

Frank A. Cram

ALWAYS UP-TO-DATE

Is ready for you with the largest, best selected and most reliable, low priced, modern stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Overcoats, Cloaks, Capes, Underwear, Hosiery, Shoes, Fancy Goods, Blankets, Bedding, of all kinds ever shown in Eastern Oregon.

The World's best markets have contributed their share to this model gathering of merchandise. Nothing that a first-class credit, with the spot cash, to discount every purchase, can be mentioned, in our line, but what some of our numerous sales force can immediately display before you a splendid showing, covering your requirements.

No old goods to offer, which have accumulated in the course of ten or fifteen years on one-horse merchandising, but modern, up-to-date goods, which compare favorably with the lines shown by the largest New York retailers, are found in this store.

We Buy for Cash, we Sell for Cash. We offer you reliable goods, fully 20 per cent below the lowest price your credit store can sell you.

We give you 5 per cent rebate on every sale, because we get the cash and can discount our purchases, and thus secure the goods at the lowest possible cost, and save the discount besides.

Nothing in the West pays the dividends to the customer that Frank A. Cram offers you, and you are protected by our hopes of future business with you.

We must treat you right or else our business would degenerate, which we are proud to say is not the case, as even in the case of a partial strawberry failure, we are making a most phenomenal record for 1904, and that is proof conclusive that the citizens of Hood River are intelligent and prefer to support a live, up-to-date Cash Store, that handles only dependable modern goods, which are a credit to the wearer as well as Frank A. Cram.

Plenty of intelligent clerks to wait on you, and thousands of dollars worth of winter goods at your command.

Yours truly, FRANK A. CRAM.

Acts IV and V—Miss Carter as "Mrs. Wiggs."

Earl Clark returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland.

Mr. Kay of Chicago, a musician of experience and the possessor of a fine dramatic voice, will make his first appearance before a Hood River audience Friday night at the Unitarian church. This number and the ladies trio will alone be worth the small admission price.

A sensational breach of promise case will be tried at the opera house Friday evening, November 11. The plaintiff, counsel, jurymen, usher, bridesmaids, etc., are composed of the best singers of Hood River, while the judge is imported goods, and knows how to conduct cases of this kind to perfection. The entire trial is set to music by the great comic opera composer, Arthur Sullivan, and is one of his best, being fully equal to "Mikado" musically, while the scenes and words are excitingly funny. A chorus of 50 voices is now at work under the direction of W. C. Ayleworth, and the musical people of Hood River are looking forward to a great treat.

George T. Prather reports the following sales: The William Kable 2.2 acres on the East Side to A. P. Morse of Portland; consideration $3,900. This same property sold last June for $3,000.

A full attendance of the members of the Commercial club is requested by President Butler at the regular monthly meeting next Tuesday evening. Several matters of importance are up for discussion.

Mrs. Parker has rented her farm to Charles Cople, and left last week for a visit with her son James at Elgin. James is in the confectionery and cigar business at Elgin, where he is succeeding nicely.

The total registration of the five Hood River precincts, including Viento, is 974; that for the whole county, 3400. Judge Prather, who registered 799 of the voters, gave the voting population of the valley above 1000.

Mrs. C. H. Sletten, graduate of the Boston Conservatory of music, announces that she is prepared to give lessons in vocal music. The hundreds of people who heard her sing the night of the local entertainment during fair week speak highly of her cultured voice.

A. P. Morse of the transfer firm of Wakeman & Morse, Portland, accompanied by his daughter, spent Saturday and Sunday in Hood River. Mr. Morse has purchased what was formerly the Sherman Young property on the East Side, and expects to make his home here.

H. F. Jochimsen, who left Hood River last week for Ione, Morrow county where he expected to establish a cigar and confectionery business, writes to have his Glacier sent to Athena. This means that Mr. Jochimsen has changed his location. His next change will possibly be back to Hood River.

B. F. Bellou completed last week the improvements to the Eggert farm on the East Side. Mr. Bellou has been employed there since early in June, constructing two dwelling houses, 2 barns, two woodsheds and two tanks. The total improvements at Eggert amount to $6000, says Mr. Bellou, who also did $700 worth of work on the Vanderbilt place.

Burt VanHorn of Burt, N. Y., president of the Hood River Fruit Co., accompanied by Mrs. VanHorn, arrived last Friday afternoon from the East. Mr. VanHorn expects to remain in Hood River two or three weeks. He is here to superintend the packing of the fancy Hood River Spitzbergen apples, which he will market in New York City.

Henry McGinir of McGuire Bros, meat market was so pleased with the masterly sermon preached last Sunday night by Rev. J. T. Merrill on the evils of the whiskey traffic that he sent a large roast and a generous supply of bacon to the United Brethren parsonage Tuesday evening by Uncle Oliver Hartness.

A. S. Thompson, immigration agent for the Harriman line, was in Hood River, Sunday, looking for Dan Meares, one of his former neighbors in Waterloo, Iowa. Dan was out after bears with Mordcai Jones, so Mr. Thompson went on to Walla Walla, with the expectation of returning to Hood River the latter part of the week, when he will spend some time here in the interest of 40 Iowans who expect to locate in Oregon this fall.

S. W. Condon of White Salmon is preparing to leave next Tuesday for Phoenix, Arizona, to seek relief from bronchial trouble. Mrs. Condon and the boys will remain on the farm during Mr. Condon's absence. The land office work which he conducted as United States commissioner, has been transferred to Vancouver. The many friends of Mr. Condon sincerely hope that the dryer climate of the south will restore him to robust health.
