Wallace Young says his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Smith, are expected home from California about the first of April.

Glacier correspondents from Mount Hood, Barrett, Crapper, and Odell all got mention in last Saturday's Evening Telegram.

H. S. Richmond, who recently sold his Mount Hood farm, will move to Hood River in a week or two and take up his residence here.

V. Winchell left for Portland, Monday afternoon, with his three-year-old daughter, whom he took to the hospital for treatment for peritinitis.

Mrs. George Steinhoff of Seattle is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blount, and to look after her land recently bought of J. H. Shoemaker.

Rev. A. A. Heery, who was pastor of the Valley church last year, is now doing evangelistic work in Williamette valley towns. This week he held meetings at Junction city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Boardman of Portland are enjoying a week's outing in Hood River. Mr. Boardman is connected with the Ames & Harris wholesale bag house of Portland.

Robert Jakway Blythe spent the afternoon at Oakland last Saturday, the guest of the Misses Currie and Florence Byerlee. The young man seemed fascinated with rural life.

Clarence Gilbert and E. C. Brook are registered at the Unatilla from Cascade county. Evidently these gentlemen have not heard that the legislature was recently in session at Salem.—Chronicle.

Mrs. C. H. Carter left Thursday of last week for Canyon City, where she will visit a month with her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Tracy. On her return Mrs. Carter will spend a few weeks in the Grande Ronde valley.

Frank Noble has purchased eight acres of unimproved land from Mrs. William Foss on the East Side, paying $100 an acre for the land. Mr. Noble will build on his new property this spring, and expects to live there.

Miss Jones is home from Walla Walla, where she was during the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Jones. Miss Jones expects to spend the spring and summer at her Camp Lookout home in Barrett district.

A school entertainment will be given in the opera house, Saturday, March 11, for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the Hood River school exhibit at the Lewis and Clark exposition. A mixed program of songs, recitations and drills will be given. Everybody is asked to come and assist in the event of the school.

Miss Clara Blythe, of Hood River, is spending a few days in White Salmon visiting at the home of C. M. Wolfard. Miss Clara used to be a compositor in the Glacier office when her father was proprietor of that paper. She made the Enterprise a very pleasant call in company with Miss Wolfard on Wednesday.—White Salmon Enterprise.

J. T. Neff, Wasco county's school superintendent, was in Hood River Monday distributing 11,000 sheets of exhibit papers for the schools of that county. This special paper is for use in preparing the educational exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. Superintendent Neff says the schools are doing nicely with their exhibit work. It must all be completed by the last of March, and sent to Portland by April 10.

Robert Rand sold his cow with the pitchfork-handle attachment and the milk has been delivered. He is laying a foundation for a vigorous defense in case of a fatal accident to the buyer by clearing beforehand that he has no malice aforethought against the gentleman who took the cow, and that he does not wish to be considered as being partisan criminals in any of the cow's diabolical periphrastics.

And the cow's name was MAUD.

The railroad surveyors were at an East Side farm last Friday, and the proprietor invited the crew into the barn to sample a barrel of cider. Noticing the good hay on hand the spokesman of the party remarked: "Now, Mr. — if that railroad were in operation they would be worth twice what it is now." "My heavens, man," replied the farmer, "it cost me $14 a ton, and the Lord knows I don't want to pay any more for it."

C. F. Waldo has sold his fine residence in White Salmon to L. J. Wolfard, and is preparing to move to Hood River for a temporary residence, not having yet fully decided where he will make his future home. We are sorry to lose Mr. Waldo and his family as they are good neighbors, but wish them well wherever they may go. Mr. Wolfard has secured a pleasant and comfortable home and should spend his declining years in happiness and content.—White Salmon Enterprise.

F. W. Angus wishes to correct the impression that he refound recently $1500 for his fruit ranch four miles south of the city. The story published last week in one of the Portland papers he says emanated from a friend of his to whom he was talking and telling of Hood River. He has never been asked to set a price on his place, and is not anxious to sell. Mr. Angus has been clearing land this winter with the expectation that the ditch farmers propose building will furnish him water in a year or so. With water his place will become very valuable, but as it is he is limited in his fruit growing.

Mrs. Frederick Shoemaker was the hostess for a most delightful "Washington birthday" party on Wednesday afternoon. A group of the day decorations of the national colors were tastefully arranged, the rooms presenting a most cheerful and inviting appearance. Following out the idea of the day a cherry tree, bearing candy cherries, was a pleasant feature. A hot watermelon and a basket of cherry wood secured from Mount Vernon were the prizes. The guests enjoyed five hundred and at the conclusion of the game were served with delicious refreshments.—Pondition Tribune.

Announcement.

Spring Millinery is arriving. We are showing advance styles.

We have spared nothing to make this season a great success.

We are not in the business merely to sell Hats, but to supply our patrons with Hats that are becoming, suitable to the gown and the occasion.

Our stock this season is comprehensive, ample for every demand.

Do not hesitate to come in to look. It is a pleasure to show the new things, to discuss the new patterns.

and the other kinds.

Now if you want the best Hat that a three-dollar bill will buy, you must get the Kingsbury.

If you are easily pleased and any old kind of a hat will do you, and your bank roll is so long you think you will never see the end of it, then you can possibly afford to go against the other kinds. But when you do, don't.

We have just received the

New Spring Styles

All the New Foxy Race Track Shapes

and shapes for young men, as well as the staple and conservative blocks. Before buying your Spring Hat, see

The KINGSBURY

You can find the Kingsbury at RAND'S, Sole Agent.

Come in; you are as welcome looking as buying.

Mrs. Oscar Powell returned from her visit at Hood River last Monday.—Duffur Dispatch.

Methodists at Duffur are conducting a very successful revival meeting. The local pastor is being assisted by Rev. Clark, of Hood River.

Hon. B. F. Pike of this city has been mentioned for governor of Oregon by several prominent newspapers of Western Oregon. The Observer secures the motion.—More Observer.

A. C. Hageman, who was down from Mount Hood Saturday, reported six inches of snow on the hillsides. The roads are in bad shape, but with the spring weather no one is complaining.

Mrs. Mary Jackson, who was injured in Pasadena two weeks ago by attempting to alight from a trolley car in motion, is still confined to her bed and her injuries are believed to be more serious than it was thought they were at the time.—Duffur Dispatch.

The Chronicle of Tuesday, says: "This morning a marriage license was granted Albert K. Stranahan and Cora Fowler." Miss Fowler will be remembered by the citizens as a scholar who attended the Duffur school here in 1891.—Duffur Dispatch.

Grandpa Ellis, who has been suffering from bronchial troubles this winter, was able to be in the city last Friday. The old gentleman is very thankful to the friends who have been so kind to him the last few weeks. Mrs. Ellis' health has been very good this winter.

The Dalles Chronicle prints Mr. Water's letter from White Salmon concerning the big trees on the Salpex (see, and adds: "Upon inquiry this morning we learn that the large cherry tree has not done so well this winter. The trunk only remaining. It measured four feet in diameter."

While at Biggs yesterday H. D. Parkins tells us he met Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stranahan, who were on their wedding trip to Portland, having been married at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Fowler, near Rufus Tuesday at 11 o'clock. Rev. Allen of Wasco performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. Miss Cora Fowler is well known in The Dalles, having for a time been in the employ of Pease & Mays. She left here for Hood River to accept a position in Rand's general merchandise store. Mr. Stranahan comes from one of Hood River's best families and is in the lively business at that place. A nice little home has been fitted up and they will go to house keeping on their return.—Chronicle.

Dr. T. L. Elliot was up from Portland Friday.

H. C. Bateham left Friday afternoon for Mosier.

Mrs. H. M. Abbott and daughter are in Portland attending the millinery openings in that city.

F. S. Perry, who has been connected with the Multnomah Box factory at Portland for the past six years, was in Hood River last week on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perry.

J. E. Hanna, formerly of this city, but for the past year a resident of Seaside, on the Lower Columbia, was in the city last week. His family will return to reside here in a few weeks.

Les Evans was down from Mosier last Friday. Mr. Evans says Mosier fruit growers finished loading the fourth car of apples last Thursday. There is about another car to be shipped. The Duffur Fruit Co. of this city secured the apples.

Frank Stelling was in Mosier last week selling fruit trees. He returned Friday afternoon, the day he had promised to arrive on time. Frank was three quarters of a mile from the depot when the train whistled, and he hardly recovered his breath by the time he reached Hood River.

About seven dwelling houses, costing an average of $1000 each, will be built as rapidly as weather will permit. Several others will probably be placed in the hands of the contractors before the season is over. In fact if the undertakings now under consideration are carried out the building operations in Wasco will surpass all previous records.—Wasco News.

M. P. Leimbach went to Portland Friday afternoon to attend a meeting of the recently organized Penney's vauin society, of which Mr. Leimbach is a member. Pets was for many years in the forestry government service, but he declares he has no fear of being indicted with the other Oregon celebrities. It took a Pets to see as many eggs dropping from the Oregon political "machine."

Jake Clatterley of Trout Lake, who decided to return to his native land, Holland, to visit his parents and relatives. He has not been to his old home since coming of this country seventeen years ago. It is his intention to visit several places of interest in the United States, including Niagara Falls; from there he will go direct to New York City, and take the steamer for Holland. His many friends hope he will return to his adopted country.—Goldendale Sentinel.

The Womens' alliance will meet for work Friday afternoon in the William G. Elliot, Jr. hall.

Rev. Finney of San Francisco preached an interesting sermon at the Congregational church in this city last Friday evening.

D. A. Perry of Pondition, an old friend of E. Steptoe of Belmont, has rented the E. C. Rogers' place, and will move onto it soon.

Miss Nellie Hornor, who recently went to St. Vincent hospital for treatment, returned from Portland this week much improved in health.

Sen Fouts was up from Portland the forepart of the week arranging to enlarge his cigar store on Second street, for the purpose of placing in a stock of sporting goods, baseball supplies, guns and ammunition.

A 25 cent adlet in the Glacier brought about the sale of Joe Wilson's team, wagon and outfit to Frank Angus for $400. Mr Angus will have a large amount of farm work to do this spring, and has secured Harvey Begg to take charge of the team. Harvey has driven the team for Mr. Wilson for over a year.

The application of P. T. Hurlbert, of Shaniko, Or., E. O. McCoy, W. L. Lord, J. W. French and Smith French to organize the Condon National bank, of Condon, Or., with $20,000 capital, has been approved by the comptroller of the currency.

The farmers of the Upper Mount Hood section intend to construct a wagon road to from Perkins' place to L. C. Weigandt's, a distance of six miles. James Ross says the settlers intend to make the road without asking the county court any donations.

William Kennedy has purchased a Niagara gas sprayer, a machine which he believes to be the best spray pump. By means of this outfit Mr. Kennedy can spray his trees at a cost of half a cent per gallon for the cost in moth poison. He intends to give the new sprayer a thorough trial, and will gladly let his neighbors know what success he gets from his experiments.

G. W. Holloway, who served as a government scout during the trouble with the Sioux Indians, was in Hood River last week on his way to Pondition, where he will take a position with a government surveying crew. Mr. Holloway spent the winter in Southern Oregon, at work in the mines. He says the scarcity of water in the mountains will make mining very dull this coming year. Holloway was an acquaintance of Oscar and C. H. Stranahan when they lived in Minnesota.
