In Hood River Valley, Wednesday morning, August 3, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Van Ausdale, a son.

Married.
On July 29, 1904, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Barbee, Hood River, W. F. Ball of Portland was joined in marriage with Miss Della G. Watson of Hood River, Rev. J. L. Hershner officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Ball will reside in Portland.

Died.
In Hood River, Sunday, July 31, 1904, Mrs. Gillie Hubbard. Funeral services were conducted from the residence on Monday.

The Green Children.
The interesting children will appear at the opera house tonight, with their marvelous musical and literary entertainments.

George Smith boarded the afternoon train, Monday, accompanied by Portland. Mrs. J. L. Carter of the East Side went to Portland, Monday.

L. C. Haynes was called to Portland Monday morning by the sudden death of his mother.

A forest fire in the neighborhood of the Chenoweth mill is filling the atmosphere with smoke.

Word from John Leland Henderson says his mother was able to recognize him on his arrival in Chicago, but that she is sinking rapidly.

H. M. Abbot has leased his strawberry patch for three years to Smith & Weather, who expect also to grow garden truck and other farm crops.

G. Sellinger, of Mosier, was in the city Wednesday. He said the fruit crop of Mosier is larger and better this year than ever before—Mountaineer.

L. N. Blowers and family arrived Sunday noon on a visit to Mr. Blowers' parents. United States Deputy Marshal Blowers returned the same afternoon.

J. M. Church of LaGrand and Robert Smith of Portland, both connected with the First National bank here, were in Hood River, Monday.

Mrs. Ned Henderson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Elias Dwyer, at Olympia. She expects to be gone about a month.

The family of W. H. Peugh returned Monday from a trip to their farm in Sherman county.

Miss Alice Clayton came up from Portland Tuesday, for a visit with Miss Anne Smith.

Dell Rand made successful signal connection with Cloud Cap Inn, Sunday afternoon. By arrangements over the telephone that morning, Mr. Rand went to the top of the hill, near the residence of H. Bailey at 2:30 and with a plate-glass mirror flashed in the direction of the Inn. In a few moments Peter Felthousen returned the signal from the top of the Inn. Mr. Rand says people at the Inn managed to keep up the continuous flash for three minutes. By telephone communication afterward, Mrs. Langille says Mr. Felthousen used his telescope on the party on the hill, and was able to see who was doing the signaling, and could even see a small boy who was standing by. This is the first time the town of Hood River has been seen from the Inn. Heretofore it was always supposed that some trees on the hill hid the houses from view.

R. L. Weber was down from The Dalles last week looking over the Hood River orchards. Mr. Weber is enthusiastic over the fruit canneries established at The Dalles this spring. Some 3,000 crates of strawberries were grown at The Dalles this spring, says Mr. Weber, and 2,000 of these went to supply home consumption. The remainder were used in the cannery. Of cherries, the cannery has now $5,000 worth of the canned product on hand. Mr. Weber believes the cannery will be in position next year to use a large quantity of small berries from Hood River. Peach plums at The Dalles brought the growers 21 cents a pound this summer. The fruit was marketed in Portland. Mr. Weber believes there is money in peach plums at this price and he believes there can always be found a market for the fruit.

John S. Pinney, former head of the American Type Founders Co. at Portland, but now of New York, purchased 20 acres of E. L. Smith last week. The land he bought lies among the plums between Dr. Watt's orchard and the Simpson Coppel place. Mr. Pinney bought the land through his friend E. R. Bradley, and paid $100 an acre for the property. Water can now be placed on the land and the Bone ditch and Mr. Pinney, if he improves it, will soon have a fine fruit ranch. It is understood that Mr. Pinney took a trip through Hood River valley last spring, just before he left for Portland, and was charmed with what he saw that he was contented until he owned some of the land himself. W. J. Baker transacted the deal.

C. J. Hayes heard for the first time Sunday that a son of his, C. E. Hayes, was confined in Portland hospital, an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and Monday afternoon he went down to bring him to Hood River. Mr. Hayes says his son was to start down the Columbia to locate on some timber land a couple of weeks ago and not hearing from him he had begun to wonder what was wrong, when Lawrence Blowers informed Mr. Hayes of his son's illness.

Marriage license was issued last week to L. Gabriel and C. E. Metcalf, of this city. This young couple married before this date, but no one has said a word to the Glacier about it. We like to tell the news when our pretty Hood River girls forsake the old nest for one of their own, and Miss Celestia and her new acquisition has the best wishes of the Glacier just the same, even if they did turn us down.

The ever vigilant city marshal, E. S. Olinger, dropped out of a deserter from the Battleship New York, last Saturday night, at the residence of Callan, Peru, and last July 7, had deserted from the vessel at the Bremerton navy yard, Puget Sound. He enlisted as John Solomon, while his real name proves to be John Stevenson. He is 23 years old.

Last week Mrs. Joseph Frazier, sr., was given a pleasant surprise by five of her daughters. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Galloway and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Porter and daughter of Wasco; Misses Annie and Vina Frazier of Portland.

Mr. Woicha, the senior member of the Hood River Plumbing Co., is using crutches. C. E. Henman, his partner, says he put him to work last Saturday night, after an attempt to climb up on a stepladder, he allowed the ladder to slip, and down he came, badly spraining his ankle.

Adolph Peterson, who was taken to Trout Lake for his health about three weeks ago, is at the place Saturday night, from consumption. The body was sent to Portland Sunday. Peterson was aged about 57. A brother, W. Peterson was here to accompany the body to Portline.

Rev. H. J. Kolb, the Lutheran minister returned Sunday from Illinois, where he spent his two months vacation with his parents. He will hold services again next Sunday at the Advent church at 2 p. m. as usual.

The Hood River Plumbing Co. has been awarded the contract for the plumbing work at the Phil Mattie residence on River street. Mr. Mathews expects to be able to occupy his new house in a week or two.

Mrs. E. C. Mooney it is said is growing weaker every day, and at times is unconscious. Her condition has become so much worse that it has become impossible to remove her to Portland for treatment.

Mr. Lane and family after a week's visit with friends in Hood River returned to their home at Latah, Wash., Tuesday. Mr. Lane was one of the station agent for the O. R. & N. at Hood River.

SUMMER SALE

Right now is the time we are going to clear stock of odds and ends left from the busy Spring season.

You don't need to bring your silver dollars—bring your half dollars. They will go just about as far now, if you can use any of the broken lots.

In SHOES, where we have but a few left of a kind, we sell at less than cost, except contract goods. You can get some splendid bargains in this line.

Also in Piece Goods, Ties, Handkerchiefs, Wrist Bags, Notions, Hosiery and Men's Hats—glad to get cost out of broken lots.

Summer Millinery at great reductions. Part of the cost suit us better than carrying it a year.

KNAPP'S.

REMOVAL SALE

We are going to move from our present quarters into the new brick building now being built by Mr. E. L. Smith, and we are going to make big sacrifices to clean up our stock before that time. We have realized that to sell this stock of goods we will have to cut deep, and you will find on investigation that there has been sacrifices never before made in this city.

J. E. RAND.

W. S. Tower of Mount Hood was in town Saturday. Mr. Tower purchased 40 acres a year ago from Robert Leasure and says he has one of the finest strawberry ranches in the valley. He also has a fine place for apples. Being on a creek he has all the free irrigating water needed, and seepage from his neighbors' farms when irrigating is done adds to the water supply of moisture for his growing crops.

As Joe Wilson left for Portland Tuesday morning to help represent Hood River at the convention of the Oregon Development league he carried with him an order from Tompkins & Jochimsen for a serving of Sweetland's famous ice cream for the entire Hood River delegation, 25 strong.

Miss Georgia Fitch of Portland is visiting her sister, Miss Agnes Fitch.

Councilman Mayes returned Sunday night from a trip to the headwaters of the Cowlitz river in Lewis county, Wash. Mr. Mayes left his family camped near Toledo, and in company with some friends made the trip to Silver Lake, near the base of Mount St. Helens. Here the party in three hours landed 710 fish. Mr. Mayes says the lake is stocked with eastern fish, such as pickerel, black bass and pike.

J. G. Tate, past supreme grand master of the A. O. U. W., and now lecturer for his lodge, was in Hood River last Thursday. He purchased 13 acres of the Newtown Clark place. His two sons will conduct the farm for the next two years, while Mr. Tate is engaged with his lecture work, when Mr. Tate, who now resides in Denver, says he will make Hood River his home.

Rev. Fred Alban Weil preached to a large congregation at the Unitarian church Sunday morning. Mr. Weil was graduated from the Meadville seminary last June. He is now minister of the Third Unitarian church, Chicago.

The many Hood River friends he made while here last summer were glad to meet Mr. Weil. He is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Elliot and family while enjoying his vacation in Hood River.

F. T. Miner left the first of the week for the harvest fields of Sherman county. Mrs. Miner is visiting friends and relatives at Wyoming, Iowa.

George T. Prather reports the following sales: One-quarter block on the hill to the school district; 13 acres from the Newton Clark place to J. G. Tate consideration, $2,700; 4 1/2 acres off the Newton Clark tract to Tom Bishop, consideration, $1,100. Mr. Bishop it is understood, will erect a dwelling on the property.

S. P. Shutt, who recently sold the Glendale News, has bought the Myrtle Creek news. S. P. moves often than a Methodist preacher, and has run a country weekly in about half the little towns of the state—Fossil Journal. Shutt, it will be remembered, once time ran an opposition sheet to the Glacier.

William Holderman, a cousin of Dan Meares, arrived from Chicago last Sunday on a visit to Dan and his family. He left for Portland Tuesday, where his family is visiting.

V. V. Hickox of the East Side brought to the Glacier office, Saturday, a two-foot branch of peach plums, containing 25 plums. The branch made a very pretty picture.
