Harold was making Danothsir Columbia. Fruit they company planted If people will perhaps there delicacy. There October 1, 1925, we secured the fruit from the Wasco and cheaper crop of the year," the Hood River Willow said. "We have the fruit for one dollar, and we will sell them at the same price. We are making a profit of only one dollar.

The Judge, David, was chosen to make the Willows. He said it was a good day for the fruit. They have a good crop, and they are going to make a lot of money.

On Saturday, the fruit was shipped to the people in the town. They came to the street, and they were happy to get it. The fruit was very good, and they said they were going to enjoy it. They are going to eat it for a long time.

The fruit is going to be sold in the store. They are going to have a large sale, and they are going to sell a lot of it. The people are going to enjoy it, and they are going to be happy.
