There will be a baptismal service at the Valley Christian Church next Sunday evening.
S. A. Cox, of Santa Clara county, Cal., is looking over Hood River with a view of locating here.
Butler & Co. have the thanks of the Glacier force for a generous donation of beautiful calendars.
Cecil Green is filling the place of salesman during the rush of the holiday trade at Booth's big store.

Application blanks for clergy certificates for 1935 may be had by calling upon Station Agent Kinard.
Rev. J. S. Rhodes of Hood River is holding a series of meetings at the Christian church.—Wasco News.
Mrs. Edward Blythe and son Robert left Tuesday for Portland to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.
Jack Bagley left Monday for a ten days' hunt in the Blue mountains. He was accompanied by two friends from Pocatello.
Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Copple are now residents of Hood River, having recently moved in from their home in the Odell district.
Dr. A. F. Rowley, the dentist, moved down from the hill Monday, and has taken rooms in the Smith building over the First National bank.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carter returned Tuesday morning from Portland, where they attended the annual meeting of the Oregon Historical society.

Would you speculate? If so invest 25 cents in a Glacier adlet. It will yield big profits. Ask those who have tried the Glacier want ads; they try one of your own.
The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church report a bank account of over $300. The money will be expended in completing the work on the interior of the church basement.
The following officers for the ensuing year were chosen at last Saturday night's meeting of Hood River lodge No. 105, A. F. and A. M.: Truman Butler, W. M.; C. D. Thompson, S. W.; Charles Castner, J. W.; A. D. Moe, secretary; E. O. Bunch, treasurer.

At the Union Church, Odell, December 25, 7:30 p. m., Christmas services will be rendered by the Christian Endeavor society. Collection taken to relieve the church building from the small debt still remaining on it. Mrs. A. L. Shelley, corresponding secretary.
Dan Mears began Monday to lay an expanded metal walk along the Brooks block on Oak and Second streets. The concrete walk will extend from Cram's store around the corner to Fouts' saloon. In the spring a concrete walk will be laid in front of Cram's store.

Frederick Alban, well known in Hood River, is now a duly ordained minister, and Sunday evening, December 11, was installed as minister of the Third Unitarian church of Chicago. The Glacier is in receipt of a neat program of the order of service of the installation.
The Dalles wasn't so slow after all in the world's fair contest. Down in the valley they are still voting for the most popular girl to go to the world's fair. Perhaps they'll change it to the Lewis and Clark fair, but they find out the St. Louis fair's a thing of the past.—Chronicle.

A. C. French, writing from Waynoka, Okla., says there was a good, old-fashioned blizzard there on the 14th, which reminded him of North Dakota. When he was there, he saw right in the middle of the snow on the ground. Here in Oregon the weather is warm and spring-like. Better come west, Mr. French.
Manager Shepard of the Hood River Apple Growers' union states that all but 15 cars of hardy winter apples have been disposed of at satisfactory prices. Among the varieties yet to ship are: Red Check, Arkansas Black, Mammoth Black Twig, Ortley, Swain, Russell, Wagner, Winesap, Walbridge.

J. F. Stranahan, the architect, has taken a homestead at White Salmon. The land lies on the side of the mountain above the town of White Salmon. Mr. Stranahan has sent a carpenter to the land to erect a dwelling house, and when this is completed, he expects to move there with his family. The homestead was secured on a relinquishment.
The law of Oregon makes it obligatory for banking houses to recognize the following Monday as a holiday when days Christmas and New Year's fall on Sunday. The Hood River banks will therefore be closed next Monday, like the day after New Year's. It will mean a holiday for the post office, also. Business houses have made no announcement as to closing on Mondays.

Colonel Hartley was in Mosier last Friday, where he purchased a 1500-pound horse that will be used as a mate for the 1600-pound mare A. Ganger has been driving in Hood River for a year or more. This makes the heaviest pair of horses in the city, and the draying firm of Ganger & Hartley are now prepared to pull with the best of them. Colonel Hartley secured his horse from P. Henningsen.
In the pool room of Fouts & Reed is a cage of two full grown gray squirrels. The squirrels were captured last summer by "Puss" Guyer, and are now so tame that when turned out of the cage they run about the room taking nuts from the hands of strangers as politely as you please. The frisky little fellows are fat as a roll of butter, but Charley Moore says they will feed on nuts as long as anyone has the time to hand them out. When eating a nut, the squirrels will discard the inside hull as well as the shell.

G. W. Hallaway, who served as an Indian scout under General Miles in the Big Horn country shortly after the Custer massacre, is in Hood River. Hallaway is 52 years old, and while no one would take him to be that old, he says he is beginning to feel the effects of the hardships of his youth, and his joints are not so limber as they were when he chased the festive Sioux in the Rockies, with the mercury 40 below zero. The old scout can relate many interesting experiences of his narrow escapes from the red skins.

A new discovery for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc., is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, cures all coughs, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes and assists in expelling a cold from the system by gently moving the bowels. Pleasant to take and contains no opiates. It is the children's friend. Sold by Williams.

The Frankton school levied a 25-mill tax for school purposes for 1935 and to assist in defraying the indebtedness of the district, incurred in building the new school house.

Instead of bringing presents to their friends Christmas, the members of the Valley Christian church will bring presents to the poor, including the Boys' and Girls' orphanage of Portland.

Christmas exercises for the children of the Unitarian Sunday school will be held at the church Saturday evening, at 7:30, with children's cantata and appropriate music for the occasion. All are welcome.

Christmas at the U. B. church will be observed Sabbath morning with appropriate music by the choir and Christmas sermon by the pastor. In the evening a Christmas cantata will be given by the Sunday school. All are welcome.

Miss Clara Belle, composer in the Glacier office since May 1, received word early Monday morning that her aged father is very sick and not expected to live. Miss Belle left on the noon train on the sad journey to her home in Auburn, Neb.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Hersher went to Monmouth, Polk county today (Thursday) where they will spend Christmas with Mrs. Hersher's parents. Their two youngest children, Lawrence and Helen went with them. They expect to return on Monday, December 26.

The Misses Goele and Ethel Smith of Pendleton, Or., stopped off for a day's visit with Hood River friends, Monday, continuing their trip to Portland Tuesday to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith.

The young ladies have "grown" wonderfully since leaving Hood River, and are getting prettier every day. If you can't take our word for it, just ask Don and-and-well, Goele Irene, we'll be good and just say Merry Christmas to both of you.

A. J. Mason, president of the Hood River Apple Growers' union will attend the meeting of the Northwest Fruit Growers' association at Boise next Monday. Mrs. Mason will accompany her husband. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Casner also expect to attend. President Mason has been asked to prepare a paper for the convention, and thinks of telling the fruit men "How Hood River Gained her Reputation for Fine Fruit." E. L. Smith, president of the association, will attend, and will deliver the address of welcome.

Good Institute at The Dalles.
County School Superintendent Neff is as that a more successful local institute has not been held in the county for many a day than that of Saturday. In spite of the fact that this is an unusually busy day for all, the attendance was large, many teachers from outside districts taking advantage of the opportunity afforded to learn that which will assist them in their work. Dalles teachers were also on hand. A good program had been prepared and many who were in attendance tell us the meeting was most enjoyable.—Chronicle.

20 MILLS NEEDED FOR SCHOOL TAX

A special school meeting for the taxpayers of the town district will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the State street school house, to vote a tax for school purposes.

The taxable property in the district is valued at $336,225, and it is estimated by Clerk Hemman that the tax levy for the coming year must be 20 mills or more. Following is the estimated expense for the coming year:

Salaries.....	$ 5,680 00
Wood.....	325 00
Interest on $13,000.....	780 00
Incidentals.....	3,000 00
Janitors.....	512 00
Total.....	$10,297 00

Notes from Hood River Heights.
Mud is plentiful on our streets again. Why can't we do something to get some cross walks?

Miss Clara Ruffner returned from Wasco, Tuesday of last week, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Marab. Mr. Beardman of Odell has bought the stock of groceries in Alcott's store and is moving the goods to Odell.

Mrs. John Kounts has been reported very sick with a gripe, but it is learned she is improving.
Miss Gertrude West, who has been in Hood River, the last six months' teaching music, has returned to her home at Philomath, to attend the winter term of school. Her pupils and friends will miss her.

The literary society, known as the Twelve O'Clock club, which meets in Carmichael hall, Saturday of each week, is having some very interesting programs and well attended meetings. A special program is being prepared for Christmas eve.

It is learned that Rowley & Co's drug store will be moved to the new building adjoining Slocum's book store. Dr. Rowley, the dentist, will also occupy rooms in the Smith block.

There seems to be some complaint about barking dogs disturbing the residents of the heights; also some boys and girls who prowl the streets at night, when they should be at home in bed. A curfew bell should be rung in the town.
