SANBORN TRIAL IS SET FOR SATURDAY

The trial set for last Saturday before the school board of the Hood River district, wherein Mrs. Sanborn, one of the teachers, was to answer the charge of incompetency preferred by patrons of the school, was postponed until the coming Saturday.

The board, the interested parties, the attorneys, witnesses and interested spectators gathered at the Park school house last Saturday morning, but after the case was opened, Attorney Henderson for the plaintiff presented an amended complaint, to which Attorney Sanborn took the limit of five days in which to file an answer.

There was some preliminary sparring over the date that should be set. Some reference was made to by one of the directors that the case need never have come up, when Attorney Sanborn banged his fist upon the table before him and thundered: "You tried to beat her down."

Something else was said and Captain Blowers retorted that he felt like fighting now.

"I love a scrap," came the prompt answer from the attorney for the defense, and there was applause from a number of the patrons present.

Appeals to State Superintendent. County Superintendent Neff rendered a decision Saturday afternoon sustaining the action of the school board in granting Mrs. Sanborn leave of absence with pay. Attorney Sanborn, in behalf of his wife has appealed to State Superintendent Neff to reverse the decision of the school board. The case for the hearing on the appeal from the action of the school board was called at 3 o'clock in the high school building, Saturday afternoon. Attorney Sanborn, in his appeal, alleged that the object of the board meeting of January 10 was stated in an unambiguous and misleading manner; that giving the teacher leave of absence and leaving her name on the payroll is illegal; that the county superintendent took an active part in the investigation and advised the board what action to take.

In his appeal to Superintendent Ackerman, Attorney Sanborn avers that the transcript filed by the clerk of the board was an incomplete record of the proceedings of the board meeting, January 10.

In appeals in such cases, the law provides that no new evidence can be admitted, states Attorney Sanborn, but the decision of the county superintendent to whom appeal is made must be based upon the record or upon the evidence brought forth at the time of the trial.

"Having no such evidence upon which to judge of the merits of the case, how was Superintendent Neff to render a decision as to the justice or legality of the decision previously rendered by the board?" asks Attorney Sanborn.

Sanborn declares the county superintendent incapacitated himself from acting as a judge in the matter, when he had taken part in the previous proceedings, from which the appeal was taken.

that the children will have an opportunity to see their own work at the fair and to point it out to their friends, has aroused an incentive to produce excellent work.

There was a large attendance of the teachers of the valley.

Superintendent Neff was present from The Dalles. The next session of the club will be held Saturday, March 11.

Decide not to Deport Negroes.

The negative debaters were awarded the decision last Friday afternoon at the high school debate on the question, "Resolved, That the Negro should be deported from the United States." The argument advanced by the young speakers was to the effect that such a course would be unjust, unconstitutional, and decidedly impracticable.

The affirmative speakers were Otis Treiber, Pearl Bradley, Lola Kelsey. The supporters of the negative—Barleigh Cash, Garnet Green, Ruie Biagg and Ila Hood, Professor Crouse, Charles Shute and Alva Day were the judges.

Election of officers for the High School Debating society resulted as follows: Debator Crouse, president; Harold Hershner, vice president; Henry Brown, secretary; Frances Bragg, treasurer; Professor Wiley, critic.

The next meeting will be held in the Park street school building, Friday afternoon, February 17.

The society is in a flourishing condition. Its membership numbers 33 young men and women of the high school. A great deal of interest has been aroused by the debates, and some excellent public speakers are being developed.
