

GIRLS SELL PIES TO AID SCHOOL FUND

The pupils and teachers of the 7th grade in the Hood River school have made plans for founding a permanent fund to be used in purchasing pictures, devices and apparatus needed in their everyday work.

The best way to help the needy is to help them to help themselves. If you would like to help and encourage the school children, please take their market.

Men who have personal knowledge of Spitzbergen market conditions will bear out in the assertion that a box of 54 size would command $1.50 a box above 112 size, providing both were good color and pack—size being the first requisite.

Your awarding committee say that they were instructed to score equal points for pack, color and uniformity of size in the box, but nothing for extra size of one box as compared with another.

Bill Nye's Advice. Bill Nye, the humorist, in reply to a Wisconsin youth who asked if Kansas was a good state in which to start another drug store, said:

Effects of Prohibition. The following letter from Hon. Geo. B. Pendleton of Temple, Texas, ex-member of congress, will interest communitarians contemplating prohibition.

CHENOWITH. The Chenowith school began on Monday, October 17, and although it is small in numbers a great deal of good work is being done.

Confessions of A Priest. Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief.

ment arrived, but so far each one stated that he felt it his duty to enlist and that the only issue in the minds of every patriotic man in those trying times was the preservation of the Union.

BARRETT. B. F. Shoemaker has grubbed out eight acres of prune trees and will plant the land with hops.

There will be an entertainment at the Barrett school house on Saturday, October 29, at 7:30 p. m., given by the teachers and pupils.

Mr. Helm, late of Chicago, has purchased five acres from Joe Hoskins and will build in the near future.

On Friday morning, October 14, the Rockford store delivery wagon lost a sack of flour when near Captain Blowers. Now this flour is the brand of Dements Best and retails at $1.25 per sack.

Thomas Shere had his potatoes dug last week and the number of sacks on so small a piece of land makes it appear as if he must have a very good crop.

FRANKTON. Items down this way are about as scarce this week as blue ribbons were after the fruit fair.

UNDERWOOD. A. C. Fuller of Chenoweth was in last week. Fritz Latty returned from Portland Monday.

George Sandell returned to Portland Monday. Mrs. Wheeler is quite sick in the Dalles hospital.

CHENOWITH. The Chenowith school began on Monday, October 17, and although it is small in numbers a great deal of good work is being done.
