton hen which laid seven eggs in three days. He says this is such a jump toward 16 to 1 and coming right on the heels of the democratic nomination it gave him such a shock he hasn't been able to do anything since. He names his witness to prove his continuous residence with and cultivation of said hen, Mr. and Mrs. Will Eby of Frankton. If there is any one who can produce a more fruitful specimen of the genus Bankiva, the ladies columns are open for the report. Where is Barrett?

ODELL.

Your correspondent hopes the Glacier readers will accept an apology for a short list of items this week. He has been sick the greater part of the week, and too busy with his cord wood business the rest of the time.

M. Cameron, a brother of Oscar Cameron, is here from Barton, Or., and has purchased 15 acres from W. G. Dodson. Mr. Dodson came up with him to visit his family. Mr. Cameron will make Hood River his home.

Lula, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Masse, who purchased a short grist of items this week. He has been sick the greater part of the week, and too busy with his cord wood business the rest of the time.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Pine Grove church, and were conducted by Rev. Troy Shelley. Miss Massee was a bright and promising young woman. Her sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

The directors of the Hood River Apple Growers' union, consisting of A. L. Mason, Chris Dehman, G. R. Castner, B. R. Tucker, and accompanied by Mr. Shepard, were visiting the Odell apple growers Tuesday, securing contracts for the shipment of apples through the union. Chris Dehman informs us that in two days the union has secured contracts for 30,000 boxes of apples.

Odell put on more effusive airs last week by adding a Chapter of the Order of Lions to the list of secret societies of the little community. The order starts out with a prosperous list of members, and is already talking of putting up a hall for lodge use. Thus does Odell keep pace with the procession of progress.

DUKES VALLEY.

This is pretty warm, but warm weather is nothing compared to water-spouts, cyclones, floods, etc., that we read about in other parts of Oregon, and in the East.

The hay crop is nearly all baled, and the yield was as good or better than was expected. Some hay has been sold at $14 per ton. More clover and timothy will be sown this fall and next spring.

Jack Kassel, J. Q. Carahan and Gilbert Edgington have gone to the best fields of Sherman county to work awhile. Some others will go soon.

The families of Jack Kassel and J. Q. Carahan are down with the measles.

Ed Snow and wife of Monmouth were visiting friends in the valley last Sunday.

Rev. Cummins preached in our school house last Sunday to a large audience. There will be preaching every two weeks hereafter, at the Dukes Valley school house.

TROUT LAKE.

John H. Dehman, late of Biggan, Wash., purchased one acre of C. A. Pearson, joining C. E. Peet's property, and will erect a modern hotel to be opened the first of the year. Mr. Dehman is well known as a hotel keeper, and his many traveling friends will be pleased to find him in business again.

Two parties of pleasure seekers climbed Mount Adams this week. They reached the summit weaker and wiser, and came back as usual with blistered faces.

Mr. Horn, a Lutheran minister from Trout Lake, held meetings in the school house the past week. The attendance was large.

Mrs. Mulholland's son and daughter from Portland are spending their vacation with relatives. They will remain during August.

S. M. Cole of Felda, is spending a few weeks with John Dehman. Some keeps the table well supplied with fish. The Guler hotel is crowded, and over 200 are in camp near the lake.

Mrs. W. K. Cole of Felda, is spending the summer with her son, W. B. Cole.

The first automobile made its appearance in Trout Lake Sunday, and as it had been three days coming out and had two horses pulling it for the last ten miles of its journey, we presume traveling in an auto isn't a success on mountain roads.

The weather has been quite hot during the past week. Splendid weather for haying. Most of the farmers have their first crop of clover harvested.

The Goldendale Sentinel says: Rev. and Mrs. Strawbridge are spending a few days visiting among the people here. Rev. Strawbridge will preach his first sermon for Trout Lake Sunday, July 17. His wife being a beautiful and accomplished singer and musician, it is hoped that the interest of people will be awakened and more will take active parts in the church work.

Messrs. Frost and Cameron were in Trout Lake the 15th inspecting the irrigating ditches, which have been greatly damaged by the season flooding of the White Salmon river.

Peter Schmid was seriously injured while arranging a hay fork in the barn at Joseph Aren's Monday the 11th. He fell some distance and the fork fell on him running one point in his left side just below the heart. It was thought at first that he was fatally injured, but at present he is getting along nicely.

PARKERTOWN.

Mrs. Fred Newby and daughter spent few days last week at Parkertown. They returned to Hood River Thursday evening.

Mr. Romero went to Hood River on business Tuesday evening and took advantage of the opportunity to attend the K. of P. lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rand were visitors in Parkertown last Friday. They brought a few peaches and cucumbers along, which found ready sale. Green vegetables and fruit are scarce articles here, and they do not have to go begging for buyers.

Few people of the lower valley realize what a pretty place Parkertown is. We are much higher and the air is much purer, and one can look from the little store, over into the ripening wheat fields in Sherman county. The population here is about 150, some of the men having their families with them.

Davenport's new mill at this place is quite an interesting affair. The logs are first hauled into the mill pond by a small donkey engine, then a signal are drawn up a steep incline to the mill by means of a big donkey engine and a long cable.

After the lumber is sawed it is sent by dune to the lumber yard and planer. One does not often stop to think what a lot of work has to be done to get lumber ready for building our houses and at what risk of life the logs are made ready for sawing.

Miss Schunget to be Married. The following tale of romance, clipped from the Lawrence, Kans., Gazette of recent date, will be read with interest by the Hood River friends of Miss Minnie Schunget, who is well and favorably known here:

A pleasant bit of romance in reference to the life of C. Hoko Simpson, formerly of this place, now a teacher in the Philippines, was told to the Gazette today by Mr. Simpson's mother, of 1020 New Hampshire street.

Hoko Simpson has been acquainted for some years with Miss Minnie Schunget of Beloit who has been a school teacher for a number of years. Lately he decided he wanted to marry Miss Schunget and accordingly wrote her proposing the marriage and asking for a reply "yes" or "no," by cablegram. After a very short deliberation the young lady sent a "yes" for which Mr. Simpson paid $10 and a continuous smile.

Miss Schunget will leave the states the last part of this month, and upon reaching Manila, will be met by Mr. Simpson and they will be married there. They will then go to their home in Santa Maria, Ilocos Sur province, where he is superintendent of the school system.

Hoko Simpson went to Manila first as a soldier and upon his return to Lawrence about five years ago he finished his course at the University and took a position as principal of the Williamsburg school. He afterwards went to the Philippines as a teacher and was accompanied by his mother. They returned to Lawrence two years ago and he again went to his teaching leaving his mother at her home in Lawrence.

The young lady whom he has chosen, has been for the last year, principal of the school at Hood River, Oregon, and will be of great assistance to her husband. She has visited in Oregon many times, and is known by a number of Lawrence people.

The Lawrence friends will be glad to know that Hoko is getting along in his teaching exceptionally well.

Lions Organize at Odell. J. F. Smith, supreme deputy of the Independent Order of Lions, instituted a lodge with a charter list of 29 at Odell Wednesday evening. After a few brief remarks by deputy Smith, he proceeded to instruct the members in the secret work.

The following officers were duly nominated and installed for the ensuing term: President, H. C. Crockett; past president, Dennis Dodson; vice president, Hubert Morton; secretary, Ralph Shelley; treasurer, Otto Ehrck; chaplain, Mrs. Florence Cushman; sergeant-at-arms, Clinton Wood; assistant sergeant, Mrs. H. C. Crockett; door keeper, Guy Masiker; sentinel, Will Ehrck; medical examiner, Dr. Rowley.

Trustees of the school, 18 months; H. C. Crockett, 12 months; A. M. Anderson, 6 months.

The lodge starts off with a good enthusiastic class of members and with a prospect of a good large membership roll. The lodge will be in a race to call to meet in, and for other purposes.

On Friday, July 29, 1904, the annual reunion and picnic of the Congregational Sunday school will be held at the Koburg ranch, one and a half miles east of Hood River, where ample room will be had for ball games and other amusements.

Zeama will leave the church yard from 8 to 9 o'clock a. m. A special team with careful driver will be provided for all members of the primary class.

All patrons of the school, friends and members of the church are cordially requested to join in this day's outing amid the cool breezes and refreshing shades of the Columbia. Leave the farm and your business for one day in the year and live with your children in play. Let each parent provide a well filled basket including at least one dish and spoon for each child.

Ice cream and lemonade will be served to all members of the school by those wearing the purple. None are so small and none so large but what we will miss you if you stay away.

Those wishing to go by heavy conveyance may do so by paying 15 cents one way, 30 cents for round trip, provided there are 16 in the party.

A. C. STAYES, Supt.

Big Rush to Minidoka. L. C. Haynes is home from a trip to Union county and to Hailey, Idaho, where he investigated the Minidoka section, recently thrown open for settlement under the reclamation law. The government will here have a large irrigation system in operation in two years. The settlers will be expected to pay $10 an acre for water rights, this being about the only cost for the land, and the payments are to be made in ten annual installments, according to a statement from the land office officials at Hailey. The settler who files on a piece of land will be furnished with a copy of the law governing his case, and he will have six months from time of filing to make settlement upon the land. Mr. Haynes says already 3,500 entries have been made for desert land at the Hailey land office.

Colonel N. J. Sharp, register of the land office at Hailey, Idaho, says Mr. Haynes was from Hood River, immediately inquired concerning the Hood River delegates who attended the irrigation congress at Ogden last September, and asked Mr. Haynes to recommend him to them.

Mr. Haynes says cherries, the finest he ever saw, are being shipped from the Grande Ronde valley by the carload.

At Underwood, Wash., Sunday, July 24, Lafayette, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Underwood, a young man had been an invalid all his life, being unable to speak and scarcely able to move about.

In Hood River, Thursday, July 21, 1904, Little the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Oona Davenport. The child had never been strong since its birth, about a year ago. Funeral services were conducted Saturday by Elder Hangst of Salt Lake and Elder Lee of Preston, Idaho, both officials in the Mormon church. Interment was made in Idlewild cemetery.

In Hood River valley, Saturday, July 23, 1904, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ayers.

In Dukes Valley, upper Hood River, Monday, July 25, Miss Lulu Massee, aged 13. Dropsy of the heart was the cause of her death.

Bids Wanted. Sealed bids will be received by board of directors of school district No. 3, for excavating ground for the location of a school building, also bids for construction of the building, in either cement or stone. Plans and specifications for the excavating and foundation work may be seen at the office of J. P. Stranahan. Bids are to be opened at the office of W. J. Baker, on the 25th day of July, at 10 o'clock a. m. The board of directors reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Bids will also be received for the construction of a four-room school house, according to plans and specifications in the hands of Architect J. P. Stranahan. Bids for construction of the building to be opened August 4, 1904, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. at the office of W. J. Baker.

Chairman Board of Directors. C. E. HEMMAN, Clerk.
