At the school meeting Monday night, the school patrons of district No. 7 voted for a 12-mill tax also decided to extend the school term of this year one month.

By omitting the morning and afternoon recesses and shortening the noon intermission, the public schools of Hood River are closed shortly after 3 o'clock these dark days.

Charles N. Clarke is now the manager of the Hood River opera house. He will make an effort to bill nothing but first class productions, and proposes to give the theater-going public some good plays before the season closes.

Special train bearing O. R. & N. railroad officials passed Hood River Saturday morning about 11 o'clock, going east to Huntington. Among the party were General Manager E. J. Calvin and Division Superintendent Buckley.

M. F. Jacobs has purchased a house and lot in Portland, where he and Mrs. Jacobs will reside during the winter. Mr. Jacobs says he bought the Portland property so as to give Mrs. Jacobs an opportunity to get out of the house during the winter months, as she will be able to in Portland on the street cars.

M. M. Walther was in from Underwood Monday with a load of dressed beef. Mr. Walther disposed of same at 5 cents a pound. He says with the discontinuance of the Chenoweth postoffice it makes it very unhandy for the settlers on the Little White Salmon, as the ten mile trip cannot be made every day by the busy farmers.

The household goods of Rev. W. C. Gilmore, the new pastor of the Congregational church, and J. F. Batchelder arrived Monday, and from now on these people will be residents of Hood River. Mr. Gilmore and family will reside in the parsonage on Sherman street, while Mr. Batchelder and family will reside at the Country Club Inn.

Messrs Mason, Drageath and Gleason of the Pine Grove district completed the stringing of a mile or more of telephone wire last week and are now regular subscribers to the Hood River system. Harry Bailey was employed to string the wires, but the work was paid for by the farmers, who have named the branch line the Pine Grove Independent Phone Co.

Both steamers, the Spencer and the Gatzert, have withdrawn from the run between Portland and The Dalles. The slack in business caused their withdrawal. Jim Stranahan says there is hardly enough business on the river these days to make it paying for one boat. There is talk of a third company putting on a line next summer and having a steamer on the upper river between Celilo and Lewiston.

H. D. Taylor was injured at the Parkersburg mill last Saturday, by being caught between the rollers, and the result. His leg was fractured in two places between the thigh and knee. The injured man was immediately brought to town for medical treatment, and when his injuries were found to be so serious, Frank Davenport accompanied the man to a Portland hospital, where he will be given every care.

Cooper, the young man who made charges against the city marshal, was given a hearing before Recorder Nickelson Tuesday. The gentleman had evidently been making false statements, and everything came out satisfactorily to the entire council, with the exception of Ed Mayes, who says he will at the next council meeting demand that the charges be corrected.

Two drunks were brought before Recorder Nickelson Monday morning, and for a sentence were put to work cleaning the sidewalks. One day of this strenuous pastime was sufficient for one of them, and while the job was being done, he was charged with being drunk, and was sent to the city jail.

J. M. Culbertson secured a box of choice apples last week from B. E. Tucker, which he sent as Christmas gift to his former employer, C. S. Chappel agent for the Santa Fe at Fort Worth, Texas, where Mr. Culbertson used to have charge of the freight warehouse. The apples were fine ones, there being but 49 to the box. There were four varieties—Newtowns, Spitzenbergs, Arkansas Black and King of Tompkins County.

The high school literary will argue the following question, Friday afternoon: "Resolved, That Hood River would be better off with saloons." Harold Hershey has been assigned the affirmative, and will be supported in the debate by Marjorie Baker, Hope Shelley, Merrill Gosling, Alva Day will argue the negative with Omar Day, Rike Blagg and Bertha Lafferty assisting. The contest of arguments will be held in the school house on the hill, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Uncle Oliver Bartness left Tuesday for Oklahoma, where he will visit with a daughter and her family. Uncle Oliver gratuitously does the janitor work for the U. B. church and looks after its every want. He has every available space in the large basement of the church filled with wood cut for the furnace, and the church building is in good shape. The church people have decided to purchase an organ for the library room and Uncle Oliver gave $10 towards it.

George W. Love and son, R. E. have just finished shingling 1/2 acres of land, which they intend to clear and sow to wheat next fall, and then plant it to apple orchards. They obtained this land by clearing the same amount for J. E. Sims. For the past year, they have been located on the A. A. Jayne farm, two miles east of Parkertown, and it was there they saw the wonderful results that can be obtained from one-acre of apple orchard. $275 was realized from this acre, and at least one-third the trees did not bear this year.

A new discovery for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, cures all coughs, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes and assists in expelling a cold from the system by gently moving the bowels. Pleasant to take and contains no opiates. It is the children's friend. Sold by Williams.

Water and Light Notice All water and light bills must be paid at the company's office each month in advance, on or before the 10th day of the month. No collector will be sent out hereafter. In all cases where bills are not promptly paid when due, the services will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid.
